Draft Quotas Slashed By Army

Says Proposed Budget For '49 Not Big Enough

20,000-Man January Quota Halved; May Set 677,000 Limit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Army slashed its 20,000-man January draft call in half today and warned that the proposed budget for next year isn't big enough to build the 900,000-man Army authorized by Congress.

The armed forces asked for $23,000,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1. President Truman set a $15,000,000,000 ceiling on defense spending.

Of this total, $600,000,000 must be spent on stock-piling strategic raw materials. The balance of $14,400,000,000 will be split among the armed forces. The Army is expected to get around $5,000,000,000.

Figures 677,000 Limit

It was learned today that the Army figures it will have to limit its strength to 677,000 officers and men if it stays within the five billion budget. This is 223,000 (24.8 per cent) less than the 900,000 authorized by Congress last summer.

The Army had launched its draft program in November with a call for 10,000 men. The December call was for 15,000 and the original January call was for 20,000. Later, it was planned to make the monthly calls around 30,000.

But the Army today cut the January call to 10,000 and the February call to 5,000. It was explained that the reduced budget made both cuts necessary.

Neither the Navy nor Air Force has turned to Selective Service to boost manpower. Volunteers to date have been adequate.

Present strength of the Army is estimated at 645,000, an increase of 9,527 over October 1.

1,564,018 In Uniform

All forces together had 1,564,018 officers and men on November 1, Secretary of Defense Forrestal said. This was a boost of 19,528 since October 1.

The overall goal set for June 30, 1949 was 1,786,500. To reach that figure the monthly increase would have to be 27,810.

If the Army limits its manpower to 677,000 men because of reduced funds, an authoratative source said it would have to drop plans for two new divisions scheduled for June. The stabilized strength will be just slightly above its present strength.

That will mean sharp reduction in draft calls, too. Instead of drafting 225,000 to 250,000 men this fiscal year ending next June 30, the total would be but a fraction of that.

Car Waiting List Woes Are Aired Before Probers

Prospective Buyer Dropped 10 Places

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP) — Congressmen investigating automobile sales practices heard today of a flexible waiting list where a prospective customer worked up to 25th, then dropped to 35th place.

They also were told that the same Chevrolet dealer, Kenyon-Peck, Inc., of nearby Arlington, Va., favored car buyers who had old cars to trade in. Lawrence Kenyon, vice president and treasurer, said that until last August about half the new cars the company received were set aside as "demonstrators" and sold to old customers who didn't want to wait.

Mrs. Sarah Eigen told a House subcommittee investigating automobile sales in this area about her troubles in getting a car.

From 25th To 35th

She said she put up a $100 deposit with Kenyon-Peck on November 8, 1946. Last spring, she said, she was informed she was 25th on the waiting list. But in May, she testified, her salesman told her she had "gone down to 35th."

She said she wrote General Motors in Detroit, and that her complaint was forwarded to a district office in Baltimore, which said it had no jurisdiction over the dealer.

Mrs. Eigen said she finally gave up, bought a used car, and got back her $100 deposit from Kenyon-Peck.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Macy (R-NY), heard conflicting stories from Kenyon-Peck officials about the flexibility of the firm's waiting list.

Lawrence Kenyon said the concern never juggled its applications for new cars, and that about half the new models it received went to people on the list. The rest, he explained, were the "demonstrators" which went to impatient old customers, until General Motors asked that the practice be ended.

List "Adjusted"

But Walter H. Garner, the company's sales manager, said that Kenyon might not have known it, but he (Garner) had "adjusted" some names on the list.

"I have put some people back, and moved some people I thought worthy cases up," he testified, adding that he had given preferred positions to a visiting nurse and to a woman who needed a car to take a child to a doctor.

Kenyon stood up for his firm's policy of giving preference to persons with cars to trade in. He said it is important "to even up our business with good, profitable deals on trade-ins."

Suchow Force Moving South To Aid Comrades

Evidence Government Preparing To Leave Nanking Increases

NANKING, Nov. 30 (AP)—Suchow's 250,000-man garrison was reported swinging south today for a battle to save Nanking, but signs multiplied in the capital that the government is prepared to flee.

Well-based reports said government offices might scatter—to the old wartime capital of Chungking in the west, Canton in the south, and to Formosa.

Usually reliable sources said the Suchow garrison — strongest force left in the area—sallied from the fortress in an attempt to save 140,000 comrades trapped by the Reds 65 miles to the south.

These sources spoke of the movement as abandonment of Suchow. They said all communications—including air transport—between Nanking and the bastion 211 miles northwest would be cut off tomorrow.

Air Service Believed Halted

(This indicated the garrison was told to expect no more air reinforcements and supplies unless it got out and fought, and that air service was cut off to force it to more.)

Suchow has stood up to nearly a month of Chinese Communist assault, but it was isolated except by air after the Reds knifed southward. Even so, the garrison was reluctant to leave the fortifications under urgent orders from Nanking issued four days ago.

There was every indication that the Suchow forces would have to fight all the way if they expected to reach their comrades, encircled south of Suhsien. Suhsien is 45 miles from Suchow.

In this area Gen. Huang Wei's 12th Army Group thrust its neck into a noose fashioned by the Central Chinese armies of Communist Gen. Liu Po-Cheng.

One press report said Liu had tightened this noose by capturing Kuchen, road and railway center 30 miles southeast of Suhsien. The government's Central News said "major fighting" was erupting at Kuchen, which is 125 miles northwest of Nanking.

Woman, 83, Pays Fine After She's Caught Speeding

CINCINNATI, Nov. 30 (AP)—Municipal Judge Frank Gusweiler fined a speeder in traffic court today—which isn't particularly newsworthy of course—but in this case the speeder was a woman 83 years old.

Patrolman Walter Jordan said he clocked Mrs. Elizabeth Worcester driving at 53 miles an hour in a 35-mile-an-hour zone. Mrs. Worcester admitted she was speeding and paid a fine of $3 and costs.

Court attaches said they believe she was the oldest woman motorist ever convicted of speeding here.

Madame Chiang Arrives In U.S.A.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30 (AP)—A tight-lipped Madame Chiang Kai-Shek arrived in the United States today to seek American aid for her husband's hard-pressed government.

The wife of China's Generalissimo landed at Moffett Field Naval Air Station at noon for an eight-hour stopover on her flight from Nanking to Washington.

She was scheduled to depart at 8 p. m. (California Daylight Time) for the overnight flight to Washington in the one-time presidential "Sacred Cow."

She was accorded a diplomatic United States welcome by Raymond D. Muir. The assistant chief of protocol for the State Department greeted her as the distinguished wife of the head of a friendly power.

Her murmured greetings over, she stepped into a Navy limousine and was whisked off to the Senior Officers Club for a brief stop and a quick handshake with reporters and photographers.

She had nothing to say, officially or otherwise. She posed graciously for photographers.

Chinese embassy officials said Madame Chiang is expected to limit her stay in the United States to about two weeks.

Four Killed, 50 Injured In English Train Wreck

STOCKPORT, England, Nov. 30 (AP)—Four persons were killed and approximately 50 injured tonight when two trains collided in a dense fog that has plagued England the past four days. The wreck occurred atop a 200-foot high viaduct.

Poor visibility hampered rescue work and ambulances crawled to and from the accident scene, about 15 miles south of Manchester.

First reports said neither train toppled over the side.

It was the third train wreck tonight due to fog. Six persons were injured in one of these.

Mencken In Hospital After "Small Stroke"

BALTIMORE, Nov. 30 (AP)—H. L. Mencken, author, newspaperman and critic, has suffered a "small stroke," and is a patient in Johns Hopkins Hospital.

A hospital announcement tonight said the condition of the 68-year-old "Sage of Baltimore" is serious "only insofar as the underlying process has serious connotations."

It said he was admitted to the hospital November 23, "having suffered a small stroke."

Truman Backs Proposal For Lobby Inquiry

Chief Executive Compliments Union For Suggesting It

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP) — President Truman gave his blessing today to a proposed "thorough investigation of lobbying in Congress.

He said it would "have a very salutary effect." He complimented the International Association of Machinists for suggesting it.

The union, an independent, charged in a resolution that "high powered lobbying activities" had confused the 80th Congress and that an assault is being prepared on Mr. Truman's legislative program in the 81st.

Mr. Truman himself has struck out repeatedly in statements against "special interest lobbies." During the election campaign, he referred to the 80th Congress as "the puppet of big business, the puppet of special lobbies—the real estate lobby, the power lobby, the grain speculators' lobby, and others."

People Entitled To "Facts"

"Congress delivered for the interests that had their lobbyists swarming all over the capital," he said in a campaign speech.

The machinists executive council asked for an investigation by a joint committee of both houses of Congress.

Its resolution said the people are entitled to the "full facts" about the "lobbying methods of the National Association of Manufacturers, the Committee for Constitutional Government, the National Physicians Committee, the National Association of Electric Companies, the National Association of Home Builders, the National Association of Real Estate Boards, the Association of American Railroads, and other lobbies."

Acknowledging a copy of the resolution, Mr. Truman said:

"I think your organization has rendered a distinct public service in taking a stand on this matter.

"While it is up to the Congress to determine the subjects which it will investigate, I feel sure that a thorough investigation of lobbying activities would have a very salutary effect, and I would be glad to see such an investigation undertaken."

GOP CHAIRMAN CALLS ON PARTY TO "POLICE TRUMAN NEW DEAL"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—GOP National Chairman Hugh Scott, Jr., summoned his defeated party today to "police the Truman New Deal" and continue the battle against "the radical spendthrifts."

Scott, a House member from Pennsylvania who won re-election, sent a letter to 22,000 party workers throughout the country.

"We will not abandon our form of government to the regimented state socialism intended by the opposition," he said.

Some Rpeublicans have been talking of a shakeup in the Republican leadership to substitute "liberals" for members of what they term the "old guard." But Scott showed no signs of bowing out.

He said that in the past campaign the party "had a good program and honest program which we failed adequately and aggressively to sell."

"Doctor Of Year" Once Regretted Giving Up Professional Baseball

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dr. William Lowry Pressly, who once regretted giving up professional baseball to become a doctor, was named the outstanding family doctor of the year today by the American Medical Association.

The six-foot-one physician, who for 32 years has been doctoring the folks around Due West, S. C., will receive the association's gold medal known as the General Practitioner Award at a dinner in his honor Thursday night, on his sixty-first birthday.

Still lean and straight but with hair slightly greying and receding, Dr. Pressly recalled he has worn out 22 model-T Fords and delivered some 4,200 babies since he began practice in the town of his birth, population 2,250.

"I used to be gone so long on births of babies that when I got home the dogs had fogotten me and barked," he said.

He played professional baseball for six years in the Virginia League, first at Roanoke and then at Norfolk. He played first base and later was player-manager, earning $5,000 the last year.

He decided to become a doctor on the advice of a friend, Dr. Hugh H. Traut, Roanoke, and in his first year as a country doctor his income was $750. "I thought, 'My God, why did I do this,' he recalled.

"I turned down an offer to play with the Pittsburgh Pirates to practice medicine, and I'm mighty, mighty happy I did," Dr. Pressly said.

Execution Stays Granted Japs By Gen. MacArthur

TOKYO, Dec. 1—(Wednesday)—(INS)—Gen. MacArthur announced today that he has granted formal temporary stays of execution to Hideki Tojo and six other condemned Japanese war criminals.

MacArthur said his formal action would permit families of the doomed men to visit them in Tokyo's Sugamo Prison pending action on appeal before the United States Supreme Court.

MacArthur's announcement said the condemned men had been advised of "press reports" of appeals to the Supreme Court and added:

"In conformity with prison routine the monthly visit of the immediate families of these individuals for the month of December is being permitted."

GOP Senators Will Push Housing Bill

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Sens. Flanders (R-Vt) and Tobey (R-NH) announced today they will join five Democrats in sponsoring housing legislation in the next Congress.

They issued a statement saying: "During the 80th Congress we actively supported comprehensive housing legislation. Nothing has occurred since then to alter our belief that immediate action must be taken to provide low rent housing units for low income families."

The New England Republicans said they will join Sens. Ellender (D-La), Wagner (D-NY), Myers (D-Pa), Maybank (D-SC) and Sparkman (D-Ala) in introducing a bill.

"We hope," the statement added, "that Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio), who has fought so long for housing legislation, will join with us in sponsoring this bill upon his return."

Flanders and Tobey said the bill they will push will have many of the features of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill which passed the Senate last April but died in the House.

Parts of that bill which will be proposed again include capital grants for slum clearance, 500,000 public rental housing units to be constructed over a five-year period, and housing research.

Recount Gives Demos Another House Seat

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 30 (AP) — Democrats officially picked up another seat in the next Congress today at the expense of Republicans.

A re-count of ballots showed 28-year-old John C. Davies, a Democrat from Utica, had defeated Rep. Hadwen C. Fuller by 138 votes in the 35th New York Congressional District.

That gives New York Democrats 24 seats. The Republicans will have 20 and the American Labor Party, one.

Marshall Gets Checkup

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall left his desk today for hospital "tests and examinations" that will take several days.

Truman Approves Plan To Regroup Federal Agencies

Hoover Says Object Is More Efficiency

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP) — President Truman's approval of a plan to regroup approximately 60 federal agencies which now report directly to the Chief Executive was announced today by Herbert Hoover.

The former President, head of a bi-partisan commission which has been studying the executive branch of the government, said each of these agecnies would be put under a Cabinet-rank department or another agency called an "administration."

Hoover talked with reporters at the White House after he had conferred for approximately 45 minutes with Mr. Truman.

They first understood him to say the commission will recommend that the 60 agencies be blanketed into one for more efficient housekeeping.

Spokesman Explains

A spokesman said later, however, that the former President meant each agecny would be placed either into (a) one of the nine existing Cabinet-rank departments or a proposed tenth, or (b) one of six administrations, each with a single head, which would handle matters in related fields.

One of these six administrations would be concerned solely with what are called "central services"—those which nearly all government departments and agencies share. They include such functions as procurement, statistics and records, and personnel.

The head of this agency would not be of Cabinet rank under the proposal the commission will recommend, Hoover said.

He did not expand on the proposed creation of a new Cabinet post, but there has been considerable support recently for a department of health, welfare and security.

The spokesman for the former President said Hoover did not suggest any change in the setup of such semi-judicial independent agencies as the Commerce, Communications or Power Commissions.

Say They May Take Separate Berlin Action

Bramuglia Is Handed Allied Note After Red Rump Regime Set Up

PARIS, Wednesday, Dec. 1 (AP)—A responsible western source said today the United States, Britain and France had warned they may take separate action in Berlin if Russia continues trying to split the city.

The three powers were reported to have acted together in a short note handed to Dr. Juan Bramuglia, Argentine Foreign Minister and outgoing United Nations Security Council president.

The Western warning was the first official action taken after the setting up yesterday of a Communist rump municipal regime in Berlin.

The note was given to Bramuglia when he called on the Western leaders about terms of a projected study by neutral nations of the East-West currency fight in Berlin, the diplomatic informant said.

This source, who is in touch with the Western leaders, said the United States, Britain and France stressed their desire to continue cooperating as completely as possible in making neutral mediation efforts succeed.

But, he added, the three powers made it plain they reserve the right to take whatever action they may see fit to counter Russian policies which, they said, are making their position in Berlin more difficult.

Planned Action Not Revealed

What action they have in mind the source did not say. He did recall, however, that the Western warning was "in line" with a communique issued by United States Secretary of State George C. Marshall, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman October 27. This announced the three governments would review future action in the Berlin dispute in the light of developments.

The October communique was sent out just after Russia had vetoed a resolution by neutral powers on the Security Council aimed at reaching a compromise on Berlin. The resolution asked both sides not to take any action in Berlin which might aggravate the situation. The Western Powers accepted it.

But, the source said, they now feel the time has come to make it clear Russia is not going to be allowed to do whatever she likes under the umbrella of settlement efforts which have been going on here for nearly two months.

Reds Set Up Rump Regime

BERLIN, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Communists split Berlin wide open tonight by naming their own rump government.

The putsch was steamrollered through a hand-picked convention in a musical comedy theater in the Soviet sector. The chairman read the ticket in rapid fire style, all fists shot into the air at his call for a show of hands, and the meeting and election were over in an hour and a half.

Then about 100,000 sympathizers held a somewhat placid rally in the chill damp air of Unter Den Linden at which speakers called for support of the new regime and denounced the regularly-elected government now sitting in West Berlin. Everything went smoothly and there was no violence.

Highway Death Figure May Surpass '47 Toll

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (AP)—In a grim race of death, 1948 highway accidents are banging toward the Christmas-New Year's finish line—hood to hood with the 1947 toll.

A photo finish is in prospect, the National Safety Council predicted today.

At the end of October the tally showed: 1947 traffic deaths to that date—26,000. 1948 deaths—25,720 or one per cent fewer.

An eight per cent jump in October deaths, over the same month in 1947, virtually wiped out safety gains scored the first three quarters of this year. The October toll was 3,290, compared with 3,050 in October, 1947.

Dream Loot Faded Away So Carpenter Robs Bank

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 30 (AP)—A month ago, Frank Bowers had a dream. He robbed a bank and when he counted the cash there was $70,000 in the pile.

But he woke up and the money was gone.

So Bowers set about to make the dream come true—with hard, cold, glittering cash in the pile instead of the nebulous stuff of which dreams are made.

He opened an account at the Barnett National Bank and got a key to the night depository. A carpenter by trade, he fashioned a gadget from a hat-stretcher and a couple of boards. It looked like the perfect thing-a-ma-bob to make this dream come true.

On Saturday night, Bowers unlocked the little door to the night depository, stuffed the gadget into the chute, closed the door and walked away and waited.

A man came along, dumped some money bags into the chute and left. Bowers went up and fished them out. Pretty soon two more men came along and shoved in money bags. Bowers lifted them out too.

He went away and counted the loot. It was $552.96 in cash and about $900 in checks. He tossed the checks into the St. Johns River.

Then he returned to his newfound mint, but this time there was a crowd around the place. Someone had discovered the gadget in the chute.

So Bowers left in a hurry, but not before a bystander noticed his excitement. His description was broadcast and the police picked him up. They found some of the cash in his pocket and some in a tool box.

Bowers, a slightly-built man of 52, admitted it all in Federal Court today. He pleaded guilty to violating the Federal Bank Robbery Act and had only one explanation—the dream and that shining $70,000 in cash. Federal Judge Dozier Devane will sentence him Friday.

Bernadotte Proposal Dropped By Britain

PARIS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Britain dropped the Bernadotte proposal for taking the Negev Desert away from Israel and agreed with the United States today on the broad principles of a compromise Palestine plan.

The compromise was handed to the 58-member Political Committee of the United Nations Assembly in a new British resolution. It accepted the United States' view that the Jews and Arabs should bargain on any territorial changes in the Holy Land.

An earlier British proposal had supported the recommendation of Count Folke Bernadotte, slain United Nations mediator, that Israel should give the Negev to the Arabs in return for Western Galilee.

The United Nations said the acting mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, will fly to Palestine soon for talks with Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, chief of staff of United Nations truce observers. It was said the talks would cover the entire Palestine situation.

"Divorce Mill" Believed Smashed; Six Arrested

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(INS)—A wide-spread New York "divorce mill" was believed smashed tonight with the arrest of five men and a woman whose alleged perjured testimony may invalidate a number of uncontested decrees.

District Attorney Frank Hogan announced that he will examine all uncontested divorces in New York County during the past two years to determine if the freedom-seeking couples were illegally separated.

The district attorney said he will apply to the Supreme Court tomorrow to examine the records of some 9,000 matrimonial cases. He was granted permission today by Supreme Court Justice Joseph A. Gavegan to look at the sealed testimony in five divorces.

Hogan announced that the "hired girlie," two attorneys, a law clerk, a private detective and another man were arrested and charged with perjury and other charges.

He said he had evidence which may implicate at least 10 more attorneys.

The woman, Sara Ellis, 20-year-old mother of three children, told of being found in supposedly compromising situations with married men so the wives could obtain uncontested divorces.

Under New York law, adultry is the only ground for divorce and "evidence" is necessary to substantiate it.

The two lawyers arrested are Barnett Muffs, 48, and Luther Georges, 61. The law clerk is Harry Ulanoff, 50.

Samuel Schneiderman, 57, was held in $500 bail. Max Zuckerman, 53, who told Hogan he had committed "flagrant perjury" in hundreds of divorce cases, was held in $5,000 bail, and Mrs. Ellis was released on $500 bail.

The United Nations said the acting mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, will fly to Palestine soon for talks with Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, chief of staff of United Nations truce observers. It was said the talks would cover the entire Palestine situation.

Suchow Force Moving South To Aid Comrades

Evidence Government Preparing To Leave Nanking Increases

NANKING, Nov. 30 (AP)—Suchow's 250,000-man garrison was reported swinging south today for a battle to save Nanking, but signs multiplied in the capital that the government is prepared to flee.

Well-based reports said government offices might scatter—to the old wartime capital of Chungking in the west, Canton in the south, and to Formosa.

Usually reliable sources said the Suchow garrison — strongest force left in the area—sallied from the fortress in an attempt to save 140,000 comrades trapped by the Reds 65 miles to the south.

These sources spoke of the movement as abandonment of Suchow. They said all communications—including air transport—between Nanking and the bastion 211 miles northwest would be cut off tomorrow.

Air Service Believed Halted

(This indicated the garrison was told to expect no more air reinforcements and supplies unless it got out and fought, and that air service was cut off to force it to more.)

Suchow has stood up to nearly a month of Chinese Communist assault, but it was isolated except by air after the Reds knifed southward. Even so, the garrison was reluctant to leave the fortifications under urgent orders from Nanking issued four days ago.

There was every indication that the Suchow forces would have to fight all the way if they expected to reach their comrades, encircled south of Suhsien. Suhsien is 45 miles from Suchow.

In this area Gen. Huang Wei's 12th Army Group thrust its neck into a noose fashioned by the Central Chinese armies of Communist Gen. Liu Po-Cheng.

One press report said Liu had tightened this noose by capturing Kuchen, road and railway center 30 miles southeast of Suhsien. The government's Central News said "major fighting" was erupting at Kuchen, which is 125 miles northwest of Nanking.

Woman, 83, Pays Fine After She's Caught Speeding

CINCINNATI, Nov. 30 (AP)—Municipal Judge Frank Gusweiler fined a speeder in traffic court today—which isn't particularly newsworthy of course—but in this case the speeder was a woman 83 years old.

Patrolman Walter Jordan said he clocked Mrs. Elizabeth Worcester driving at 53 miles an hour in a 35-mile-an-hour zone. Mrs. Worcester admitted she was speeding and paid a fine of $3 and costs.

Court attaches said they believe she was the oldest woman motorist ever convicted of speeding here.

Madame Chiang Arrives In U.S.A.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30 (AP)—A tight-lipped Madame Chiang Kai-Shek arrived in the United States today to seek American aid for her husband's hard-pressed government.

The wife of China's Generalissimo landed at Moffett Field Naval Air Station at noon for an eight-hour stopover on her flight from Nanking to Washington.

She was scheduled to depart at 8 p. m. (California Daylight Time) for the overnight flight to Washington in the one-time presidential "Sacred Cow."

She was accorded a diplomatic United States welcome by Raymond D. Muir. The assistant chief of protocol for the State Department greeted her as the distinguished wife of the head of a friendly power.

Her murmured greetings over, she stepped into a Navy limousine and was whisked off to the Senior Officers Club for a brief stop and a quick handshake with reporters and photographers.

She had nothing to say, officially or otherwise. She posed graciously for photographers.

Chinese embassy officials said Madame Chiang is expected to limit her stay in the United States to about two weeks.

Four Killed, 50 Injured In English Train Wreck

STOCKPORT, England, Nov. 30 (AP)—Four persons were killed and approximately 50 injured tonight when two trains collided in a dense fog that has plagued England the past four days. The wreck occurred atop a 200-foot high viaduct.

Poor visibility hampered rescue work and ambulances crawled to and from the accident scene, about 15 miles south of Manchester.

First reports said neither train toppled over the side.

It was the third train wreck tonight due to fog. Six persons were injured in one of these.

Mencken In Hospital After "Small Stroke"

BALTIMORE, Nov. 30 (AP)—H. L. Mencken, author, newspaperman and critic, has suffered a "small stroke," and is a patient in Johns Hopkins Hospital.

A hospital announcement tonight said the condition of the 68-year-old "Sage of Baltimore" is serious "only insofar as the underlying process has serious connotations."

It said he was admitted to the hospital November 23, "having suffered a small stroke."

Truman Backs Proposal For Lobby Inquiry

Chief Executive Compliments Union For Suggesting It

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP) — President Truman gave his blessing today to a proposed "thorough investigation of lobbying in Congress.

He said it would "have a very salutary effect." He complimented the International Association of Machinists for suggesting it.

The union, an independent, charged in a resolution that "high powered lobbying activities" had confused the 80th Congress and that an assault is being prepared on Mr. Truman's legislative program in the 81st.

Mr. Truman himself has struck out repeatedly in statements against "special interest lobbies." During the election campaign, he referred to the 80th Congress as "the puppet of big business, the puppet of special lobbies—the real estate lobby, the power lobby, the grain speculators' lobby, and others."

People Entitled To "Facts"

"Congress delivered for the interests that had their lobbyists swarming all over the capital," he said in a campaign speech.

The machinists executive council asked for an investigation by a joint committee of both houses of Congress.

Its resolution said the people are entitled to the "full facts" about the "lobbying methods of the National Association of Manufacturers, the Committee for Constitutional Government, the National Physicians Committee, the National Association of Electric Companies, the National Association of Home Builders, the National Association of Real Estate Boards, the Association of American Railroads, and other lobbies."

Acknowledging a copy of the resolution, Mr. Truman said:

"I think your organization has rendered a distinct public service in taking a stand on this matter.

"While it is up to the Congress to determine the subjects which it will investigate, I feel sure that a thorough investigation of lobbying activities would have a very salutary effect, and I would be glad to see such an investigation undertaken."

GOP CHAIRMAN CALLS ON PARTY TO "POLICE TRUMAN NEW DEAL"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—GOP National Chairman Hugh Scott, Jr., summoned his defeated party today to "police the Truman New Deal" and continue the battle against "the radical spendthrifts."

Scott, a House member from Pennsylvania who won re-election, sent a letter to 22,000 party workers throughout the country.

"We will not abandon our form of government to the regimented state socialism intended by the opposition," he said.

Some Rpeublicans have been talking of a shakeup in the Republican leadership to substitute "liberals" for members of what they term the "old guard." But Scott showed no signs of bowing out.

He said that in the past campaign the party "had a good program and honest program which we failed adequately and aggressively to sell."

"Doctor Of Year" Once Regretted Giving Up Professional Baseball

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dr. William Lowry Pressly, who once regretted giving up professional baseball to become a doctor, was named the outstanding family doctor of the year today by the American Medical Association.

The six-foot-one physician, who for 32 years has been doctoring the folks around Due West, S. C., will receive the association's gold medal known as the General Practitioner Award at a dinner in his honor Thursday night, on his sixty-first birthday.

Still lean and straight but with hair slightly greying and receding, Dr. Pressly recalled he has worn out 22 model-T Fords and delivered some 4,200 babies since he began practice in the town of his birth, population 2,250.

"I used to be gone so long on births of babies that when I got home the dogs had fogotten me and barked," he said.

He played professional baseball for six years in the Virginia League, first at Roanoke and then at Norfolk. He played first base and later was player-manager, earning $5,000 the last year.

He decided to become a doctor on the advice of a friend, Dr. Hugh H. Traut, Roanoke, and in his first year as a country doctor his income was $750. "I thought, 'My God, why did I do this," he recalled.

"I turned down an offer to play with the Pittsburgh Pirates to practice medicine, and I'm mighty, mighty happy I did," Dr. Pressly said.

Execution Stays Granted Japs By Gen. MacArthur

TOKYO, Dec. 1—(Wednesday) —(INS)—Gen. MacArthur announced today that he has granted formal temporary stays of execution to Hideki Tojo and six other condemned Japanese war criminals.

MacArthur said his formal action would permit families of the doomed men to visit them in Tokyo's Sugamo Prison pending action on appeal before the United States Supreme Court.

MacArthur's announcement said the condemned men had been advised of "press reports" of appeals to the Supreme Court and added:

"In conformity with prison routine the monthly visit of the immediate families of these individuals for the month of December is being permitted."

GOP Senators Will Push Housing Bill

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Sens. Flanders (R-Vt) and Tobey (R-NH) announced today they will join five Democrats in sponsoring housing legislation in the next Congress.

They issued a statement saying: "During the 80th Congress we actively supported comprehensive housing legislation. Nothing has occurred since then to alter our belief that immediate action must be taken to provide low rent housing units for low income families."

The New England Republicans said they will join Sens. Ellender (D-La), Wagner (D-NY), Myers (D-Pa), Maybank (D-SC) and Sparkman (D-Ala) in introducing a bill.

"We hope," the statement added, "that Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio), who has fought so long for housing legislation, will join with us in sponsoring this bill upon his return."

Flanders and Tobey said the bill they will push will have many of the features of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill which passed the Senate last April but died in the House.

Parts of that bill which will be proposed again include capital grants for slum clearance, 500,000 public rental housing units to be constructed over a five-year period, and housing research.

Recount Gives Demos Another House Seat

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 30 (AP) — Democrats officially picked up another seat in the next Congress today at the expense of Republicans.

A re-count of ballots showed 28-year-old John C. Davies, a Democrat from Utica, had defeated Rep. Hadwen C. Fuller by 138 votes in the 35th New York Congressional District.

That gives New York Democrats 24 seats. The Republicans will have 20 and the American Labor Party, one.

Marshall Gets Checkup

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall left his desk today for hospital "tests and examinations" that will take several days.

Truman Approves Plan To Regroup Federal Agencies

Hoover Says Object Is More Efficiency

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP) — President Truman's approval of a plan to regroup approximately 60 federal agencies which now report directly to the Chief Executive was announced today by Herbert Hoover.

The former President, head of a bi-partisan commission which has been studying the executive branch of the government, said each of these agecnies would be put under a Cabinet-rank department or another agency called an "administration."

Hoover talked with reporters at the White House after he had conferred for approximately 45 minutes with Mr. Truman.

They first understood him to say the commission will recommend that the 60 agencies be blanketed into one for more efficient housekeeping.

Spokesman Explains

A spokesman said later, however, that the former President meant each agecny would be placed either into (a) one of the nine existing Cabinet-rank departments or a proposed tenth, or (b) one of six administrations, each with a single head, which would handle matters in related fields.

One of these six administrations would be concerned solely with what are called "central services"—those which nearly all government departments and agencies share. They include such functions as procurement, statistics and records, and personnel.

The head of this agency would not be of Cabinet rank under the proposal the commission will recommend, Hoover said.

He did not expand on the proposed creation of a new Cabinet post, but there has been considerable support recently for a department of health, welfare and security.

The spokesman for the former President said Hoover did not suggest any change in the setup of such semi-judicial independent agencies as the Commerce, Communications or Power Commissions.

Say They May Take Separate Berlin Action

Bramuglia Is Handed Allied Note After Red Rump Regime Set Up

PARIS, Wednesday, Dec. 1 (AP)—A responsible western source said today the United States, Britain and France had warned they may take separate action in Berlin if Russia continues trying to split the city.

The three powers were reported to have acted together in a short note handed to Dr. Juan Bramuglia, Argentine Foreign Minister and outgoing United Nations Security Council president.

The Western warning was the first official action taken after the setting up yesterday of a Communist rump municipal regime in Berlin.

The note was given to Bramuglia when he called on the Western leaders about terms of a projected study by neutral nations of the East-West currency fight in Berlin, the diplomatic informant said.

This source, who is in touch with the Western leaders, said the United States, Britain and France stressed their desire to continue cooperating as completely as possible in making neutral mediation efforts succeed.

But, he added, the three powers made it plain they reserve the right to take whatever action they may see fit to counter Russian policies which, they said, are making their position in Berlin more difficult.

Planned Action Not Revealed

What action they have in mind the source did not say. He did recall, however, that the Western warning was "in line" with a communique issued by United States Secretary of State George C. Marshall, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman October 27. This announced the three governments would review future action in the Berlin dispute in the light of developments.

The October communique was sent out just after Russia had vetoed a resolution by neutral powers on the Security Council aimed at reaching a compromise on Berlin. The resolution asked both sides not to take any action in Berlin which might aggravate the situation. The Western Powers accepted it.

But, the source said, they now feel the time has come to make it clear Russia is not going to be allowed to do whatever she likes under the umbrella of settlement efforts which have been going on here for nearly two months.

Reds Set Up Rump Regime

BERLIN, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Communists split Berlin wide open tonight by naming their own rump government.

The putsch was steamrollered through a hand-picked convention in a musical comedy theater in the Soviet sector. The chairman read the ticket in rapid fire style, all fists shot into the air at his call for a show of hands, and the meeting and election were over in an hour and a half.

Then about 100,000 sympathizers held a somewhat placid rally in the chill damp air of Unter Den Linden at which speakers called for support of the new regime and denounced the regularly-elected government now sitting in West Berlin. Everything went smoothly and there was no violence.

Highway Death Figure May Surpass '47 Toll

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (AP)—In a grim race of death, 1948 highway accidents are banging toward the Christmas-New Year's finish line—hood to hood with the 1947 toll.

A photo finish is in prospect, the National Safety Council predicted today.

At the end of October the tally showed: 1947 traffic deaths to that date—26,000. 1948 deaths—25,720 or one per cent fewer.

An eight per cent jump in October deaths, over the same month in 1947, virtually wiped out safety gains scored the first three quarters of this year. The October toll was 3,290, compared with 3,050 in October, 1947.

Dream Loot Faded Away So Carpenter Robs Bank

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 30 (AP)—A month ago, Frank Bowers had a dream. He robbed a bank and when he counted the cash there was $70,000 in the pile.

But he woke up and the money was gone.

So Bowers set about to make the dream come true—with hard, cold, glittering cash in the pile instead of the nebulous stuff of which dreams are made.

He opened an account at the Barnett National Bank and got a key to the night depository. A carpenter by trade, he fashioned a gadget from a hat-stretcher and a couple of boards. It looked like the perfect thing-a-ma-bob to make this dream come true.

On Saturday night, Bowers unlocked the little door to the night depository, stuffed the gadget into the chute, closed the door and walked away and waited.

A man came along, dumped some money bags into the chute and left. Bowers went up and fished them out. Pretty soon two more men came along and shoved in money bags. Bowers lifted them out too.

He went away and counted the loot. It was $552.96 in cash and about $900 in checks. He tossed the checks into the St. Johns River.

Then he returned to his newfound mint, but this time there was a crowd around the place. Someone had discovered the gadget in the chute.

So Bowers left in a hurry, but not before a bystander noticed his excitement. His description was broadcast and the police picked him up. They found some of the cash in his pocket and some in a tool box.

Bowers, a slightly-built man of 52, admitted it all in Federal Court today. He pleaded guilty to violating the Federal Bank Robbery Act and had only one explanation—the dream and that shining $70,000 in cash. Federal Judge Dozier Devane will sentence him Friday.

"Divorce Mill" Believed Smashed; Six Arrested

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(INS)—A wide-spread New York "divorce mill" was believed smashed tonight with the arrest of five men and a woman whose alleged perjured testimony may invalidate a number of uncontested decrees.

District Attorney Frank Hogan announced that he will examine all uncontested divorces in New York County during the past two years to determine if the freedom-seeking couples were illegally separated.

The district attorney said he will apply to the Supreme Court tomorrow to examine the records of some 9,000 matrimonial cases. He was granted permission today by Supreme Court Justice Joseph A. Gavegan to look at the sealed testimony in five divorces.

Hogan announced that the "hired girlie," two attorneys, a law clerk, a private detective and another man were arrested and charged with perjury and other charges.

He said he had evidence which may implicate at least 10 more attorneys.

The woman, Sara Ellis, 20-year-old mother of three children, told of being found in supposedly compromising situations with married men so the wives could obtain uncontested divorces.

Under New York law, adultry is the only ground for divorce and "evidence" is necessary to substantiate it.

The two lawyers arrested are Barnett Muffs, 48, and Luther Georges, 61. The law clerk is Harry Ulanoff, 50.

Samuel Schneiderman, 57, was held in $500 bail. Max Zuckerman, 53, who told Hogan he had committed "flagrant perjury" in hundreds of divorce cases, was held in $5,000 bail, and Mrs. Ellis was released on $500 bail.

Boy, 4, Drowns In 1,000-Foot Well

FIREBAUGH, Calif., Nov. 30 (AP)—The body of four-year-old Charles Caesar was recovered today from the 1,000-foot irrigation well where the child drowned yesterday despite a heroic rescue attempt.

Grappling hooks recovered the body at a depth of 300 feet, 225 feet below the water line.

The well pump was removed a week ago and the opening was covered with a box, which apparently was dislodged by youngsters at play.

When the lad tumbled in, his mother cried for help. Nate Escoto, 24, boss of a cotton pickers' camp, was lowered into the narrow shaft by fellow workers with ropes. The 115-pound Escoto reached the child but could not get to him with his hands. He hooked his toes under the boy's arms.

The men above pulled Escoto and the child to within 10 or 15 feet of the top of the well. Charles inexplicably began to struggle violently then, and fell loose from the clutch of Escoto's feet.

Although Escoto descended again to the water, through the pipe which narrowed to 10 inches in diameter at the water line, he could not find the boy. His slim shoulders were badly bruised when he was finally pulled back, exhausted, through the pipe.

Say They

Thus while Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky was giving the impression in Paris that he was agreeing to discuss the problems of Berlin, other Russians here were giving their blessing to a split of the city government which makes it virtually impossible to carry out any four-power agreement.

Ebert Heads Regime

The new administration, calling itself a government of all Berlin, was chosen at a meeting of the Soviet-sponsored Social Unity (SED) Party and small fractions of the splinter Christian Democrats, Social Democrats and Liberal Democrats. The same meeting voted for putting the anti-Communist government out of office.

Heading the regime is Friedrich Ebert, 54, son of Germany's first president in the Weimar Republic after World War I, and three assistant mayors. Ebert formerly belonged to the Social Democratic Party which was merged with the Communists in the Social Unity Party.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, at once declared the hand-picked regime a "rump government and said he regretted he could not call Ebert a "worthy son" of the former president.

The Communist convention evidently was called to forestall the regular city elections set for Sunday. The Communists, who won less than 20 per cent of the vote in the last elections in 1946, are not risking anything in the Sunday balloting. They are boycotting the elections and are urging their followers to stay at home, and only Germans in the three western sectors will be able to vote.

State Labor Law Revision Is Urged

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—The administration today called for sharp revision of state labor laws to accompany repeal of the federal Taft-Hartley Act.

The appeal was made by Secretary of Labor Tobin at the 13th annual Conference of State Labor Commissioners.

President Truman, in a message to the delegates from almost every state an territory, expressed his "best wishes for the development and enactment of sound labor laws in all our states."

Secretary Tobin went further, recommending repeal of "little Taft-Hartley laws" recently enacted in many states and replacing them with legislation "fair to labor and management alike."

Tobin said many state laws are "worse than Taft-Hartley," the federal labor law which the administration is pledged to repeal.

The delegates, representing state labor departments and state AFL, CIO and independent union organizations, responded immediately. One after another they rose to recite plans to seek repeal of state laws which they consider restrictive of labor unions.

Reds Raid Kouanchen

This fact, plus the news of a Red raid on Kouanchen, on the north bank of the Yangtze, 65 miles east of Nanking, added to the disquiet in Nanking.

There was increasing evidence hourly that the government was making behind-the-scenes preparations for flight southward should the Communists threaten to cross the formidable Yangtze River barrier.

Officials denied stoutly there was any plan for removal of Chiang Kai-Shek's government. But individual ministers shipped out dependents in increasing numbers.

There also were obvious preparations for the removal of employes and the officials themselves.

One usually-reliable informant said dependents of President Chiang's office, the Legislative Yuan (legislature) and Executive Yuan (cabinet) were told to go to Canton if flight became necessary.

Car Waiting

Today's session wound up the current hearings involving a number of dealers. Previous witnesses told of high pressure sales tactics on accessories, and of tips ranging as high as $500 for speedy delivery of new cars.

Truman Approves

Hoover also advocated higher federal salaries, especially for top officials, but he did not say whether Mr. Truman had commented on that.

The commission he heads is scheduled to report to Congress in January.

Hoover said Mr. Truman agreed with him that 60 agencies which now report to the President should be regrouped.

The former President estimated that under the most favorable circumstances, the changes to be recommended by the commission could save the government about $3,000,000,000 a year. The saving, he explained, would come from increased efficiency rather than from any sharp change in policy.

(1) Persons, groups or organizations lobbying for or against legislation for pay must register with Congress, and (2) that they must file quarterly reports of all money received and how and why spent.

The law is undergoing tests of its constitutionality in court. A civil suit filed by the National Association of Manufacturers last January questioning provisions of the law is pending in Federal District Court here.

Several indictments have been returned under the act.

President Truman, in a message to the delegates from almost every state an territory, expressed his "best wishes for the development and enactment of sound labor laws in all our states."

Secretary Tobin went further, recommending repeal of "little Taft-Hartley laws" recently enacted in many states and replacing them with legislation "fair to labor and management alike."

Tobin said many state laws are "worse than Taft-Hartley," the federal labor law which the administration is pledged to repeal.

The delegates, representing state labor departments and state AFL, CIO and independent union organizations, responded immediately. One after another they rose to recite plans to seek repeal of state laws which they consider restrictive of labor unions.

Reds Raid Kouanchen

This fact, plus the news of a Red raid on Kouanchen, on the north bank of the Yangtze, 65 miles east of Nanking, added to the disquiet in Nanking.

There was increasing evidence hourly that the government was making behind-the-scenes preparations for flight southward should the Communists threaten to cross the formidable Yangtze River barrier.

Officials denied stoutly there was any plan for removal of Chiang Kai-Shek's government. But individual ministers shipped out dependents in increasing numbers.

There also were obvious preparations for the removal of employes and the officials themselves.

One usually-reliable informant said dependents of President Chiang's office, the Legislative Yuan (legislature) and Executive Yuan (cabinet) were told to go to Canton if flight became necessary.

Car Waiting

Today's session wound up the current hearings involving a number of dealers. Previous witnesses told of high pressure sales tactics on accessories, and of tips ranging as high as $500 for speedy delivery of new cars.

Truman Approves

Hoover also advocated higher federal salaries, especially for top officials, but he did not say whether Mr. Truman had commented on that.

The commission he heads is scheduled to report to Congress in January.

Hoover said Mr. Truman agreed with him that 60 agencies which now report to the President should be regrouped.

The former President estimated that under the most favorable circumstances, the changes to be recommended by the commission could save the government about $3,000,000,000 a year. The saving, he explained, would come from increased efficiency rather than from any sharp change in policy.

ulate lobbying — a long-standing practice whereby various interests plead their causes. It required under a 1946 law that:

(1) Persons, groups or organizations lobbying for or against legislation for pay must register with Congress, and (2) that they must file quarterly reports of all money received and how and why spent.

The law is undergoing tests of its constitutionality in court. A civil suit filed by the National Association of Manufacturers last January questioning provisions of the law is pending in Federal District Court here.

Several indictments have been returned under the act.

MIRROR Of Your MIND

By LAWRENCE GOULD
Consulting Psychologist

Are wives more jealous than husbands?

Answer: I'm inclined to think so, though of course I cannot prove it. For jealousy is not in most cases an expression of love; it is based on insecurity, and as things are today, a wife usually is less secure than her husband. If a marriage breaks up, for example, it is likely to be easier for the man than for the woman to find a new partner and "start over." For this reason rather than because a woman "loves more deeply than a man does," it's the wife who's apt to be more suspicious of the husband.

Is music a medicine for the mind?

Answer: Yes, writes Doris Solbelman in "Therapeutic and Industrial Uses of Music." While the subject has not yet been adequately studied, it seems to have been proved that music has an effect on the body's physiology and for this as well as other reasons, it influences the mind also. Music is a valuable aid in curing mental illness by distracting the attention of the patient from himself and his problems and making him feel part of a group.

Is common sense really common?

Answer: No, but it is not so rare as certain would be highbrows like to believe. The average human being is endowed by Nature with the power to "think straight" and distinguish truth from falsehood, and will fail to exercise this power only when or if he is frightened. You can "fool all the people some of the time," as Lincoln admitted, if you manage to get them into a panic, but as soon as they recover their sense of security, they will recognize and repudiate the "phonies" who have misled them.

Put that question to Charlie Matthews, here, and he'll answer about like this:

"Well, you could say a man works for a living, but there's more to it than just that. A man has his self-respect to keep. He wants to work at a job he likes. He wants to do something useful. He wants fair pay and steady hours—with some time to himself and his family. He wants a chance to get ahead and he wants to save some money. And he wants some security in case of accident or sickness. Then, when his working years are done, he wants to know he can retire on an annuity."

What Moscow Is Reported To Be Seeking In France

Leon Blum, elder statesman of French Socialism, emerges from semi-obscurity with the novel opinion that Russia is secretly working to bring Gen. Charles de Gaulle to power in France. The Gaullists naturally scoff at the claim. Similarly, and for equally good reason, Republicans in the United States scoffed at the assertion, often made during the recent campaign, that the Communists were backing Dewey on the theory that a Republican administration would produce a domestic crisis that would make certain a Wallace victory in 1952.

Non-Communist leftists have a failing for those ingenious theories about Russia that fly in the face of obvious facts. The evidence is plain that the French Communists, acting under orders and with the financial backing of the Kremlin, have bitterly and constantly fought the Gaullists, to the extent of physically attacking their leaders and the rank and file on many occasions. In the United States, too, the Commies worked hard and constantly for the election of Henry Wallace.

The obvious truth of the matter is that the French Communists are trying to break down the present moderate government in order to bring themselves to power. The result of their efforts thus far has been to weaken the government but not to improve their own chances. In fact, they have actually strengthened de Gaulle and his emotionally partiotic following.

Whether de Gaulle's coming to power would be good for France or her democratic allies is another question. Once more the general is proving himself a difficult man for the western powers to get along with. Nevertheless, the Communist tactics are driving Frenchmen toward Gaullism. If they unwittingly succeed it will not be the first time that the Communists achieved the reverse of what they wanted. Look at the sorry performance of Henry Wallace on November 2.

The Army has given up experiments in rain making. Apparently there are still some things the government cannot give the people.

Political Spirit Of The "Kingfish" Lives

The self-styled "Kingfish," Huey Long, is dead but his spirit lives on in the sordid politics of the Democratic machine of Louisiana. The other day Senator Allen J. Ellender, who serves the Long machine now carried on by the "Kingfish's" relatives, proposed in effect to disfranchise the voters of five states who together chose 40 electors on the Thurmond-Wright presidential ticket.

This not surprising in Ellender. What is shocking is his report of a talk with President Truman just after he left the White House. According to Ellender, when he told the President that these 40 electors should put their ballots in the Truman-Barkley column, Mr. Truman remarked, "That's where they belong." Questioned by startled reporters, Senator Ellender insists that that is exactly what the President said.

Since the President has not denied the report, the country is left to conclude that he endorses the dishonoring of a solemn pledge by electors. It is easy to understand Mr. Truman's resentment against Alabama, whose state authorities barred his name from the ballot. But there was a Truman slate in South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana, as well as in Tennessee, where two Democratic candidates announced in advance that they would vote in the Electoral College for Thurmond and Wright. Every one of the 40 electors gave the same pledge.

For more than a century now electors have respected the choice of the people. While ballots cast for Thurmond and Wright can have no practical importance, the dishonoring of electoral pledges would set a dangerous precedent. On moral grounds, there is nothing to be said for the Ellender scheme, in which he includes the President. To ignore the expressed wishes of the voters would be a cynical gesture of machine politics.

Of course, this is no time to offend our English cousins. But is it possible King George has the gout?

A Woman's Leap Brought To Light Communists' Case

Just before she left the Roosevelt hospital in New York City, a Russian woman schoolteacher said two memorable things. The first stated her wish, "I want to be in America and no place else." The second was a question, "What is the meaning of the word 'happy'?" This was Mrs. Oksana S. Kasenkina, who on August 12 leaped—to death as she thought—from a third-story window of the former Soviet consulate, where she was detained. She fractured her right leg and suffered other injuries, but she leaped into the arms of Uncle Sam. He threw a cordon of police about her, gave Russian Consul General Lomakin his walking papers, saw to her recovery, offered sanctuary.

A moving story, and more than that. While Mrs. Kasenkina has found freedom and happiness in a land of good will, her act has struck such a blow as the Soviets never received here before. Through the story of her life which was unfolded to the public, Americans have seen the case against Communism dramatized—brought home to them—in one woman's leap.

Portal-To-Portal

Portal-to-portal pay policy has passed through the portals of the U. S. Supreme Court and out again, with nothing to repay it for its trouble. It is right back where it started from.

It was the Supreme Court's decision in June, 1946, that stirred things up. The court ruled that the Wage-Hour Law required employers to pay for any "substantial" amount of time they required employees to be on the premises—traveling underground in mines, changing clothes, washing up, etc. Union immediately filed suit under this decision for back pay (portal-to-portal) totaling billions.

Congress, which had not foreseen this interpretation of the law, reacted quickly. It passed a bill outlawing portal-to-portal suits and in effect left questions of portal-to-portal pay to collective bargaining.

Now the Supreme Court has upheld the right of Congress to ban such suits. That ends the matter, and restores the status quo.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

Various Causes

Deafness is all too prevalent. It has been estimated that approximately one-tenth of our population have difficulty along this line and one out of every 15 school children is afflicted temporarily or permanently while in the classroom. It is also common knowledge that in many instances the catastrophe could have been prevented had proper measures been taken during its inception.

Van Dellen

The situation is complex because there are many origins of deafness. Some are easily remedied; others lead to progressive hearing loss regardless of the best medical care. One of the most frequent causes is plugging of the outer ear canal due to wax. Many "penny wise and pound foolish" individuals have gone about for years resigned to their fate because they did not wish to spend money on an examination. Some have even by-passed the physician and purchased hearing aids without knowing the cause of their deafness. Little do they realize that the wax could have been removed in five minutes, with restoration of hearing.

Acute or chronic ear, nose, or throat infections are other sources of deafness. In this disturbance, the opening of the tube leading from the mouth to the ear may be obstructed by swollen or inflamed adenoid tissue in the back of the throat. If the infection is part of a cold, deafness is usually temporary and hearing returns when inflammation subsides. But if the tissues do not shrink to their normal size, the symptom persists unless treated. Radium is useful in the circumstances and, after a few treatments, the faculty is restored.

Infection of the inner ear (otitis media) is the most common culprit in children. Hearing loss generally occurs as a complication and is prone to follow in cases where a nest of bacteria is not easy to eradicate. In many such youngsters, the mastoid may be involved also. This aftermath was widespread in the past but penicillin and the sulfonamides have changed the picture. It is highly possible that in the future it will be difficult to find an individual whose deafness is traceable to this source. The same can be said of impaired hearing after a siege of measles, scarlet fever, or typhoid because these infectious diseases are not as prevalent nor severe as they were in the past.

Deafness also may follow a direct blow to the ear, working in a noisy atmosphere, or sudden changes in pressure such as occurs in deep-sea diving or flying at high altitudes. The concussion from a nearby explosion can damage the membranes; and lead or phosphorus poisoning sometimes affects the acoustic nerve. Any one working under these conditions should report any dimunition of hearing before it is too late.

The child who is born deaf presents a more difficult problem because the damage has already been done before the youngster comes into the world and a remedy is lacking. The same can be said of otosclerosis except that the new fenestration operation gives improvement in 70 per cent of the cases.

CHILD WITH T. B.

Mrs. W. writes: Would it be safe for my two small children to visit a 7 year old child with childhood tuberculosis in the early stages?

Reply

This question should be left to your physician, who knows whether the little patient is still contagious. No child should be knowingly exposed to the disease.

FADING

Mrs. S. writes: I was out in the sun a lot this summer and acquired a good tan. Now my face is white again but my body is brown. Is this because I wash my face more?

Reply

I cannot explain why fading is taking place faster on your face but I doubt that it is because of washing it. Perhaps your body had more pigment to begin with than your face.

•—•—•

FETAL PULSE

G. T. writes: Can a doctor determine the sex of an unborn child by listening to the heart beat? I have heard that boy babies have a slower pulse than girls.

Reply

No, even though the beat is slightly faster in girls than boys. The rate varies between 120-160 and increases or decreases from time to time for no apparent reason. When it is fast, the obstetrician may think "it's a girl" but at the next visit, if it is slower, he may change his mind. In the circumstances it is obviously difficult to make an accurate prediction.

Gen. Clay's Ruhr Announcement Riles Surprised Secretary Marshall; Truman Shoots Close To Par On Personal Poll; Congress To Probe Life Insurance Racket

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—Now that Secretary of State Marshall is back from Paris, it is possible to get a clearer idea of who was responsible for the U. S.-British decision to turn Ruhr industry back to the German cartels. This has lost us more friends in western Europe than any other single move since V-E Day.

The week before Thanksgiving, Gen. Lucius Clay came to Paris to confer with Marshall before the latter took off for Washington. Clay was accompanied by his political adviser, French-hating Ambassador Robert Murphy.

Marshall and Clay are old friends, but the secretary had occasion to differ sharply with Clay on this occasion and, according to insiders, to reprimand both him and Murphy.

The issue was whether any hope could come from trying to mediate the Berlin dispute. At that moment, the United Nations mediations efforts were under way. Both Clay and Murphy opposed this, said they thought the Berlin deadlock had become too difficult to be patched up. Marshall curtly told them the decisions were being made in Paris, for the moment, not Berlin.

Three days later, the Herald Tribune, European edition, published a front-page story quoting an unnamed American official in Berlin as saying precisely the things Clay and Murphy had said in Paris. Marshall had gone to Washington by this time, but an immediate investigation was ordered regarding the leak.

One top-ranking American delegationer said, "if we can find out who promoted that story, he'll have to retract or get out!"

But the source is now enjoying protection in the tight little Berlin colony and won't be detected.

The other issue where Clay surprised and displeased Marshall was in the announcement of Anglo-American plans to hand the Ruhr industries back to the German cartels. According to sources close to Marshall, this came as a complete surprise to him. Later, as Secretary of State, he was obliged to explain the action of the agonized French. It did not make him happy.

Note: Behind Clay's high-policy decisions are the U. S. Bankers who once loaned billions to the Ruhr and who now run the U. S. defense department plus Ambassador Bob Murphy, whose bitterness against France is notorious.

Truman's Election Guess

Montana's newly re-elected Senator Jim Murray called at the White House recently to suggest that extension of the Senate small business committee should be high on the list of presidential recommendations to the next Congress.

"The dangers of monopoly were never greater," explained the Montanan, who, though one of the wealthiest men in Congress, has been a hard-hitting champion of the little fellow. "We've got to stay on the ball if we want to preserve free enterprise."

'I'm behind you 100 per cent, Jim," declared Truman. "That committee must be extended and I further agree with you that one of the most important measures we must enact is a strong anti-monopoly law."

The President laughed heartily when Charles Murray, the senator's son, showed him a clipping from the Lewistown, Mont., News, predicting a month before the election that Truman would receive 308 electoral votes. The final count was 304. The President said he had to confess, however, that the newspaper's optimism exceeded his own.

"My own prediction on my electoral count, which I had placed in a sealed envelope, was less than 304," the President told his callers. He politely but stubbornly refused to reveal the exact number he predicted, and this figure has remained an official White House secret.

However, it can be revealed that the Truman forecast was 276 electoral votes — 10 more than he needed and 28 less than he finally got.

The President based his prediction on the belief that every state with a Democratic governor would go Democratic except Virginia, which Truman thought would give a majority to Dewey. He was wrong on Virginia, which fooled him by staying in the Democratic column, and on Maryland, which surprised him by going Republican.

The President also figured he would lose both New York and California, but California surprised him, pleasantly, by going Democratic.

Insurance Companies' Fine Print

Three years ago, Marine Pilot Robert Frazer zoomed into a cloud bank off the California coast. That was the last ever seen of him. Search planes prowled over the area for three days, but never spotted so much as a floating fragment to give a clue to his fate.

The missing Marine left behind a young widow and four fatherless tots. In the Marine Corps' care, he also left a sealed envelope, containing an Acacia Mutual Life Insurance Company policy. He had taken out the policy during the war, believing it would protect his family in case he didn't come back. Yet Mrs. Fraser hasn't been able to collect a cent.

Her tragic story will be made one of next year's headlines, when Wisconsin's G. O. P. Senator Joe McCarthy, himself an ex-marine, plans to focus the national spotlight on a vicious insurance racket. McCarthy will expose how widows and orphans, applying for insurance payments, often get nothing but empty legal phrases—dug out of the fine print.

McCarthy already has written to the Marine commandant, Gen. Clifton Cates, urging him to bar Acacia salesmen from Marine bases. Backing this up, the Senator is also working on a bill which will require the military to screen all life insurance policies sold to military personnel.

For, buried in Fraser's life insurance policy was a clause which he apparently didn't know about. This freed the company from making payment in case his death were caused by "injury resulting from riding in, or operating, or falling, or descending from or with, any type of aircraft."

As evidence that Fraser didn't understand this clause, he had left a note sealed with his other papers, indicating his belief that the policy would take care of his family if he were killed in action. Yet Mrs. Fraser, with four young children on her hands, has been forced to earn her own way.

The interesting fact is that the company tripped over its own legal wording, and still might be vulnerable to a lawsuit. Since no evidence was found of Major Fraser's death, it cannot be proved that he died of injuries connected with the airplane. He may have bailed out safely, then drowned in the ocean or died of hunger and privation on a liferaft. The burden of proof is on the company and the legal presumption is in favor of life.

However, the Acacia Company, which maintains a swank, marble-front building almost opposite the Capitol in Washington, still refuses to pay.

Our Federal Government Wants What The Australians Rejected

By SAMUEL B. PETTENGILL

Britain's Minister of Health, Mr. Bevan, is amazed at the "bad sight" which his countrymen are developing. "The rush for spectacles is so great that it has overtaken production capacity."

"Free" false teeth are also in great demand. It is reported that dentists pull each other's teeth, which they formerly did as a pleasant, neighborly, mutual service, and then send bills to the government for payment.

Such is the result of the politicians taking over medical care. Even Mr. Bevan protests at the stampede for "free" service. "Because things are free," he says, "is no reason why people should abuse their opportunities. This is a great test of the maturity of the British people, insofar as they have all the resources of the medical profession at their disposal without charge."

Whats "Free" About It?

One may sympathize with the plight of the Minister of Health, but to describe the system as "free" or "without charge" is the mark of a dishonest mind. Of course, it is all paid for. Doctors, dentists and nurses don't do their work for nothing, even in un-merrie England.

"Something for nothing" is vote grease de luxe. But when millions get something for nothing, other millions get nothing for something. The same sort of relief rackets are growing in this country and the cost goes up also. The American Municipal Association reports that the relief load has gone up 136% during the past three years. And this during the biggest boom and largest employment in history!

As the Gadarene swine rushed down a steep place to the sea to be drowned, voters and taxpayers also blindly join the stampede for "free." The voters in Oregon woke up the day after the election with a headache. They found that they had approved an old-age pension plan of $50 a month regardless of need. Treat 'em alike—pauper and millionaire. It's a free country, isn't it?

The Oregon joker was the disclosure that the cost of free pensions for all was three times as much as the present cost of the State government in all its branches! Bond companies about to buy an Oregon State bond issue immediately withdrew their bids.

Just another case of the "maturity" of the people which Mr. Bevan is wondering about! Today in England, whether they work or not, or pay for private medical insurance or not, or are British subjects or not, everybody can ask for a glass eye, wig, truss, operation or ambulance, and "no charge." Just pay your taxes, that's all.

Get Losses Out Of U. S. Wallet

The British airlines, government-owned and politically-operated, lost $45,000,000 this past year. That is 5% more loss than the previous year, and it is expected that the losses will continue, if not increase still more next year. The European Recovery Plan, however, enables the British Socialists to "recover" their losses out of American pocketbooks—including Oregon's!

There is one ebb in the tide of this on-coming Socialist sea. The Australians went "left" long before England did. They have had a longer look at it than the Britishers. In an election last spring, the disillusioned "down-unders" overwhelmingly defeated a proposal to give their Federal government permanent control over prices, rents, etc. Our own Federal government wants what the Australians reject! What was it that Poor Richard said about "Experience is a dear school"?

"Left-Wing" Attacks On Wall Streeters In Government Aired

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—President Truman has said from time to time that his most difficult problem is to get persons from the business world to come to Washington in peacetime and take important positions of responsibility.

The task is going to be complicated from now on by the sabotaging tactics of the "left wing," from which has been emanating lately a continuous sniping at government officials formerly in the business world.

The cry of "Wall Street" influence is one that stirs up interest in a political campaign but when the elections are over the hard jobs of government must be undertaken by persons who are competent. It so happens that the business and financial world puts to the acid test persons of the very same talents as are required in policymaking branches of the government.

Lately the attacks — sometimes veiled and sometimes open—have been directed against Robert Lovett, undersecretary of state, and William H. Draper, undersecretary of the army, Secretary of Defense Forrestal and Averell Harriman, all of whom have come to government from Wall Street.

In none of these positions is economic policy made nor is there any connection with the matters that affect the ups and downs of Wall Street operations. But once a man has spent a few years in Wall Street in law or finance or business, the "left wing" idea is that he is thereby disqualified from holding office in Washington and that somehow it must be inferred that he is lacking in integrity or in the capacity to administer public affairs fairly.

Implication Is Absurd

The implication is, of course, absurd. Franklin D. Roosevelt started his law career in a Wall Street office. Chief Justice Stone, one of the liberals of the Supreme Court, was a partner in a prominent Wall Street law office. There are many other examples.

The interesting thing which the public generally does not know is that some of the best public servants have come to Washington from Wall Street. Even those who are of independent financial means sometimes make better officials than those political officials who are looking toward Wall Street for their future in business or law or finance. Many former officials of the New Deal are now active either in law practice or in business in Wall Street or its counterpart in Chicago or Boston or in the financial districts of other big cities of the country.

It was Theodore Roosevelt who, after he left the presidency, wrote that only a man of independent means could really make an independent public official. He argued that a man with a $100,000 estate—one could easily live in those days on the income from such a sum—would not be dependent on his government salary and only a man who was ready to resign at any time would make the kind of decisions and exercise the kind of judgment which would make him an invaluable servant of the people.

Such Men Need Encouragement

Some of the men who are invited to Washington from business or finance come here at a real sacrifice. They give up opportunities for financial gain when they enter the government service. Some of them came here during the war and have stayed on because they have become interested in public service. Instead of discouraging and driving such men away they ought to be encouraged. For, if the "left wing" attack succeeds, it will be hard to interest first-class men from the business or financial world in coming to Washington. They will not be willing to take posts that lead to smears and malignment.

During the last campaign President Truman delivered several speeches that were wholly unnecessary to the making of his case for continuance in office and one of these was the charge against Wall Street influence in government in the event of a change in administration. Naturally it boomeranged and caused some comments that he had in his own entourage some Wall Street men. It was inferred that he was inconsistent. That same line of attack has now risen to plague the President, who really wants to get the best men possible to serve the government no matter what their background. For it is axiomatic that background in business or law or finance does not of itself determine the integrity or honesty or the competence of an individual and that no group or class of citizens in the country has any monopoly on the qualities of honesty and fairness so necessary to the making of a good public servant.

The Yardstick Of Policy

AMERICAN imperialism has been achieved as a by-product of war and without the consent of the American people. It is because the American people have neither a tradition of imperialism nor a national desire to meddle in the afairs of other countries that the policy of this country is uncertain, unfocused, experimental and at times meaningless.

For instance, no country which anticipated an expenditure of $5,000,000,000 a year for the purpose of maintaining a bloc of friendly states in Europe would have issued JCS 1067, which paralyzed the industry of Europe and which hampers, if it does not prevent, the arming of Europe.

In a word, because of JCS 1067, we are forced to employ the Marshall Plan to help reconstruct what we agreed should be dismantled and we shall have to contribute an even larger sum to arm the countries which cannot arm themselves because we knocked down and permitted the Russians to dislocate the principal arsenals of Europe.

It does not seem possible that such a paradox could have been policy. In spite of the discovery of our errors, we continue to make them. For instance, our policy concerning the Ruhr should be to require both France and Western Germany to find a program for joint economic development of the Ruhr.

It does not make sense for us to contribute tremendous sums to both countries if they will quarrel over an iron and steel industry which is essential to both. If they cannot agree on essentials, why should we underwrite their quarrels?

Yet, both can point to the ridiculous order JCS 1067 which directed General Eisenhower to "Take no steps (a) looking toward the economic rehabilitation of Germany, or (b) designed to maintain or strengthen the German economy."

The cost of this order to the American taxpayer is calculable only in billions of dollars and that cost can only be lessened by restoring productive efficiency to the Ruhr.

Similarly, as regards China, the United States at Yalta recognized Soviet Russia as the successor to Japan's rights and claims in Manchuria. In 1915 when Japan issued the Twenty-One Demands, the United States was the first to reject them. Again, when the Japanese repeated that at the Paris Peace Conference, we rejected them except for the Shantung clauses. Again when Japan occupied Manchuria on September 19, 1931, we issued the Stimson Doctrine of non-recognition and we were prepared to intervene in partnership with Great Britain—a partnership which Sir John Simon refused on behalf of his country. The Far Eastern War did not begin at Pearl Harbor but has been in the making more or less since 1911 when the Japanese took umorage at Aemarican racial discrimination.

Yet at Yalta we agreed to give to Soviet Russia—which was then neutral so far as the Far East was concerned—the Japanese rights and claims in Manchuria. At that moment the United States pursued a policy which sooner or later would reduce China to the position of Poland or Rumania. As long as Russia holds Manchuria, no independent government can maintain itself in China, just as when Russia holds Shanghai, the Philippines become imperiled.

Perhaps none of this means anything to a people who despise the involvements of imperialism. Some might even say: Let Russia take the whole of Asia, as long as we have a bloc of nations in Western Europe. Of course, they wanted Tojo executed for thinking that Japan might build a co-prosperity sphere in Eastern Asia and they wanted this country to go to war with Hitler for attemping to establish an empire in Europe.

So far as the United States is concerned, this lack of a yardstick of policy, this opportunism, this hit-or-miss diplomacy, this failure to measure American policy by American interests may finally isolate us more than anything any American Firster proposed.

We can find ourselves an Island surrounded by states in the Soviet federation with whom we shall have no contact, no trade, no interchange of any kind. We may be separated not by an Iron Curtain but enclosed in an iron box.

The crux of this is the China problem. As we handle that, so will our future be.

It Says Here

By BOB HOPE

Santa, take off those dark glasses.

Yes sir, last Wednesday, California welcomed the Yule season in true Hollywood style by holding its big Santa Claus parade on Hollywood Boulevard.

There were trees all over the Boulevard and millions of people were pushing each other to get a glimpse of all that green. For a while I didn't knw whether it was Santa Claus or Santa Anita.

And all the beautiful stars were in the parade. In fact, Santa liked the actresses so much, you may be reading about a new movie company . . . "North Pole Productions."

Santa and Hedy Lamarr rode together all the way down the Boulevard in the big sleigh. This will go down as the first year the boss couldn't get rid of his helpers.

I took Doris Day, pretty thrush, to the parade and Santa saw her sitting next to me on the float. He shook his head and said, "Why doesn't anyone ever ask me what I want for Christmas?"

What Moscow Is Reported To Be Seeking In France

Leon Blum, elder statesman of French Socialism, emerges from semi-obscurity with the novel opinion that Russia is secretly working to bring Gen. Charles de Gaulle to power in France. The Gaullists naturally scoff at the claim. Similarly, and for equally good reason, Republicans in the United States scoffed at the assertion, often made during the recent campaign, that the Communists were backing Dewey on the theory that a Republican administration would produce a domestic crisis that would make certain a Wallace victory in 1952.

Non-Communist leftists have a failing for those ingenious theories about Russia that fly in the face of obvious facts. The evidence is plain that the French Communists, acting under orders and with the financial backing of the Kremlin, have bitterly and constantly fought the Gaullists, to the extent of physically attacking their leaders and the rank and file on many occasions. In the United States, too, the Commies worked hard and constantly for the election of Henry Wallace.

The obvious truth of the matter is that the French Communists are trying to break down the present moderate government in order to bring themselves to power. The result of their efforts thus far has been to weaken the government but not to improve their own chances. In fact, they have actually strengthened de Gaulle and his emotionally partiotic following.

Whether de Gaulle's coming to power would be good for France or her democratic allies is another question. Once more the general is proving himself a difficult man for the western powers to get along with. Nevertheless, the Communist tactics are driving Frenchmen toward Gaullism. If they unwittingly succeed it will not be the first time that the Communists achieved the reverse of what they wanted. Look at the sorry performance of Henry Wallace on November 2.

The Army has given up experiments in rain making. Apparently there are still some things the government cannot give the people.

Political Spirit Of The "Kingfish" Lives

The self-styled "Kingfish," Huey Long, is dead but his spirit lives on in the sordid politics of the Democratic machine of Louisiana. The other day Senator Allen J. Ellender, who serves the Long machine now carried on by the "Kingfish's" relatives, proposed in effect to disfranchise the voters of five states who together chose 40 electors on the Thurmond-Wright presidential ticket.

This not surprising in Ellender. What is shocking is his report of a talk with President Truman just after he left the White House. According to Ellender, when he told the President that these 40 electors should put their ballots in the Truman-Barkley column, Mr. Truman remarked, "That's where they belong." Questioned by startled reporters, Senator Ellender insists that that is exactly what the President said.

Since the President has not denied the report, the country is left to conclude that he endorses the dishonoring of a solemn pledge by electors. It is easy to understand Mr. Truman's resentment against Alabama, whose state authorities barred his name from the ballot. But there was a Truman slate in South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana, as well as in Tennessee, where two Democratic candidates announced in advance that they would vote in the Electoral College for Thurmond and Wright. Every one of the 40 electors gave the same pledge.

For more than a century now electors have respected the choice of the people. While ballots cast for Thurmond and Wright can have no practical importance, the dishonoring of electoral pledges would set a dangerous precedent. On moral grounds, there is nothing to be said for the Ellender scheme, in which he includes the President. To ignore the expressed wishes of the voters would be a cynical gesture of machine politics.

Of course, this is no time to offend our English cousins. But is it possible King George has the gout?

A Woman's Leap Brought To Light Communists' Case

Just before she left the Roosevelt hospital in New York City, a Russian woman schoolteacher said two memorable things. The first stated her wish, "I want to be in America and no place else." The second was a question, "What is the meaning of the word 'happy'?" This was Mrs. Oksana S. Kasenkina, who on August 12 leaped—to death as she thought—from a third-story window of the former Soviet consulate, where she was detained. She fractured her right leg and suffered other injuries, but she leaped into the arms of Uncle Sam. He threw a cordon of police about her, gave Russian Consul General Lomakin his walking papers, saw to her recovery, offered sanctuary.

A moving story, and more than that. While Mrs. Kasenkina has found freedom and happiness in a land of good will, her act has struck such a blow as the Soviets never received here before. Through the story of her life which was unfolded to the public, Americans have seen the case against Communism dramatized—brought home to them—in one woman's leap.

Portal-To-Portal

Portal-to-portal pay policy has passed through the portals of the U. S. Supreme Court and out again, with nothing to repay it for its trouble. It is right back where it started from.

It was the Supreme Court's decision in June, 1946, that stirred things up. The court ruled that the Wage-Hour Law required employers to pay for any "substantial" amount of time they required employees to be on the premises—traveling underground in mines, changing clothes, washing up, etc. Union immediately filed suit under this decision for back pay (portal-to-portal) totaling billions.

Congress, which had not foreseen this interpretation of the law, reacted quickly. It passed a bill outlawing portal-to-portal suits and in effect left questions of portal-to-portal pay to collective bargaining.

Now the Supreme Court has upheld the right of Congress to ban such suits. That ends the matter, and restores the status quo.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

Various Causes

Deafness is all too prevalent. It has been estimated that approximately one-tenth of our population have difficulty along this line and one out of every 15 school children is afflicted temporarily or permanently while in the classroom. It is also common knowledge that in many instances the catastrophe could have been prevented had proper measures been taken during its inception.

Van Dellen

The situation is complex because there are many origins of deafness. Some are easily remedied; others lead to progressive hearing loss regardless of the best medical care. One of the most frequent causes is plugging of the outer ear canal due to wax. Many "penny wise and pound foolish" individuals have gone about for years resigned to their fate because they did not wish to spend money on an examination. Some have even by-passed the physician and purchased hearing aids without knowing the cause of their deafness. Little do they realize that the wax could have been removed in five minutes, with restoration of hearing.

• — • — •

Acute or chronic ear, nose, or throat infections are other sources of deafness. In this disturbance, the opening of the tube leading from the mouth to the ear may be obstructed by swollen or inflamed adenoid tissue in the back of the throat. If the infection is part of a cold, deafness is usually temporary and hearing returns when inflammation subsides. But if the tissues do not shrink to their normal size, the symptom persists unless treated. Radium is useful in the circumstances and, after a few treatments, the faculty is restored.

Infection of the inner ear (otitis media) is the most common culprit in children. Hearing loss generally occurs as a complication and is prone to follow in cases where a nest of bacteria is not easy to eradicate. In many such youngsters, the mastoid may be involved also. This aftermath was widespread in the past but penicillin and the sulfonamides have changed the picture. It is highly possible that in the future it will be difficult to find an individual whose deafness is traceable to this source. The same can be said of impaired hearing after a siege of measles, scarlet fever, or typhoid because these infectious diseases are not as prevalent nor severe as they were in the past.

Deafness also may follow a direct blow to the ear, working in a noisy atmosphere, or sudden changes in pressure such as occurs in deep-sea diving or flying at high altitudes. The concussion from a nearby explosion can damage the membranes; and lead or phosphorus poisoning sometimes affects the acoustic nerve. Any one working under these conditions should report any dimunition of hearing before it is too late.

The child who is born deaf presents a more difficult problem because the damage has already been done before the youngster comes into the world and a remedy is lacking. The same can be said of otosclerosis except that the new fenestration operation gives improvement in 70 per cent of the cases.

FETAL PULSE

G. T. writes: Can a doctor determine the sex of an unborn child by listening to the heart beat? I have heard that boy babies have a slower pulse than girls.

Reply

No, even though the beat is slightly faster in girls than boys. The rate varies between 120-160 and increases or decreases from time to time for no apparent reason. When it is fast, the obstetrician may think "it's a girl" but at the next visit, if it is slower, he may change his mind. In the circumstances it is obviously difficult to make an accurate prediction.

Gen. Clay's Ruhr Announcement Riles Surprised Secretary Marshall; Truman Shoots Close To Par On Personal Poll; Congress To Probe Life Insurance Racket

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—Now that Secretary of State Marshall is back from Paris, it is possible to get a clearer idea of who was responsible for the U. S.-British decision to turn Ruhr industry back to the German cartels. This has lost us more friends in western Europe than any other single move since V-E Day.

The week before Thanksgiving, Gen. Lucius Clay came to Paris to confer with Marshall before the latter took off for Washington. Clay was accompanied by his political adviser, French-hating Ambassador Robert Murphy.

Marshall and Clay are old friends, but the secretary had occasion to differ sharply with Clay on this occasion and, according to insiders, to reprimand both him and Murphy.

The issue was whether any hope could come from trying to mediate the Berlin dispute. At that moment, the United Nations mediations efforts were under way. Both Clay and Murphy opposed this, said they thought the Berlin deadlock had become too difficult to be patched up. Marshall curtly told them the decisions were being made in Paris, for the moment, not Berlin.

Three days later, the Herald Tribune, European edition, published a front-page story quoting an unnamed American official in Berlin as saying precisely the things Clay and Murphy had said in Paris. Marshall had gone to Washington by this time, but an immediate investigation was ordered regarding the leak.

One top-ranking American delegationer said, "if we can find out who promoted that story, he'll have to retract or get out!"

But the source is now enjoying protection in the tight little Berlin colony and won't be detected.

The other issue where Clay surprised and displeased Marshall was in the announcement of Anglo-American plans to hand the Ruhr industries back to the German cartels. According to sources close to Marshall, this came as a complete surprise to him. Later, as Secretary of State, he was obliged to explain the action of the agonized French. It did not make him happy.

Note: Behind Clay's high-policy decisions are the U. S. Bankers who once loaned billions to the Ruhr and who now run the U. S. defense department plus Ambassador Bob Murphy, whose bitterness against France is notorious.

Truman's Election Guess

Montana's newly re-elected Senator Jim Murray called at the White House recently to suggest that extension of the Senate small business committee should be high on the list of presidential recommendations to the next Congress.

"The dangers of monopoly were never greater," explained the Montanan, who, though one of the wealthiest men in Congress, has been a hard-hitting champion of the little fellow. "We've got to stay on the ball if we want to preserve free enterprise."

'I'm behind you 100 per cent, Jim," declared Truman. "That committee must be extended and I further agree with you that one of the most important measures we must enact is a strong anti-monopoly law."

The President laughed heartily when Charles Murray, the senator's son, showed him a clipping from the Lewistown, Mont., News, predicting a month before the election that Truman would receive 308 electoral votes. The final count was 304. The President said he had to confess, however, that the newspaper's optimism exceeded his own.

"My own prediction on my electoral count, which I had placed in a sealed envelope, was less than 304," the President told his callers. He politely but stubbornly refused to reveal the exact number he predicted, and this figure has remained an official White House secret.

However, it can be revealed that the Truman forecast was 276 electoral votes — 10 more than he needed and 28 less than he finally got.

The President based his prediction on the belief that every state with a Democratic governor would go Democratic except Virginia, which Truman thought would give a majority to Dewey. He was wrong on Virginia, which fooled him by staying in the Democratic column, and on Maryland, which surprised him by going Republican.

The President also figured he would lose both New York and California, but California surprised him, pleasantly, by going Democratic.

Insurance Companies' Fine Print

Three years ago, Marine Pilot Robert Frazer zoomed into a cloud bank off the California coast. That was the last ever seen of him. Search planes prowled over the area for three days, but never spotted so much as a floating fragment to give a clue to his fate.

The missing Marine left behind a young widow and four fatherless tots. In the Marine Corps' care, he also left a sealed envelope, containing an Acacia Mutual Life Insurance Company policy. He had taken out the policy during the war, believing it would protect his family in case he didn't come back. Yet Mrs. Fraser hasn't been able to collect a cent.

Her tragic story will be made one of next year's headlines, when Wisconsin's G. O. P. Senator Joe McCarthy, himself an ex-marine, plans to focus the national spotlight on a vicious insurance racket. McCarthy will expose how widows and orphans, applying for insurance payments, often get nothing but empty legal phrases—dug out of the fine print.

McCarthy already has written to the Marine commandant, Gen. Clifton Cates, urging him to bar Acacia salesmen from Marine bases. Backing this up, the Senator is also working on a bill which will require the military to screen all life insurance policies sold to military personnel.

For, buried in Fraser's life insurance policy was a clause which he apparently didn't know about. This freed the company from making payment in case his death were caused by "injury resulting from riding in, or operating, or falling, or descending from or with, any type of aircraft."

As evidence that Fraser didn't understand this clause, he had left a note sealed with his other papers, indicating his belief that the policy would take care of his family if he were killed in action. Yet Mrs. Fraser, with four young children on her hands, has been forced to earn her own way.

The interesting fact is that the company tripped over its own legal wording, and still might be vulnerable to a lawsuit. Since no evidence was found of Major Fraser's death, it cannot be proved that he died of injuries connected with the airplane. He may have bailed out safely, then drowned in the ocean or died of hunger and privation on a liferaft. The burden of proof is on the company and the legal presumption is in favor of life.

However, the Acacia Company, which maintains a swank, marble-front building almost opposite the Capitol in Washington, still refuses to pay.

Our Federal Government Wants What The Australians Rejected

By SAMUEL B. PETTENGILL

Britain's Minister of Health, Mr. Bevan, is amazed at the "bad sight" which his countrymen are developing. "The rush for spectacles is so great that it has overtaken production capacity."

"Free" false teeth are also in great demand. It is reported that dentists pull each other's teeth, which they formerly did as a pleasant, neighborly, mutual service, and then send bills to the government for payment.

Such is the result of the politicians taking over medical care. Even Mr. Bevan protests at the stampede for "free" service. "Because things are free," he says, "is no reason why people should abuse their opportunities. This is a great test of the maturity of the British people, insofar as they have all the resources of the medical profession at their disposal without charge."

Whats "Free" About It?

One may sympathize with the plight of the Minister of Health, but to describe the system as "free" or "without charge" is the mark of a dishonest mind. Of course, it is all paid for. Doctors, dentists and nurses don't do their work for nothing, even in un-merrie England.

"Something for nothing" is vote grease de luxe. But when millions get something for nothing, other millions get nothing for something. The same sort of relief rackets are growing in this country and the cost goes up also. The American Municipal Association reports that the relief load has gone up 136% during the past three years. And this during the biggest boom and largest employment in history!

As the Gadarene swine rushed down a steep place to the sea to be drowned, voters and taxpayers also blindly join the stampede for "free." The voters in Oregon woke up the day after the election with a headache. They found that they had approved an old-age pension plan of $50 a month regardless of need. Treat 'em alike—pauper and millionaire. It's a free country, isn't it?

The Oregon joker was the disclosure that the cost of free pensions for all was three times as much as the present cost of the State government in all its branches! Bond companies about to buy an Oregon State bond issue immediately withdrew their bids.

Just another case of the "maturity" of the people which Mr. Bevan is wondering about! Today in England, whether they work or not, or pay for private medical insurance or not, or are British subjects or not, everybody can ask for a glass eye, wig, truss, operation or ambulance, and "no charge." Just pay your taxes, that's all.

Get Losses Out Of U. S. Wallet

The British airlines, government-owned and politically-operated, lost $45,000,000 this past year. That is 5% more loss than the previous year, and it is expected that the losses will continue, if not increase still more next year. The European Recovery Plan, however, enables the British Socialists to "recover" their losses out of American pocketbooks—including Oregon's!

There is one ebb in the tide of this on-coming Socialist sea. The Australians went "left" long before England did. They have had a longer look at it than the Britishers. In an election last spring, the disillusioned "down-unders" overwhelmingly defeated a proposal to give their Federal government permanent control over prices, rents, etc. Our own Federal government wants what the Australians reject! What was it that Poor Richard said about "Experience is a dear school"?

"Left-Wing" Attacks On Wall Streeters In Government Aired

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—President Truman has said from time to time that his most difficult problem is to get persons from the business world to come to Washington in peacetime and take important positions of responsibility.

The task is going to be complicated from now on by the sabotaging tactics of the "left wing," from which has been emanating lately a continuous sniping at government officials formerly in the business world.

The cry of "Wall Street" influence is one that stirs up interest in a political campaign but when the elections are over the hard jobs of government must be undertaken by persons who are competent. It so happens that the business and financial world puts to the acid test persons of the very same talents as are required in policymaking branches of the government.

Lately the attacks — sometimes veiled and sometimes open—have been directed against Robert Lovett, undersecretary of state, and William H. Draper, undersecretary of the army, Secretary of Defense Forrestal and Averell Harriman, all of whom have come to government from Wall Street.

In none of these positions is economic policy made nor is there any connection with the matters that affect the ups and downs of Wall Street operations. But once a man has spent a few years in Wall Street in law or finance or business, the "left wing" idea is that he is thereby disqualified from holding office in Washington and that somehow it must be inferred that he is lacking in integrity or in the capacity to administer public affairs fairly.

Implication Is Absurd

The implication is, of course, absurd. Franklin D. Roosevelt started his law career in a Wall Street office. Chief Justice Stone, one of the liberals of the Supreme Court, was a partner in a prominent Wall Street law office. There are many other examples.

The interesting thing which the public generally does not know is that some of the best public servants have come to Washington from Wall Street. Even those who are of independent financial means sometimes make better officials than those political officials who are looking toward Wall Street for their future in business or law or finance. Many former officials of the New Deal are now active either in law practice or in business in Wall Street or its counterpart in Chicago or Boston or in the financial districts of other big cities of the country.

It was Theodore Roosevelt who, after he left the presidency, wrote that only a man of independent means could really make an independent public official. He argued that a man with a $100,000 estate—one could easily live in those days on the income from such a sum—would not be dependent on his government salary and only a man who was ready to resign at any time would make the kind of decisions and exercise the kind of judgment which would make him an invaluable servant of the people.

Such Men Need Encouragement

Some of the men who are invited to Washington from business or finance come here at a real sacrifice. They give up opportunities for financial gain when they enter the government service. Some of them came here during the war and have stayed on because they have become interested in public service. Instead of discouraging and driving such men away they ought to be encouraged. For, if the "left wing" attack succeeds, it will be hard to interest first-class men from the business or financial world in coming to Washington. They will not be willing to take posts that lead to smears and malignment.

During the last campaign President Truman delivered several speeches that were wholly unnecessary to the making of his case for continuance in office and one of these was the charge against Wall Street influence in government in the event of a change in administration. Naturally it boomeranged and caused some comments that he had in his own entourage some Wall Street men. It was inferred that he was inconsistent. That same line of attack has now risen to plague the President, who really wants to get the best men possible to serve the government no matter what their background. For it is axiomatic that background in business or law or finance does not of itself determine the integrity or honesty or the competence of an individual and that no group or class of citizens in the country has any monopoly on the qualities of honesty and fairness so necessary to the making of a good public servant.

The Yardstick Of Policy

AMERICAN imperialism has been achieved as a by-product of war and without the consent of the American people. It is because the American people have neither a tradition of imperialism nor a national desire to meddle in the afairs of other countries that the policy of this country is uncertain, unfocused, experimental and at times meaningless.

For instance, no country which anticipated an expenditure of $5,000,000,000 a year for the purpose of maintaining a bloc of friendly states in Europe would have issued JCS 1067, which paralyzed the industry of Europe and which hampers, if it does not prevent, the arming of Europe.

In a word, because of JCS 1067, we are forced to employ the Marshall Plan to help reconstruct what we agreed should be dismantled and we shall have to contribute an even larger sum to arm the countries which cannot arm themselves because we knocked down and permitted the Russians to dislocate the principal arsenals of Europe.

It does not seem possible that such a paradox could have been policy. In spite of the discovery of our errors, we continue to make them. For instance, our policy concerning the Ruhr should be to require both France and Western Germany to find a program for joint economic development of the Ruhr.

It does not make sense for us to contribute tremendous sums to both countries if they will quarrel over an iron and steel industry which is essential to both. If they cannot agree on essentials, why should we underwrite their quarrels?

Yet, both can point to the ridiculous order JCS 1067 which directed General Eisenhower to "Take no steps (a) looking toward the economic rehabilitation of Germany, or (b) designed to maintain or strengthen the German economy."

The cost of this order to the American taxpayer is calculable only in billions of dollars and that cost can only be lessened by restoring productive efficiency to the Ruhr.

Similarly, as regards China, the United States at Yalta recognized Soviet Russia as the successor to Japan's rights and claims in Manchuria. In 1915 when Japan issued the Twenty-One Demands, the United States was the first to reject them. Again, when the Japanese repeated that at the Paris Peace Conference, we rejected them except for the Shantung clauses. Again when Japan occupied Manchuria on September 19, 1931, we issued the Stimson Doctrine of non-recognition and we were prepared to intervene in partnership with Great Britain—a partnership which Sir John Simon refused on behalf of his country. The Far Eastern War did not begin at Pearl Harbor but has been in the making more or less since 1911 when the Japanese took umorage at Aemarican racial discrimination.

Yet at Yalta we agreed to give to Soviet Russia—which was then neutral so far as the Far East was concerned—the Japanese rights and claims in Manchuria. At that moment the United States pursued a policy which sooner or later would reduce China to the position of Poland or Rumania. As long as Russia holds Manchuria, no independent government can maintain itself in China, just as when Russia holds Shanghai, the Philippines become imperiled.

Perhaps none of this means anything to a people who despise the involvements of imperialism. Some might even say: Let Russia take the whole of Asia, as long as we have a bloc of nations in Western Europe. Of course, they wanted Tojo executed for thinking that Japan might build a co-prosperity sphere in Eastern Asia and they wanted this country to go to war with Hitler for attemping to establish an empire in Europe.

So far as the United States is concerned, this lack of a yardstick of policy, this opportunism, this hit-or-miss diplomacy, this failure to measure American policy by American interests may finally isolate us more than anything any American Firster proposed.

We can find ourselves an island surrounded by states in the Soviet federation with whom we shall have no contact, no trade, no interchange of any kind. We may be separated not by an Iron Curtain but enclosed in an iron box.

The crux of this is the China problem. As we handle that, so will our future be.

It Says Here

By BOB HOPE

Santa, take off those dark glasses.

Yes sir, last Wednesday, California welcomed the Yule season in true Hollywood style by holding its big Santa Claus parade on Hollywood Boulevard.

There were trees all over the Boulevard and millions of people were pushing each other to get a glimpse of all that green. For a while I didn't knw whether it was Santa Claus or Santa Anita.

And all the beautiful stars were in the parade. In fact, Santa liked the actresses so much, you may be reading about a new movie company . . . "North Pole Productions."

Santa and Hedy Lamarr rode together all the way down the Boulevard in the big sleigh. This will go down as the first year the boss couldn't get rid of his helpers.

I took Doris Day, pretty thrush, to the parade and Santa saw her sitting next to me on the float. He shook his head and said, "Why doesn't anyone ever ask me what I want for Christmas?"

PITCHING HORSESHOES by Billy Rose

The other night at a java and johnnycake joint on Sixth Avenue I ran into a reporter friend of mine named Sam Becker.

Billy Rose

"Your body and by-line have been missing for a couple of weeks," I said. "What cave have you been hiding in?"

"Cave 1106 at the Hotel Statler in Boston," said Sam.

"Big story?"

"Strange would be a better word," said the reporter, "but unfortunately I can't use the yarn because I can't prove some of the facts."

"Maybe it would help you to talk about it," I suggested. "Try it for about 800 words."

"Well," Sam said, "three weeks ago at 11 p. m., a man was seen rushing off pier 90, screaming and waving his arms like crazy. As he was high-tailing it across the street, a truck swiped him, and when the ambulance came, he was marked D.O.A.—Dead On Arrival.

"Except for the guy's hysterics, it looked like a routine accident and the cops handled it accordingly. At the morgue they went through his pockets and found a key to a midtown hotel room, two crumpled Dixie cups, about $80 in money, and a Massachusetts driver's license issued to Charles Fitzgerald of Boston.

"A check at the hotel showed that a Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald had arrived two days before, and that Mrs. F. had been scheduled to sail for Europe that night from the same pier where he husband was killed. The only other clue was a telegram from a Doctor Shelley in Boston which had arrived a few minutes after the couple left for the boat, but it merely referred to the state of Mrs. Fitzgerald's health.

"After a call to the steamship line had verified that the lady was actually on board, the police got her on the radio-telephone and told her the news. Mrs. Fitzgerald seemed pretty broken up about it, and said she couldn't even guess at any reason for her husband's perculiar behavior.

"Five days later, Mrs. F. flew back from Cherbourg to do the right and proper by the corpse, and then went on to Boston. That finish the case—as far as the cops were concerned, it was the same old story of Man Meets Truck.

"But, somehow, the thing didn't add up to me. Proper Bostonian kisses wife goodbye, watches liner pull out, suddenly yipes like a hurt spaniel and lights out for parts unknown. How come?

"I put it up to my editor, and he agreed to let me go to Boston and do a little shovel work. There, I did a lot of talking with the medico who had sent the telegram, with Fitzgeralds' neighbors, and with Mrs. F. herself. I'm pretty certain I've got the answer, but as I said, I can't print it because I can't prove it . . .

• — • — •

"According to the neighbors, Charles Fitzgerald wasn't the proper Bostonian he pretended to be. He had married his wife for her dough, and ever since the nuptials he had been spending most of his afternoons playing bridge for big stakes, and most of his nights playing the field. Mrs. F., on the other hand, was one of those frail, long-suffering females who never protest in words but let it all come out in symptoms. She was a hpochrondriac of the worst sort, and it was at Doc Shelley's suggestion that she had sailed for France—he told her she needed more sun, but admitted to me that what she really needed was less husband.

"So far, Billy, I've given you facts, but from here on it's guesswork. It's my theory that it was the ocean voyage which gave Fitzgerald his big idea—to murder his wife and take over her estate. He planned what he though was the perfect crime and, with the doctor's help, here's how I reconstructed it:

"Mrs. Fitzgerald, a chronic insomaniac, used a lot of sleeping pills and so, over a course of days or weeks, Fitzgerald managed to sneak a dozen of them out of her pill-box. The night of the sailing—to cover up—he wired the doctor that he was worried about the amount of sedatives his wife was using, and asked for his advice. Then he went on board with the murder weapons—a bottle of Scotch and two paper cups. He knew his wife hated alcohol, but he figured he could get her to take a drink because of the special occasion.

"It's my belief that in one of those paper cups was the powder from enough sleeping tablets to kill Joe Louis. As Fitzgerald had doped it out, his wife's body wouldn't be discovered until the following morning, and then it would be assumed she had either committed suicide or taken too many tablets by mistake.

"At this moment, X—the thing a murderer seldom makes provision for—went to work. Mrs. Fitzgerald, as she admitted to me, waited for the moment when her husband's back was turned and then, not wanting the Scotch, poured the contents of her cup into Mr. F.'s and pretended to bottoms-up. When Fitzgerald downed his drink, he was probably surprised at the amount he had poured for himself, but it didn't seem important at the time.

"If my guesswork is in gear, he then kissed his helpmeet ardently and left her cabin, first stuffing the one bit of evidence—the Dixie cups—into his pocket.

"While waiting on the pier for the boat to pull out, he looked at the telltale cups and noticed there wasn't any lipstick on the one with traces of undissolved powder at the bottom. Suddenly it crossed his mind that his wife must have done what he had seen her do so often at parties—dumped her unwanted drink into his. Screaming for help, he ran out into the street and the truck clipped him. . . ."

"Simple justice," I said. "The truck killed a no-good guy who was going to die anyhow."

"No," said the reporter, "the truck is entitled to full credit, and Fitzgerald would be alive today if the doctor's telegram had reached him in time. You see, the message which started me on this wild goose chase read, "NO CAUSE FOR ALARM. MRS. FITZGERALD'S INSOMNIA PURELY PSYCHOLOGICAL. SLEEPING TABLETS NOTHING BUT SUGAR."

Mrs. Harry Blair, Midland, was elected vice president and Mrs. Holmes Cessna, of the Union Grove Club, was named secretary. Other officers continuing their term with them are Mrs. Claude T. Jett and Mrs. L. H. Shafferman.

Mrs. Austin D. Twigg presided and chairmen's reports were given. They included Mrs. J. Nelson Willison, Fair and Exhibits; Mrs. Cessna, Family Relations; Mrs. Tiwgg, International Relations; Mrs. John T. Rowan, Membership; Mrs. John S. Cook, Publicity; Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Rural Women's Short Course, and Mrs. John D. Liebau, 4-H Clubs.

Cultural chairmen reports were given by Mrs. Robert W. Young, Mrs. John C. Fisher, Mrs. W. L. Maddocks, Art and Reading; Mrs. Charles D. Long, Music; Mrs. Gilbert M. Miller, Recreation. Project chairmen reports included those by Mrs. Harry Morgan, Clothing; Mrs. W. O. Wolford, Home Furnishing; Mrs. Edward Lewis, Mrs. Joseph Nicodemus, Home Management; Mrs. B. C. Robinette, Home and Farm Beautification.

Miss Maude A. Bean, county home demonstration agent, gave the outlook for 1949 and announced that "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World" will be the theme for the year; sewing will again be stressed and the cultural and project work continued. Beginning in January the Clothing chairmen of the various clubs of the county will conduct classes in beginners sewing, teaching how to make children's clothing. She announced that during the past year 189 new members have been enrolled, making a total of 1,198 members in 35 clubs.

The importance of "beginners" was stressed by Mrs. Walter Bromley, Smithsburg, president of the State Council of Homemakers Clubs. Stressing the importance of the local clubs, she showed how they built up the state and national organizations, and reported that there are 12,000 members in Maryland. She also reported on the national convention held recently in Tulsa, Okla., to which she was state representative.

Likening the chairmen's reports to "stepping stones," Mis Venia M. Kellar, assistant director of Extension Service, University of Maryland, reminded her audience that the mother sets the standards of the home and the home must settle its own problems. She pointed out that neither the specialist nor the teacher can solve them. The speaker also urged homemakers to have vision and build bigger and better homes, and quoted a definition of democracy as "University Extension Short Course is democracy in action."

The program also included the singing of the National Anthem and "Faith of Our Fathers," led by Mrs. Harry J. Barton; the recitation of the Homemakers Creed and a pipe organ recital by Mrs. Richard W. Trevaskis. Mrs. Charles Long, Mrs. Joseph Wheeler and Mrs. Clarence Ort sang "Blessings," and the Homemakers Chorus sang "Hills of Home." Miss Gloria Bohn, assistant home demonstration agent, spoke on the sewing and housekeeping projects of the 4-H Girls Clubs.

SPEAKING FOR HOMEMAKERS—Are Mrs. Walter Bromley, Smithsburg, president of the Maryland Council of Homemakers Clubs; Mrs. Edgar D. Vandegrift, treasurer of the Allegany County Council of Homemakers; Miss Venia M. Kellar, assistant director of Extension Service, Maryland University; and Mrs. Austin D. Twigg, Jr., vice president of the county council, who presided at the Achievement Day dinner yesterday at Centre Street Methodist Church social hall.

W. J. Elvin Heads Engineers Club

At a meeting of the executive committee Monday night at the Kelly - Springfield Tire Company's plant, W. J. Elvin, plant engineer at the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation of America, was elected president of the Engineers' Club of Cumberland.

Elvin will assume office at the close of the December meeting of the club. He will hold office for one year. Elvin succeeds J. S. Thayer, chief engineer of the Kelly-Springfield.

Other officers elected are Roy W. Eves, vice-president; John R. Connelly, secretary; and Raymond T. Bete, treasurer.

The meeting was attended by George F. Hazelwood, Roy W. Eves, Arthur C. Bright, Douglas Smith, A. W. Keight, John R. Connelly, Mangus W. Work, F. G. Dodge, W. J. Elvin, H. C. Givens, Jr., Raymond T. Bete, Edward G. Lytle, William H. Blake, and Edgar D. Vandergrift.

The next meeting of the club will be held on December 15. It will be the annual "Ladies Night" and a special program has been arranged.

Traffic Survey Will Be In June

The date for a Cumberland traffic survey has been set "sometime between June 1 and June 15, 1949" by the State Roads Commission, according to Mayor Thomas S. Post.

The survey, approved by the Mayor and Council several weeks ago, is to determine the flow of traffic at different points in the city and will lead to alleviating some of the congestion here.

The survey, it is estimated, will cost $17,500 of which the city's share will be $4,000. The remainder will be paid by the state and federal governments.

George N. Lewis, Jr., director of the SRC, was present at a meeting in Baltimore arranged by City Engineer Ralph L. Rizer and explained the survey to members of the council. He said that the check in June would give figures at a time when traffic is heaviest.

Completion of the survey, it is understood, will make the city eligible to receive state and federal funds for some of its paving projects. Mentioned particularly has been Frederick Street and its relation with Bedford Street, one to be used for incoming traffic and the other for outgoing.

All-American Airways Hearing Is Postponed

A hearing by the Public Service Commission on the application of All-American Airways for carrier service in Maryland, formerly set for December 8, has been postponed until "sometime after the first of the year."

The board's decision, it is believed, will mean several months delay in giving the city an air carrier. Originally it was estimated that service here could start about February 15.

Mayor Disappointed

Perhaps the most disappointed of the backers of the proposed air stop here is Mayor Thomas S. Post, who has been a staunch supporter of Cumberland's air program.

Mayor Post said the city had been expecting a representative of All-American for several weeks to set up an office and make final arrangements for inauguration of the stop. His delay, he said, was based on the scheduled Public Commission Hearing.

Harold W. Smith, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, echoed the Mayor's statement that the airline stop would be a definite asset to the city.

The delay in the hearing was announced by the PSC to allow All-American and other interested parties additional time to gather more data. The application is opposed by Chesapeake Airways.

Additional Routes Sought

Chesapeake Airways, which connects Baltimore with the Eastern Shore towns of Easton and Salisbury, has been trying during its two years of existence to obtain additional routes, which would link Baltimore, Washington, and Wilmington with Maryland and Delaware towns on the Delmarva Peninsula. However last February the Civil Aeronautics Board, a federal agency, awarded these interstate routes to All-American Airways, a Wilmington firm.

All-American had been operating an airmail pickup service over several states for the past eight years, but had not operated a regular passenger service before.

The routes had been awarded on two conditions: That All-American show that it had adequate airports, and that the new passenger flights not duplicate the old pickup flights. The reason for the non-duplication provision was that the government did not want to pay double airmail subsidies to a single airline, once for the pickup flights and again for the passenger flights.

All-American accordingly has asked for permission to drop its pickup routes altogether before starting the passenger service.

The Civil Aeronautics Board has held a hearing to determine if the pickup routes can be suspended and a decision is pending. If permission to suspend them is granted by Jan. 1, All-American will be able to start interstate passenger flights by about Feb. 15, although flights wholly within Maryland must await permission from the Public Service Commission.

If Parents Can't Agree, You Suffer

Nancy Mottram

(Q) "Dear Nancy: I don't have too much trouble with my parents when it comes to dating, but there is one thing that is really beginning to bother me. Occasionally when I ask my father for permission to do something and he says yes, my mother will be against it, and she'll say no. Neither of them will change his mind. Therefore, I won't know what to do. They won't compromise on anything, and I'm always caught in the middle. I don't think it's fair. But what can I do about it?"

(A) The solution to this isn't up to you, it's up to your parents. Authority isn't worth anything unless it's used correctly. And it's definitely not fair to you to put you in that position. You can't defy either one and any disagreement they might have shouldn't be taken out on you. You won't ever be able to be certain of anything unless you ask them to get together and work this out. Otherwise, your respect for their opinions and right to guide you is going to be weakened. And if that happens, it's a serious family problem.

(Q) "Dear Nancy: I have dated my college roommate's brother several times, but we're not "going together." Since she doesn't live too far away from school, she's asked me to go home with her for Christmas. I have the O.K. from my parents, but I'm not sure that I should go. You see, I'm afraid that her brother might think that I'm coming to see him, and that isn't the case at all. I certainly don't want him to think I'm chasing him, and yet I'd like to go home with her for the holiday. What do you think I should do?"

(A) If you don't accept the invitation after your parents have said yes, you'll take the chance of causing hurt feelings on your roommate's part, and possibly cause him to thinks the very thing you don't want him to—that you're deliberately avoiding him. There's no reason to feel that by visiting the family, you'll be giving him the impression you're chasing him. Just act naturally, don't give all your attention to him and concentrate on being friendly to everyone you meet there. Then, you won't have to worry about your visit seeming to mean more than it actually does.

(Q) "Dear Nancy: I've been dating a girl quite a bit, but I haven't asked her to go steady with me. Still, every time I take her out, she asks me what I've done all the nights she hasn't seen me. Sometimes I have another date, but most often, I go out with my friends. Everytime I even mention another girl, she gets mad, and I can't see it. Could you tell me what I could say to her about this, or should I just call it quits?"

(A) If you like to date her, don't put her out of your life entirely until you decide that she won't ever stop giving you a list of questions to answer about your spare time. Next time you "hear about" your going out with someone else, make it plain that after all, you aren't going steady. One or two hints ought to put across the idea that your life is your own, and you intend to keep it that way. She may switch her line then, but if not, find someone who isn't such a Sherlock Holmes.

If you have a problem at school or at home, write Miss Mottram for help.

Leahy Denies He Will Quit As N. D. Coach

Contract Still Has Seven Years To Run

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (INS)—Frank Leahy tonight denied a report that he was contemplating resigning his job at Notre Dame football coach "in a couple of years."

Frank Leahy

"I hope to coach football at Notre Dame as long as they'll have me," he said.

His contract still has seven years to run.

Leahy reached by telephone at his Long Beach, Ind., home, said he had heard of the report which appeared in a Cleveland newspaper and was understood to say he will quit as athletic director at Notre Dame at the end of next season and as football coach "in a couple of years."

The Notre Dame coach said his resignation as athletic director is something he has been contemplating for some time, "because of the tremendous press of duties I now carry in the dual role of athletic director and football coach."

However, the Irish grid pilot, whose teams now have won 21 straight games and gone undefeated in 27, both new Notre Dame records, left no doubt as to his coaching intentions.

Ill health, mentioned in the Cleveland report as the motivating factor behind Leahy's plans, was understood to be no factor at all.

"Frank is always fatigued at the end of a football season," said Edward Krause, assistant athletic director at Notre Dame. "That's all there is to that. He's tired. Any coach would be."

Leahy himself said he was "fatigued" when he talked to a reporter recently and told him, "I don't see how I can last more than a couple of more seasons."

The Irish coach said tonight:

"Apparently those words of mine were construed into a statement."

Leahy's personality, often mentioned as the reason some coaches will not play Notre Dame in football, has never worried higher-ups at Notre Dame. They are content to string with him, and are convinced that Notre Dame's schedule troubles are economic rather than personal — when major teams no longer can make money with minor games, they'll come a-running to Notre Dame once more.

Zinaich To Captain Mountaineers In 1949

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 30. (AP)—Pete Zinaich, 189-pound fullback from Weirton, will captain the West Virginia University Mountaineers during next year's football season.

His selection was announced today by Coach Dudley DeGroot, who said Zinaich was chosen in a secret ballot in which 43 squad members participated.

Zinaich shared with Vic Bonfili the ground-gaining honors among this year's university football players. His 58-yard run for a touchdown against Western Reserve here was rated by sports writers as the best of the year for the Mountaineers.

To Captain Cornell

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 30 (INS)—Paul Girolamo, Bronx halfback, was named captain of the 1949 Cornell University football team.

Some lizards incubate their eggs beneath the bark of rotting logs. Because a reptile's body temperature approximates its surroundings, the female leaves her nest periodically to bask in the sun—returning to transmit the warmth to her eggs.

PANTHERS' CHOICE — Capt. Tom Hamilton, above, director of athletics at the United States Naval Academy, is the No. 1 choice for the same position at the University of Pittsburgh and will receive a bid for the latter job. Hamilton will confer with his superiors at Annapolis before going to Pittsburgh this week to talk turkey with Panther officials.

Mullaney Will Cut Squad To 15 Cagers Friday

LaSalle Opens With Frederick Dec. 12

Coach John Mullaney announced yesterday that twenty-seven candidates are now participating in the drills held by the LaSalle High School basketball squad and expects to have a working varsity group of 15 players after Friday's practice session.

The Explorers mentor reduced his first squad from 35 to 13 candidates last Friday. With the conclusion of the football season, however, 14 additional candidates joined the squad on Monday for drills on the Fayette Street court.

Thirteen cagers surviving last week's cut are:

Seniors: Philip Christ, Terrence Burke, Hugh Miller, James Close, Robert Woods, Norman Sell and William Paupe.

Juniors: Thomas Mullaney and Thomas Stapleton.

Sophomores: James Crowe, Don Farrell and Rodger Lueck.

Freshman: Charles Lindner.

Members of the football squad who reported on Monday were Robert Arnone, Philip Sonner, Robert Carey, Charles Hinea, Pasquale DeMartino, Ronald Ingram, Louis Arnone, Ronald Ruffo, Charles Sitter, John Moran, Francis Kitzmiller, Richard Leo, Robert Herstine and Francis Michaels.

LaSalle will open its season on Sunday, December 12, at 3 p. m. on SS. Peter and Paul court with St. John's High School of Frederick, Md.

Two days later the Explorers will play Beall High School in Frostburg.

Yawkey To Guarantee Notre Dame $300,000 For Games In Boston

BOSTON, Nov. 30 (INS) — A movement is underway to bring Notre Dame to Boston next season to meet Boston University on the Fenway Park gridiron.

The Boston Daily Record said tonight that Tom Yawkey, owner of the Boston Red Sox, has agreed to guarantee Notre Dame $100,000 per game for a three-game series. All three games would be played at Fenway Park.

A representative of Yawkey and Boston University is expected to present his offer to Notre Dame authorities this week.

The Record article said:

"Notre Dame allegedly being snubbed by several of its customary rivals, is looking for new opposition. Boston University is marching rapidly to the uppercrust of collegiate football. It proved that it isn't far from the top in its game with Iowa of the Big Nine recently."

A game between Boston University and Notre Dame would bring Coach Frank Leahy back to Boston for the first time since he left Boston College in 1941. Notre Dame last played in Boston during the war when Coach Ed McKeever brought the Irish to the Hub to defeat Dartmouth.

Hamilton Plans Conference With Pitt Officials

Navy Man No. 1 Choice For Athletics' Post

By JAMES LEE
(International News Service Sports Writer)

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 30 (INS)—Husky Tom Hamilton, one of the U. S. Naval Academy's all-time gridiron greats, seems headed today toward "operation football" at the University of Pittsburgh.

Capt. Hamilton, now athletic director at Annapolis, said he will fly to the Smoky City this week to confer with Panther officials on their offer of a job as director of athletics at Pitt.

The Pitt people, bent on rehabilitating the football fortunes of the once mighty Panthers, announced earlier that Hamilton was the No. 1 choice for the job and would receive a formal bid.

Will Fly To Pittsburgh

Before going into conference with his superiors at Annapolis, Hamilton said he would fly to Pittsburgh Thursday or Friday to talk turkey with the victory-hungry Pittmen.

The rugged naval captain saw his first season as academy athletic director wind up spectacularly at Philadelphia last Saturday when the Middies, woeful and winless underdogs, outplayed and tied mighty, undefeated Army, 21-21.

Hamilton, who had coached Navy football teams in 1934, 1935 and 1936, scoring two victories over Army during that tour of duty, returned to the academy as head coach in 1946.

Hamilton bowed out as coach the following year, but became athletic director and was instrumental in effecting the change of policy which installed George Sauer of Kansas as a civilian coach.

Navy's inspiring play last Saturday gave Hamilton, by his own testimony, one of the happiest days of his life.

Starred In 1926 Thriller

Oddly, the score was the same as in Hamilton's last game as a player, the 1926 Army-Navy thriller at Chicago. Star halfback and dropkicker on the '26 team, Hamilton kicked the three points which enabled the Navy to hold a great West Point outfit even.

Hamilton issued the following terse statement on the Pitt offer:

"I am flatered by the generous offer made to me by the University of Pittsburgh.

"I expect to confer with officials of the university later in the week, and with naval officials.

"Until those conferences have been completed, I can make no further comment."

Close friends of Hamilton are confident, however, that he will take over at Pitt and plunge into the job of restoring the Panthers to their former position among the elite of the nation's gridirons.

Associates point out that Hamilton, with 21 years' service as a commissioned officer, has been eligible for retirement since last June, and that he is satisfied that Navy's football fortunes are, under Sauer, due to flourish.

Saw Action In Pacific

During the war he spent a year and a half aboard the aircraft carrier Enterprise, as air officer, executive officer, and finally as skipper. He saw action all over the Pacific. Later, he commanded the carrier Savo Island.

Hamilton, 42, was appointed to the Naval Academy from Columbus, Ohio. He is married to the former Emma Spaulding of Coronado, Calif. They have two sons, Tom Jr., 15, and Bill, 14.

There have been no public mention of the financial arrangements suggested for Hamilton at Pitt, but friends believe that if he takes the job he will be one of the country's best-paid athletic directors.

The Pittsburgh job became available last July 1 when James (Whitey) Hagan resigned under pressure, with his monthly paychecks continuing for a year to the end of his contract.

Since Hagan's departure, various committees have surveyed Pitt's athletic situation, and last week Hamilton was revealed as the No. 1 choice to rebuild the Panther athletic prowess.

Two Games Scheduled In "Y" Senior League

Two games are scheduled for tonight in the Central YMCA Men's Senior Basketball League on the "Y" court.

At 8:30 the B. & O. Back Shops will play Cresaptown and at 9:30 the Amvets will play the Naval Reserve.

The Amvets, Cumberland Legion and Marine Reserve won the opening games on Monday night.

Official World Series Movies Fail To Settle Disputed Play

Masi Was Called Safe At Second By Stewart

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (INS)—The official movies of the 1948 world series failed to show today whether Cleveland's Lou Boudreau tagged Boston's Phil Masi in the disputed pick-off play in the first game of the series.

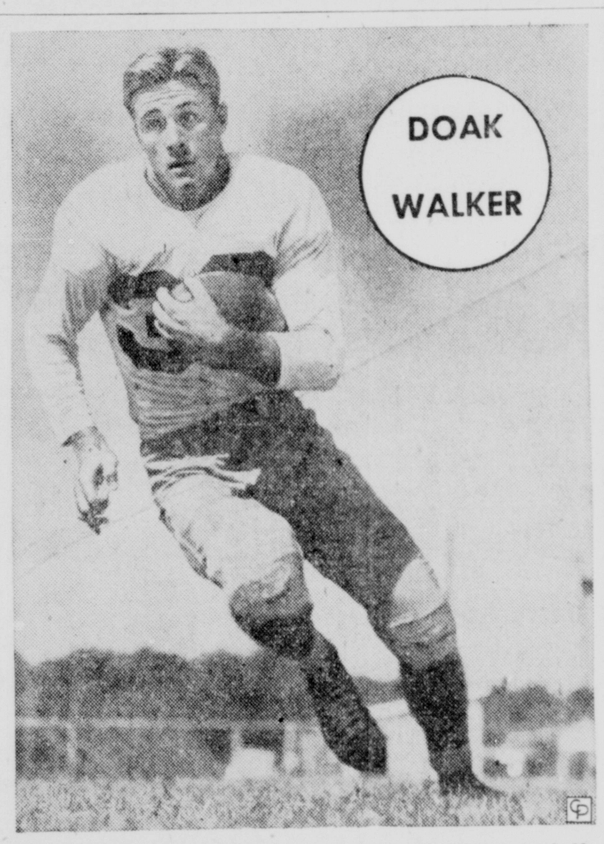
The films, edited by former big leaguer Lew Fonseca, showed the play but proved nothing.

The controversial play was photographed with a wide angle lens. It was impossible to tell whether Boudreau had tagged Masi "all the way up the arm" as the Cleveland manager claimed.

The play arose in the eighth inning of the first game. Masi was on second base. Cleveland pitcher Bob Feller suddenly whirled and threw to Boudreau. National League Umpire Bill Stewart called Masi safe. Boudreau protested but to no avail.

Moments later, Tommy Holmes sliced a single to left field for the second hit off Feller and the run that gave Boston a 1 to 0 victory.

Fonseca told assembled sports writers and baseball men that he tried to purchase newsreel shots of the incident. But, he said, these films also failed to show conclusively that Masi was either out or safe.



SMU JUNIOR COPS AWARD—Doak Walker, 1947 All-America halfback at Southern Methodist University, has been selected as winner of the 1948 Heisman Trophy which goes to the year's outstanding college football player. He received 778 votes. Charlie Justice of North Carolina's Tar Heels was second with 443 votes. The trophy will be presented to Walker in New York next week.

Eddie Marsh of Windber, Pa., who is supposed to fight Jimmie Catanese here next Monday night in a five-round bout at the armory, has whipped the local boy three straight times.

We don't believe it's a good match because Catanese has been inactive for 90 days and Marsh has been winning consistently in Pensylvania rings.

Could it be that Marsh and Catanese are participating in a best-of-nine-bouts series?

We can't see the sense in rematching boxers when the fans know in advance what the score is going to be every time.

Marsh whipped Catanese in February and repeated here in June. He also trounced Jimmie at Johnstown.

In fact, Marsh has won six consecutive matches with local boys. He TKO'd Eugene Mann in two rounds at Johnstown, TKO'd Frankie Lisanti here in two heats and decisioned Jimmie Folk in a 5-rounder at Johnstown, October 20.

Eddie is a lightweight now but back in 1946 when he tipped the beam at 110 he lost a close decision to Bobby Goss in a local ring.

Eight of the 14 matches in which Jimmie Brown, local negro lightweight, has participated have ended in knockouts. Jimmie has been flattened five times and he administered the sleeping potion three times. He has won four decisions and lost two which gives him a record of seven wins and seven defeats.

The fans are guaranteed action when that Brown boy goes to the post because he or the other fellow usually gets his brains knocked out.

His fight with Ray Stalone of Lewistown, Pa., was one of the best knockdown and dragout affairs we've seen here in many moons. The final bell cheated Jimmie out of a K.O. that night as Stalone was on the deck when the curfew sounded.

Brown's latest misfortune was running into a human buzz saw in the person of "Doc" Watkins of Pittsburgh in Monday's show here.

Joe Decker, agent at the local Blue Ridge bus terminal, is enthused over the showing made by Clemson's football team this year. Clemson happens to be Lefty Joe's alma mater.

The Tigers won nine consecutive games, including four in a row in the Southern Conference and will battle Missouri in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., New Year's Day. Frank Howard, Clemson's coach was voted the coach of the year in the Southern Conference.

It was at Clemson that the local southpaw made quite a name for himself as a baseball pitcher under Coach Joe Guyon, the Indian mentor. Jesse Neely was Clemson's football coach when Decker attended that school.

Decker pitched Clemson to the baseball championship of South Carolina by beating Bill Brigham, Gamecocks' ace, in a sensational mound battle. Brigham later hurled for the Clarksburg Generals of the Middle Atlantic League and other higher class minor league clubs.

Wonder why local amateur boxing promoters are short changing the faithful fans with six-bout cards?

In 1946 seldom did a show comprise less than eight bouts and on one occasion the American Legion staged a 12-bout card.

Jack Wilkinson and John "Boots" Sapp tell us that we erred yesterday when we stated that Allegany's 1926 football team yielded only six points in ten games.

It should be 19 points and that's still a local record, according to the two ends who played on that team.

Sapp says AHS handed Parsons its only defeat of that season, 33-7, lost to Johnstown Central 6-0 and the Alumni 6-0.

"Boots" recalls that Johnny Long intercepted a pass to give the Alumni its victory.

The locals rolled up 213 points, won 7, lost 2 and tied 1. The scoreless tie was played with Hagerstown and the game was staged at the Fair Grounds.

The linemen on that AHS team were Wilkinson, John Golden, Henry Kuhn, Ernie Hutcheson, Lester Seibert, Jack Treiber, Bob Wolfe and Sapp. The backs were Albert Wolfe, Austin "Rattle" Fleming, John "Bus" Pitzer, Frankie Barrett, Dave Sigel and Leon Lloyd.

During the recent World Series games in Cleveland we had the pleasure of meeting Toots Shor, New York's famous chop house proprietor, who is noted for insulting people. It was through Bill Chipman of the New York Daily News that we met Shor.

The first thing he asks is "Where are you from?"

And when he is told the name of the place he yells:

"What a lousy town!"

Shor, a big, boisterous fellow, spares no one when it comes to tossing out insults.

In fact, he had the sports writers covering the series rolling in the aisles with his line of chatter.

Bennett Cerf in the latest issue of Look magazine tells one about Shor.

A four-star general complained one evening that the cheese cake was spoiled. Toots strolled over to learn the cause of the commotion.

The waiter explained:

"The general wants you to taste it yourself."

"I should say not," exclaimed Toots, "let him get sick."

John Mitchell, Baltimore undertaker who prepared the body of "Hack" Wilson, one-time National League home run king, for burial is the father-in-law of Frank "Home Run" Baker, home run leader of the American League 35 years ago.

Both Wilson and Baker topped their leagues in home runs four times. Baker, who played third base for the Athletics, led the A. L. in 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1914. Baker's home run output was 39 for the four years while Wilson in 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1930 belted 138 four-baggers for the Chicago Cubs. His 56 in 1930 still stands as a N. L. record.

Cumberland's Dukes have averaged 60 points per game in their two winning starts.

They've averaged 24 field goals per game and have hooped 23 of 34 free throws for an average of 67.6 at the charity line.

Negro National League Disbands

Three Teams Join A. L., Homestead Grays Quit

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (INS) — The negro National Baseball League, formed in 1932, disbanded today after three of its six teams had folded.

The other three National League clubs were accepted into membership by the negro American League, which also accepted membership application from a new team that will operate out of Houston, Tex., thereby bringing the number of American League teams to ten.

As the joint meeting of the two leagues ended its two-day session in Chicago, Dr. J. B. Martin, owner of the Chicago American Giants of the Negro American League, was re-elected presidents, secretary and treasurer of the circuit for 1949.

The teams which yesterday dropped out of organized participation in negro ball were the Newark Eagles, the New York Black Yankees, and the Pittsburgh Homestead Grays, who played their home games in Washington.

The three remaining National League clubs, which today were assimilated by the American League, are the New York Cubans, Philadelphia Stars and Baltimore Elite Giants.

Dr. W. H. Young of Memphis and Hugh Cherry of Blytheville, Ark., are the owners of the new Houston team which was accepted to American League membership. Other American League clubs, in addition to the Chicago American Giants, are the Cleveland Buckeyes, Kansas City Monarchs, Memphis Red Sox, Indianapolis Clowns and Birmingham Barons.

MISSISSIPPI STATE'S GRID COACH QUITS

STATE COLLEGE, Miss., Nov. 30 (AP)—Allyn McKeen, head football coach at Mississippi State College for 10 years, resigned today effective Jan. 1.

The mentor, whose Maroons took a 34 to 7 beating from the University of Mississippi Saturday, said he quit "for the best interests of the college and the team," he declined further comment.

McKeen's five-year contract at State had three more seasons to run. College President Fred T. Mitchell said a settlement was made with McKeen on the remainder of the contract.

Negro Passers Win 350 Games In Three Years

Inman Jackson's Club Plays Here At 9 P. M.

Rated second only to the Harlem Globetrotters, with whom they are affiliated, among the nation's top touring basketball aggregations, the Kansas City Stars will display their star-studded lineup of negro cagers against the Cumberland Dukes, of the All-American Professional Basketball League, tonight at 9 o'clock at SS. Peter and Paul gym.

The Kansas City Stars originally were formed by the Harlem Globetrotters' management to make a place for players mustered out of the service. The K. C. team was a hit from the start, so much so, in fact, that it was decided to retain it on a permanent basis and develop it into one of basketball's best.

Fourth Season For Stars

This is the fourth season the Stars have been in action and have a record to boast about. They have won 350 games and lost only 19 going into this campaign. The first season, 1945-46, they won 128 of 131 games, including a string of 62. The team won 113 and lost five the following year. Last season saw 109 victories notched against 11 setbacks.

Inman Jackson, one of the all-time Harlem Globetrotters' great coaches the Kansas City Stars and has them well versed in the characteristics that have made the Trotters so remarkable.

The visitors' lineup includes Bold Bule, one-armed star formerly of Tennessee State and Sam Wheeler, 6-foot-3 captain from St. Louis. The Globetrotters recalled Wheeler last year for the game in which the Minneapolis Lakers were defeated in Chicago Stadium. This is Wheeler's fourth season with the Stars. He has toured the Hawaiian Islands with the Trotters in their three post-season flights to the Mid-Pacific the last three seasons.

Tonight's game will be the third of the season for Coach "Red" Klotz's Dukes. St. Francis College and the Pittsburgh Merchants lost to the locals in the two games played here to date.

Officials Are Named

John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh and Clifton Van Roby will officiate in tonight's game.

The Ridgeley American Legion of the Central YMCA Men's Senior League will play the Original Revenuers in the preliminary game at 7:30 o'clock.

Leahy Denies He Will Quit As N. D. Coach

Contract Still Has Seven Years To Run

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (INS)—Frank Leahy tonight denied a report that he was contemplating resigning his job at Notre Dame football coach "in a couple of years."

Frank Leahy

"I hope to coach football at Notre Dame as long as they'll have me," he said.

His contract still has seven years to run.

Leahy reached by telephone at his Long Beach, Ind., home, said he had heard of the report which appeared in a Cleveland newspaper and was understood to say he will quit as athletic director at Notre Dame at the end of next season and as football coach "in a couple of years."

The Notre Dame coach said his resignation as athletic director is something he has been contemplating for some time, "because of the tremendous press of duties I now carry in the dual role of athletic director and football coach."

However, the Irish grid pilot, whose teams now have won 21 straight games and gone undefeated in 27, both new Notre Dame records, left no doubt as to his coaching intentions.

Ill health, mentioned in the Cleveland report as the motivating factor behind Leahy's plans, was understood to be no factor at all.

"Frank is always fatigued at the end of a football season," said Edward Krause, assistant athletic director at Notre Dame. "That's all there is to that. He's tired. Any coach would be."

Leahy himself said he was "fatigued" when he talked to a reporter recently and told him, "I don't see how I can last more than a couple of more seasons."

The Irish coach said tonight:

"Apparently those words of mine were construed into a statement."

Leahy's personality, often mentioned as the reason some coaches will not play Notre Dame in football, has never worried higher-ups at Notre Dame. They are content to string with him, and are convinced that Notre Dame's schedule troubles are economic rather than personal — when major teams no longer can make money with minor games, they'll come a-running to Notre Dame once more.

PANTHERS' CHOICE — Capt. Tom Hamilton, above, director of athletics at the United States Naval Academy, is the No. 1 choice for the same position at the University of Pittsburgh and will receive a bid for the latter job. Hamilton will confer with his superiors at Annapolis before going to Pittsburgh this week to talk turkey with Panther officials.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 30. (AP)—Pete Zinaich, 189-pound fullback from Weirton, will captain the West Virginia University Mountaineers during next year's football season.

His selection was announced today by Coach Dudley DeGroot, who said Zinaich was chosen in a secret ballot in which 43 squad members participated.

Zinaich shared with Vic Bonfili the ground-gaining honors among this year's university football players. His 58-yard run for a touchdown against Western Reserve here was rated by sports writers as the best of the year for the Mountaineers.

Yawkey To Guarantee Notre Dame $100,000 For Games In Boston

BOSTON, Nov. 30 (INS) — A movement is underway to bring Notre Dame to Boston next season to meet Boston University on the Fenway Park gridiron.

The Boston Daily Record said tonight that Tom Yawkey, owner of the Boston Red Sox, has agreed to guarantee Notre Dame $100,000 per game for a three-game series. All three games would be played at Fenway Park.

A representative of Yawkey and Boston University is expected to present his offer to Notre Dame authorities this week.

The Record article said:

"Notre Dame allegedly being snubbed by several of its customary rivals, is looking for new opposition. Boston University is marching rapidly to the uppercrust of collegiate football. It proved that it isn't far from the top in its game with Iowa of the Big Nine recently."

A game between Boston University and Notre Dame would bring Coach Frank Leahy back to Boston for the first time since he left Boston College in 1941. Notre Dame last played in Boston during the war when Coach Ed McKeever brought the Irish to the Hub to defeat Dartmouth.

Hamilton Plans Conference With Pitt Officials

Navy Man No. 1 Choice For Athletics' Post

By JAMES LEE
(International News Service Sports Writer)

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 30 (INS)—Husky Tom Hamilton, one of the U. S. Naval Academy's all-time gridiron greats, seems headed today toward "operation football" at the University of Pittsburgh.

Capt. Hamilton, now athletic director at Annapolis, said he will fly to the Smoky City this week to confer with Panther officials on their offer of a job as director of athletics at Pitt.

The Pitt people, bent on rehabilitating the football fortunes of the once mighty Panthers, announced earlier that Hamilton was the No. 1 choice for the job and would receive a formal bid.

Will Fly To Pittsburgh

Before going into conference with his superiors at Annapolis, Hamilton said he would fly to Pittsburgh Thursday or Friday to talk turkey with the victory-hungry Pittmen.

The rugged naval captain saw his first season as academy athletic director wind up spectacularly at Philadelphia last Saturday when the Middies, woeful and winless underdogs, outplayed and tied mighty, undefeated Army, 21-21.

Hamilton, who had coached Navy football teams in 1934, 1935 and 1936, scoring two victories over Army during that tour of duty, returned to the academy as head coach in 1946.

Hamilton bowed out as coach the following year, but became athletic director and was instrumental in effecting the change of policy which installed George Sauer of Kansas as a civilian coach.

Navy's inspiring play last Saturday gave Hamilton, by his own testimony, one of the happiest days of his life.

Starred In 1926 Thriller

Oddly, the score was the same as in Hamilton's last game as a player, the 1926 Army-Navy thriller at Chicago. Star halfback and dropkicker on the '26 team, Hamilton kicked the three points which enabled the Navy to hold a great West Point outfit even.

Hamilton issued the following terse statement on the Pitt offer:

"I am flatered by the generous offer made to me by the University of Pittsburgh.

"I expect to confer with officials of the university later in the week, and with naval officials.

"Until those conferences have been completed, I can make no further comment."

Close friends of Hamilton are confident, however, that he will take over at Pitt and plunge into the job of restoring the Panthers to their former position among the elite of the nation's gridirons.

Associates point out that Hamilton, with 21 years' service as a commissioned officer, has been eligible for retirement since last June, and that he is satisfied that Navy's football fortunes are, under Sauer, due to flourish.

Saw Action In Pacific

During the war he spent a year and a half aboard the aircraft carrier Enterprise, as air officer, executive officer, and finally as skipper. He saw action all over the Pacific. Later, he commanded the carrier Savo Island.

Hamilton, 42, was appointed to the Naval Academy from Columbus, Ohio. He is married to the former Emma Spaulding of Coronado, Calif. They have two sons, Tom Jr., 15, and Bill, 14.

There have been no public mention of the financial arrangements suggested for Hamilton at Pitt, but friends believe that if he takes the job he will be one of the country's best-paid athletic directors.

The Pittsburgh job became available last July 1 when James (Whitey) Hagan resigned under pressure, with his monthly paychecks continuing for a year to the end of his contract.

Since Hagan's departure, various committees have surveyed Pitt's athletic situation, and last week Hamilton was revealed as the No. 1 choice to rebuild the Panther athletic prowess.

Two Games Scheduled In "Y" Senior League

Two games are scheduled for tonight in the Central YMCA Men's Senior Basketball League on the "Y" court.

At 8:30 the B. & O. Back Shops will play Cresaptown and at 9:30 the Amvets will play the Naval Reserve.

The Amvets, Cumberland Legion and Marine Reserve won the opening games on Monday night.

Official World Series Movies Fail To Settle Disputed Play

Masi Was Called Safe At Second By Stewart

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (INS)—The official movies of the 1948 world series failed to show today whether Cleveland's Lou Boudreau tagged Boston's Phil Masi in the disputed pick-off play in the first game of the series.

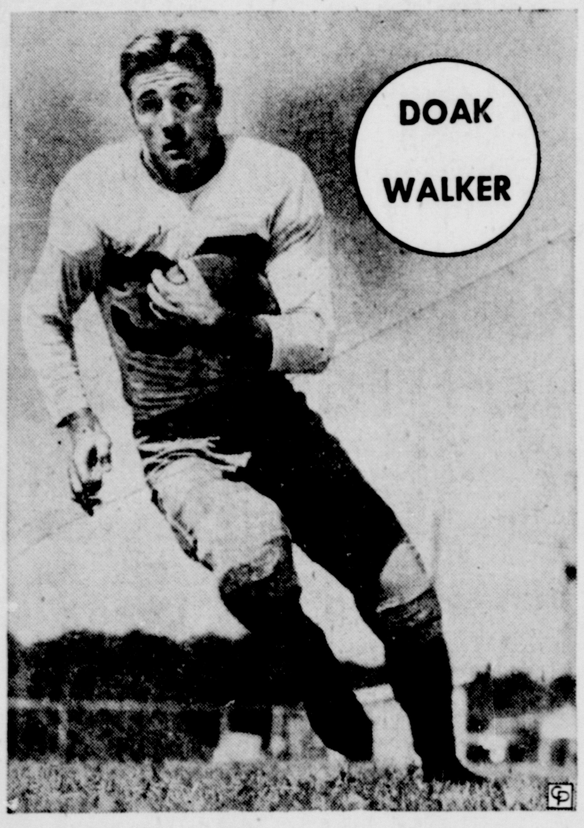
The films, edited by former big leaguer Lew Fonseca, showed the play but proved nothing.

The controversial play was photographed with a wide angle lens. It was impossible to tell whether Boudreau had tagged Masi "all the way up the arm" as the Cleveland manager claimed.

The play arose in the eighth inning of the first game. Masi was on second base. Cleveland pitcher Bob Feller suddenly whirled and threw to Boudreau. National League Umpire Bill Stewart called Masi safe. Boudreau protested but to no avail.

Moments later, Tommy Holmes sliced a single to left field for the second hit off Feller and the run that gave Boston a 1 to 0 victory.

Fonseca told assembled sports writers and baseball men that he tried to purchase newsreel shots of the incident. But, he said, these films also failed to show conclusively that Masi was either out or safe.



SMU JUNIOR COPS AWARD—Doak Walker, 1947 All-America halfback at Southern Methodist University, has been selected as winner of the 1948 Heisman Trophy which goes to the year's outstanding college football player. He received 778 votes. Charlie Justice of North Carolina's Tar Heels was second with 443 votes. The trophy will be presented to Walker in New York next week.

Marsh-Catanese Again? Eight KO's In 14 Bouts

Clemson Enthuses Decker AHS Record Is 19 Points

By C. V. BURNS

Eddie Marsh of Windber, Pa., who is supposed to fight Jimmie Catanese here next Monday night in a five-round bout at the armory, has whipped the local boy three straight times.

We don't believe it's a good match because Catanese has been inactive for 90 days and Marsh has been winning consistently in Pensylvania rings.

Could it be that Marsh and Catanese are participating in a best-of-nine-bouts series?

We can't see the sense in rematching boxers when the fans know in advance what the score is going to be every time.

Marsh whipped Catanese in February and repeated here in June. He also trounced Jimmie at Johnstown.

In fact, Marsh has won six consecutive matches with local boys. He TKO'd Eugene Mann in two rounds at Johnstown, TKO'd Frankie Lisanti here in two heats and decisioned Jimmie Folk in a 5-rounder at Johnstown, October 20.

Eddie is a lightweight now but back in 1946 when he tipped the beam at 110 he lost a close decision to Bobby Goss in a local ring.

●—●—●

Eight of the 14 matches in which Jimmie Brown, local negro lightweight, has participated have ended in knockouts. Jimmie has been flattened five times and he administered the sleeping potion three times. He has won four decisions and lost two which gives him a record of seven wins and seven defeats.

The fans are guaranteed action when that Brown boy goes to the post because he or the other fellow usually gets his brains knocked out.

His fight with Ray Stalone of Lewistown, Pa., was one of the best knockdown and dragout affairs we've seen here in many moons. The final bell cheated Jimmie out of a K.O. that night as Stalone was on the deck when the curfew sounded.

Brown's latest misfortune was running into a human buzz saw in the person of "Doc" Watkins of Pittsburgh in Monday's show here.

Joe Decker, agent at the local Blue Ridge bus terminal, is enthused over the showing made by Clemson's football team this year. Clemson happens to be Lefty Joe's alma mater.

The Tigers won nine consecutive games, including four in a row in the Southern Conference and will battle Missouri in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., New Year's Day. Frank Howard, Clemson's coach was voted the coach of the year in the Southern Conference.

It was at Clemson that the local southpaw made quite a name for himself as a baseball pitcher under Coach Joe Guyon, the Indian mentor. Jesse Neely was Clemson's football coach when Decker attended that school.

Decker pitched Clemson to the baseball championship of South Carolina by beating Bill Brigham, Gamecocks' ace, in a sensational mound battle. Brigham later hurled for the Clarksburg Generals of the Middle Atlantic League and other higher class minor league clubs.

Wonder why local amateur boxing promoters are short changing the faithful fans with six-bout cards?

In 1946 seldom did a show comprise less than eight bouts and on one occasion the American Legion staged a 12-bout card.

Jack Wilkinson and John "Boots" Sapp tell us that we erred yesterday when we stated that Allegany's 1926 football team yielded only six points in ten games.

It should be 19 points and that's still a local record, according to the two ends who played on that team.

Sapp says AHS handed Parsons its only defeat of that season, 33-7, lost to Johnstown Central 6-0 and the Alumni 6-0.

"Boots" recalls that Johnny Long intercepted a pass to give the Alumni its victory.

The locals rolled up 213 points, won 7, lost 2 and tied 1. The scoreless tie was played with Hagerstown and the game was staged at the Fair Grounds.

The linemen on that AHS team were Wilkinson, John Golden, Henry Kuhn, Ernie Hutcheson, Lester Seibert, Jack Treiber, Bob Wolfe and Sapp. The backs were Albert Wolfe, Austin "Rattle" Fleming, John "Bus" Pitzer, Frankie Barrett, Dave Sigel and Leon Lloyd.

During the recent World Series games in Cleveland we had the pleasure of meeting Toots Shor, New York's famous chop house proprietor, who is noted for insulting people. It was through Bill Chipman of the New York Daily News that we met Shor.

The first thing he asks is "Where are you from?"

And when he is told the name of the place he yells:

"What a lousy town!"

Shor, a big, boisterous fellow, spares no one when it comes to tossing out insults.

In fact, he had the sports writers covering the series rolling in the aisles with his line of chatter.

Bennett Cerf in the latest issue of Look magazine tells one about Shor.

A four-star general complained one evening that the cheese cake was spoiled. Toots strolled over to learn the cause of the commotion.

The waiter explained:

"The general wants you to taste it yourself."

"I should say not," exclaimed Toots, "let him get sick."

Here's a coincidence.

John Mitchell, Baltimore undertaker who prepared the body of "Hack" Wilson, one-time National League home run king, for burial is the father-in-law of Frank "Home Run" Baker, home run leader of the American League 35 years ago.

Both Wilson and Baker topped their leagues in home runs four times. Baker, who played third base for the Athletics, led the A. L. in 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1914. Baker's home run outout was 39 for the four years while Wilson in 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1930 belted 138 four-baggers for the Chicago Cubs. His 56 in 1930 still stands as a N. L. record.

Cumberland's Dukes have averaged 60 points per game in their two winning starts.

They've averaged 24 field goals per game and have hooped 23 of 34 free throws for an average of 67.6 at the charity line.

"Red" Klotz, the "old pro," is pacing the scorers with 26 points and George Geatz is hitting .800 at the 15-foot line with eight conversions in 10 tries.

VFW Women Win

The V.F.W. women's shuffleboard team won two out of three games from the Moose team by the score of 99-64 last night at the V.F.W. Home. Mrs. Mildred Fike led the winners with 30 points and Mrs. Dorothy Smith posted high score of 17 for the Moose.

Negro National League Disbands

Three Teams Join A. L., Homestead Grays Quit

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (INS) — The negro National Baseball League, formed in 1932, disbanded today after three of its six teams had folded.

The other three National League clubs were accepted into membership by the negro American League, which also accepted membership application from a new team that will operate out of Houston, Tex., thereby bringing the number of American League teams to ten.

As the joint meeting of the two leagues ended its two-day session in Chicago, Dr. J. B. Martin, owner of the Chicago American Giants of the Negro American League, was re-elected presidents, secretary and treasurer of the circuit for 1949.

The teams which yesterday dropped out of organized participation in negro ball were the Newark Eagles, the New York Black Yankees, and the Pittsburgh Homestead Grays, who played their home games in Washington.

The three remaining National League clubs, which today were assimilated by the American League, are the New York Cubans, Philadelphia Stars and Baltimore Elite Giants.

Dr. W. H. Young of Memphis and Hugh Cherry of Blytheville, Ark., are the owners of the new Houston team which was accepted to American League membership. Other American League clubs, in addition to the Chicago American Giants, are the Cleveland Buckeyes, Kansas City Monarchs, Memphis Red Sox, Indianapolis Clowns and Birmingham Barons.

MISSISSIPPI STATE'S GRID COACH QUITS

STATE COLLEGE, Miss., Nov. 30 (AP)—Allyn McKeen, head football coach at Mississippi State College for 10 years, resigned today effective Jan. 1.

The mentor, whose Maroons took a 34 to 7 beating from the University of Mississippi Saturday, said he quit "for the best interests of the college and the team," he declined further comment.

McKeen's five-year contract at State had three more seasons to run. College President Fred T. Mitchell said a settlement was made with McKeen on the remainder of the contract.

Inman Jackson's Club Plays Here At 9 P. M.

Rated second only to the Harlem Globetrotters, with whom they are affiliated, among the nation's top touring basketball aggregations, the Kansas City Stars will display their star-studded lineup of negro cagers against the Cumberland Dukes, of the All-American Professional Basketball League, tonight at 9 o'clock at SS. Peter and Paul gym.

The Kansas City Stars originally were formed by the Harlem Globetrotters' management to make a place for players mustered out of the service. The K. C. team was a hit from the start, so much so, in fact, that it was decided to retain it on a permanent basis and develop it into one of basketball's best.

Fourth Season For Stars

This is the fourth season the Stars have been in action and have a record to boast about. They have won 350 games and lost only 19 going into this campaign. The first season, 1945-46, they won 128 of 131 games, including a string of 62. The team won 113 and lost five the following year. Last season saw 109 victories notched against 11 setbacks.

Inman Jackson, one of the all-time Harlem Globetrotters' great coaches the Kansas City Stars and has them well versed in the characteristics that have made the Trotters so remarkable.

The visitors' lineup includes Boid Buie, one-armed star formerly of Tennessee State and Sam Wheeler, 6-foot-3 captain from St. Louis. The Globetrotters recalled Wheeler last year for the game in which the Minneapolis Lakers were defeated in Chicago Stadium. This is Wheeler's fourth season with the Stars. He has toured the Hawaiian Islands with the Trotters in their three post-season flights to the Mid-Pacific the last three seasons.

Tonight's game will be the third of the season for Coach "Red" Klotz's Dukes. St. Francis College and the Pittsburgh Merchants lost to the locals in the two games played here to date.

Officials Are Named

John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh and Clifton Van Roby will officiate in tonight's game.

The Ridgeley American Legion of the Central YMCA Men's Senior League will play the Original Revenuers in the preliminary game at 7:30 o'clock.

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

Suspicion

What a world of heartaches, unhappy days, and tragic experiences are the result of Suspicion. And in how very, very many cases this suspicion is groundless and the result of mere imagination or idle gossip.

No writer has ever illustrated the tragic result of suspicion quite as powerfully as has Shakespeare, in his "Othello." And today many a family is shadowed by some groundless suspicion that ought to be immediately eliminated. Many an idol has toppled because of some baseless report given by an evil or resentful tongue.

Suspicion increases of itself. Aided by imagination it can attain giant proportion! To be happy and to have peace of mind, have nothing to do with suspicion. No matter how presented, have no part of it. A very small number of suspicions ever prove to be actualities.

It is the harboring of this suspicion that causes all the damage. Usually founded upon nothing more substantial than hearsay, the longer it lingers in the mind the greater do its ghost-like proportions increase. Thus do fear and all manner of imaginings take hold upon one's physical make-up. Only by a decisive dismissal of these fears and imaginings does there come serenity of spirit and peace of mind.

It is groundless suspicion that usually starts all wars—wars that could have been easily prevented. Unfortunately these suspicions exist today among nations. What a happy world we will have when any of us may enter the territory of any nation, freely and without suspicion, being also permitted to wander about at will without interference!

Wipe out all suspicion, upon the part of the great nations of the world, and there could be written at once treaties of peace and good will with all the nations of the earth. And what a lift it would be to the sagging faith of mankind! There would be prosperity and human happiness such as all history has never known.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

That notorious criminal lawyer, Abe Hummell, once badgered a witness too hard. The witness was a young prize fighter, and Hummell was trying to force an admission that he had assaulted the defendant before said defendant carved him with a penknife. The fighter finally admitted he had given the defendant a "slight push."

"Slight push, you say," pounced Hummell. "Suppose you step down from the witness chair and show me and the gentlemen of the jury just what your idea of a slight push is."

The fighter's face lit up. "You really mean that?" he said incredulously. Quick as a cat, he was out of the witness box, took a full wind up, and landed a roundhouse uppercut smack on Hummell's chin. Hummell went flying across the courtroom like a sack of flour. The fighter dusted off his hands, and confided to the jury, "about one-tenth that hard is my idea of a slight push."

HOLLYWOOD

By LOUELLA PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 30.—(INS)—There was nothing Paul Douglas wanted so much in the world as to get a crack at the movies. He had his great success in "Born Yesterday" on the stage, but he'd never made a movie until "Letter To Three Wives." So you can imagine how delighted he is with the wonderful reports about it.

Louella Parsons

He's headed back to have one of the top roles in "It Happens Every Spring," which stars Ray Milland and Jean Peters.

This very funny comedy by Valentine Davies, goes before the cameras the middle of December with William Perlberg at the production helm, and Lloyd Bacon directing.

There's a remote chance that Joe DiMaggio may come here to play himself in this movie. He's read the script and likes it, and all depends on his health.

• — • — •

Ben Bogeaus is back in circulation again, ready to start "The Crooked Way," his fifteenth movie at the studio he founded, General Service.

Ben has worked for weeks getting a cast and director together, and now he is ready to start with John Payne and Ellen Drew in the top roles, and Robert Florey directing them.

• — • — •

Sam Goldwyn is going all out to keep his 14-year-old protegee, Joan Evans, from feeling nervous in her debut picture. He has just signed her good friend, Elisabeth Fraser, to play her older sister in "Roseanna McCoy."

Joan and Elisabeth have been friends ever since they played together in "Guest In the House" on the stage.

• — • — •

Jennifer made a great hit with the boys in the hospitals which she visited, and when they heard she was sick 800 of them wrote to her and told her they were sorry she, too, was in the hospital.

When you think how much these visits of the stars mean to our wounded heroes, I feel it has to be a very good excuse to keep from actors and actresses from visiting them.

• — • — •

Margaret Sullavan, whose hearing is greatly improved, will come out of her brief retirement to return to the New York stage in January as the star of the London success, "People Like Us."

William Taub is scheduled to produce the American version and Leo Genn, New York Actor, will be seen opposits the flame-tressed Margaret, who has been out of the theatre since she closed with the London company of Alfred DeLiagre's "Voice of the Turtle" at the Piccadilly theatre almost two years ago.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Buddy Adler broke his arm playing tennis, and his pretty wife, Anita Louise, is seeing to it that he is more careful in the future.

Many of Clark Gable's pals seem to feel he is really serious about Iris Bynum. They were at a party at Ocean House and Clark's devotion was very noticeable.

Elizabeth Firestone, a fine musician, played one of her own concertos at the dinner given in her honor by Eleanor Parker and Bert Friedlob.

Sid Grauman fell into his old stride of master showman, and introduced all the noted performers. Gloria De Haven sang very sweetly, while John Payne beamed with pride.

Dinah Shore gave with one of her famous songs, and those who applauded her were June Allyson, Dick Powell, Peter Lawford, Bebe Daniels, the Harry Brands and Dr. and Mrs. Prinzmetal and others.

I didn't realize how close at hand Christmas is until I received an invitation from Jeanette MacDonald and Gene Raymond to attend a Yule party at her home December 26.

Kay Starr opens at Mocambo Thursday night. Quite a night there with Frank Sinatra and Jimmy Van Heusen at the piano, and Jimmy McHugh singing and playing his new score from the Mike Todd hit.

That's all today.

Fibber and Molly

The activities of Fibber and Molly McGee (NBC 9:30 PM EST Tuesdays) are reported for no special reason every year in this space. Periodic checkup. Heart, lungs, teeth, Hooperating. They're not getting any younger and it's wise to keep a stethescope on 'em. This year, there's a slight swelling of the metaphors (normal at this age but better be watched), blood pressure 150 (excellent), Hooperating 21.8 (And at their age!)

Jim Jordan

They're an extremely rugged couple, Fibber and Molly, and, if they're a little set in their ways, it's to be expected. Fibber is arguing with Molly boastfully but with superb figures of speech when the doorbell rings. Ding Dong! Doc Gamble, who is quite a lot like Fibber, walks in. They insult each other.

"I'm just cruising around talking to a few friends."

"You're getting fewer of 'em every minute."

Then, with Molly as mediator, they begin to boast and make cracks at each other about their fishing ability, their hunting ability, or anything else that happens to be under discussion. "I'll be picking bass out of that lake like fleas off a hound dog, like a wardheeler picking votes out of a saloon."

"Hah! When you get through beating the lake with that fly rod, you'll whip up enough froth to shave the shoreline."

"The fish you've caught in your life wouldn't make enough chowder to wet a spoon."

It's a tribute to their incomparable art that Jim Jordan, who plays Fibber, Marian Jordan, who is Molly and Arthur Q. Bryan, who is Doc Gamble, can handle such lines without sounding like a tongue-tied sophomore in the Mount Vernon High School production of "Hamlet," if you'll forgive the metaphor. The language is as complicated as Winston Churchill's, though of course it lacks the quality.

"You're as welcome as four choruses of 'A Tree in the Meadow' to a cocker spaniel."

"You dunk your crumpets with such vigor the waitresses have to wear ponchos."

"He couldn't hit a hamstrung heifer with a hatful of hay."

"Them springs are tighter than a size forty girdle after a spaghetti dinner."

"A flophouse bed gets made up oftener and better than McGee's mind."

"Good old Doc! I don't know what the medical profession would do without him, but I bet they'd welcome some suggestions."

These outrageous metaphors are punctuated by that doorbell. After Doc Gamble gets out of sight, the Oldtimer walks in. He talks a brand of pure nonsense that can't be reduced to print, nohow. There's an interval of troubled domesticity between Fibber and Molly and then Billy Mills orchestra gives respite to the English language. The doorbell again. Sis, a little girl (played by Marian Jordan) of literate mind manages to get all the adults confused. You haven't learned history until you hear Sis's version of the pheasants storming the Bastille.

After Sis gets out of sight, the doorbell rings again and there's Mayor La Trivia. He and Fibber trade metaphors, though in general La Trivia's figures of speech haven't the emotional stability of Gamble's or Fibber's. The Mayor leaves. The King's Men, a singing group and a good one, give the language another interval. Then Wimple, a New England type with a tyrant of a wife, strolls in. "How's your wife."

"Never seen her in better shape. She's been in bed for a month."

The Jordans have been going on in this manner since 1931 and their Hooper has never been much better.

October Payroll Drops Slightly From Last Year

Figures Increase Over Past Months

Total employment and payrolls in Cumberland dipped slightly in October as compared to a year ago, the November report of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce shows.

The decreases were slight, however, and both were considerably higher than in the recent months.

Persons employed in 17 local industries in October totaled 17,873, a drop of 572 over the October, 1947, working force.

Payrolls for the industries for the same months were $4,595.37 for October, a decrease of $42,942.25 over the 1947 October payroll.

The working force totaled 17,215 in September and was 17,635 in July of this year.

October postal receipts totaled $28,664.14 in October, a drop of $52,874.15 over September.

November was a poor month for building permits since the $42,525 issued by the city was down $41,160 from October's permits.

The Maryland Employment Service reported 1,994 persons registered for employment as of October 15 and only 1,848 on the rolls November 15, a drop of 96. Placements dropped 23 over the same period, however.

Federal Reserve District reports showed debits to accounts in Cumberland were up one per cent over September, 1947.

Coal production in Maryland during September was 101,00 tons, a drop of 5.00 tons over August.

The Chamber of Commerce called upon Cumberland residents to exercise care in the use of Christmas decorations. Be sure, officials said, that your Christmas tree lights are in good shape and avoid the use of candles or inflammable decorations so that you can have a merry Christmas.

NUMBER PLEASE—The new Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company building on Union and South Centre Streets is shown here in the final stages of completion. The half-million dollar installation will completely house the local exchange, business offices and service department. As can be seen in the picture, it is a large three-story brick building, constructed along modern lines. The entrance is on the Centre Street side, the front of which is made of white block. The Company plans to occupy the new structure shortly after the first of the year.

American Store Workers Slated To Accept Pact

Officials of Local 322, Meat Cutters Union, and Local 886, Retail Food Clerks Union, both AFL, reported last night following a meeting of employes that they were confident union members will accept terms of a new contract with the American Stores.

They said final ratification, however, will be made by mail after members employed in outlying stores receive mimeographed copies of the agreement and the wage scale.

Mike Roth, international agent for the Meat Cutters, said members present at Teamsters Hall last night accepted the contract but added that only a few workers in stores outside of Cumberland were able to be present.

He said the new contract offered wage increases, retroactive to October 8, with a small improvement in the vacation plan.

The contract, if ratified, becomes effective as of October 8 and is effective for one year, he added.

The unions won bargaining rights for American Store workers in Allegany County, Md., and Mineral County, W. Va., after giving up rights to stores in nearby Pennsylvania after a company manager filed a decertification petition which questioned the union majority.

Discrimination In Many Medical Schools Charged

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—Federal Security Administrator Oscar R. Ewing said tonight that many medical schools discriminate against Jews and the government "can and should take remedial measures."

He told the American Jewish Congress in an address that he had urged President Truman to give federal funds only to schools where there is "absolutely no discrimination because of race, creed, color or national origin."

"Upon graduation," Ewing said, "you know and I know that the unseen 'restricted' sign limits their (Jews) opportunities for post graduate study, for internships, for residencies, and for research."

October Payroll Drops Slightly From Last Year

Figures Increase Over Past Months

Total employment and payrolls in Cumberland dipped slightly in October as compared to a year ago, the November report of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce shows.

The decreases were slight, however, and both were considerably higher than in the recent months.

Persons employed in 17 local industries in October totaled 17,873, a drop of 572 over the October, 1947, working force.

Payrolls for the industries for the same months were $4,595.37 for October, a decrease of $42,942.25 over the 1947 October payroll.

The working force totaled 17,215 in September and was 17,635 in July of this year.

October postal receipts totaled $28,664.14 in October, a drop of $52,874.15 over September.

November was a poor month for building permits since the $42,525 issued by the city was down $41,160 from October's permits.

The Maryland Employment Service reported 1,994 persons registered for employment as of October 15 and only 1,848 on the rolls November 15, a drop of 96. Placements dropped 23 over the same period, however.

Federal Reserve District reports showed debits to accounts in Cumberland were up one per cent over September, 1947.

Coal production in Maryland during September was 101,50 tons, a drop of 5.00 tons over August.

The Chamber of Commerce called upon Cumberland residents to exercise care in the use of Christmas decorations. Be sure, officials said, that your Christmas tree lights are in good shape and avoid the use of candles or inflammable decorations so that you can have a merry Christmas.

American Store Workers Slated To Accept Pact

Officials of Local 322, Meat Cutters Union, and Local 886, Retail Food Clerks Union, both AFL, reported last night following a meeting of employes that they were confident union members will accept terms of a new contract with the American Stores.

They said final ratification, however, will be made by mail after members employed in outlying stores receive mimeographed copies of the agreement and the wage scale.

Mike Roth, international agent for the Meat Cutters, said members present at Teamsters Hall last night accepted the contract but added that only a few workers in stores outside of Cumberland were able to be present.

He said the new contract offered wage increases, retroactive to October 8, with a small improvement in the vacation plan.

The contract, if ratified, becomes effective as of October 8 and is effective for one year, he added.

The unions won bargaining rights for American Store workers in Allegany County, Md., and Mineral County, W. Va., after giving up rights to stores in nearby Pennsylvania after a company manager filed a decertification petition which questioned the union majority.

Chicago Board Of Trade

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (AP) — Rallies were not sustained in the grain market today and at the close prices had worked lower. One reason for the decline in wheat was lower mid-November parity prices. Closing futures:

In the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree of divorce divorcing the plaintiff from the defendant A VINCULO MATRIMONII. The Bill states the parties were married on February 25, 1945, in Cumberland, Maryland; that no children were born of said marriage; that the defendant deserted the plaintiff on or about the 1st day of August, 1945, without just cause or reason and that said desertion has been continuous and uninterrupted since said date; that said desertion is deliberate and final and beyond any reasonable expectation or hope of reconciliation; that the plaintiff has resided in Allegany County, Maryland, for more than two years preceding the filing of the Bill of Complaint and the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and his present address and whereabouts is unknown with the exception that his last known address is 118 Hull Street, Brooklyn, New York.

It is thereupon this 8th day of November, 1948, by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, sitting in Equity, ordered that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Allegany County, Maryland, for once a week for four successive weeks before the 13th day of December, 1948, give notice to the non-resident defendant of the object and substance of this suit warning him to be and appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 29th day of December, 1948, to show cause, if any he may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Big Board Shares Decline As Stock Market Extends Uncertain Pattern

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (INS)—Big board shares closed irregularly lower today as the market extended the uncertain pattern of recent sessions. Steels finished mixed as did oils. Motors and rails continued easier.

Volume totaled 1,200,000 shares vs. 1,010,000 yesterday.

National Steel slumped 1½ but United States Steel and Bethlehem closed unchanged. Motors were firm at first but later suffered a sinking spell depressing General Motors a point.

Blue chip chemicals closed lower. Stocks adding small fractions included Westinghouse, Union Carbide, American Smelting, General Foods, General Electric, and National Biscuit.

In the curb share list Colonial Airlines common climbed five-eighths to 5⅞. Bond market averages closed fractionally lower.

Board Appoints John J. Smith County Engineer

John J. Smith, Mt. Savage, was appointed county engineer by the Board of Allegany County Commissioners yesterday following a motion by President Charles N. Wilkinson which was seconded by Commissioner William H. Lemmert.

Commissioner James Holmes Lonaconing, abstained from voting, saying that he would wait until Friday when John T. Fey, attorney to the board, gave an interpretation of the law on the qualifications of a county engineer.

It was agreed by board members that qualifications for the position included at least ten years practical experience in road building work in a supervisory capacity. Holmes questioned whether Smith has sufficient experience.

Smith, acting county engineer about 18 months since the resignation of Albert S. Paye, has been with the roads department 12 years, according to Wilkinson, and has the necessary qualifications.

Commissioner Lemmert said that Smith has done the "best job of any man in charge of the county roads work in a long time".

Both Wilkinson and Lemmert said it is the best plan to have a practical man on the job, and that they believe the promotion should go to a man who "came up from the ranks.

Wilkinson's motion included the request that Smith be paid $350 a month. Lemmert said he believed Smith to be receiving that sum now, and asked if the salary should not be fixed higher.

County Road Report Filed

John J. Smith, acting county engineer, filed a report on road work done by the county engineer's office last spring with the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday.

Total cost of county road work for the current year was approximately $75,000 and included construction of eight miles of hard-surfaced macadam highway. The macadam was an eight-inch layer upon a crushed rock base and was done entirely with equipment purchased within the last two years by the county.

Also included in the report was the chipping and oiling of 20 miles of county roads. Installation of one-half mile of roadside guard rail was also completed.

Culvert and drainage work amounted to 84 feet of four-foot pipe and 22 feet of six-inch pipe. Eight and one-half miles of roads were improved by placing shale on the roadbed.

Extensive bridge work was also done with a 100-foot Bailey type steel structure being erected across Wills Creek near Corriganville to replace the span washed out by last spring's high water. This bridge was obtained from the federal government and is used by 11 school children of the area besides the residents on the opposite side of the stream from Corriganville.

Three steel and wooden bridges were replaced, and 75 county-maintained bridges were painted and repaired.

The county roads department also did numerous repair jobs on roads damaged by heavy rains during the spring and summer months.

Davis Man Faces 10-Year Pen Term

Two Wtst Virginia youths were given 10-year penitentiary sentences Monday for the attempt hijacking of more than 60 veal calves and 116 sheep.

John E. Bigler, Davis, and his companion in the holdup of a heavily loaded cattle truck near Arnettsville, W. Va., August 17, Earl (Lucky) Brown, Clarksburg, W. Va., were sentenced by Circuit Judge Charles G. Baker at Morgantown after they pleaded guilty to armed robbery charges.

Brown's wife, Hazel, also entered a guilty plea but Judge Baker referred her case to the probation and parole authorities for investigation.

In giving the men the minimum sentence for armed robbery, Judge Baker said: "I don't know what any court could say to you good looking young people. How you could get mixed up in one of the worst crimes on the books is beyond my comprehension."

The Browns and Bigler have no past criminal records, according to F. B. I. investigations of their fingerprints, but Brown has told police that he, as a U. S. Marine in Yokohoma, Japan, committed a daring daylight robbery of a Japanese bank in 1946, and got away with 500,000 yen, or about $30,000. He said a Navy court martial found him guilty of this but that he served only a year at a Naval prison in California.

In referring Mrs. Brown's case to parole authorities, the court took into consideration that she has an infant child and was, at the time of her arrest, 18 years old. Bigler is a former Clarksburg truck driver.

They are also under a kidnaping indictment in Preston county, where Prosecutor R. Doyne Halbriter said today that no decision had been reached on possible prosecution on this charge.

The cattle truck, driven by Frank Lewis, was enroute to Pittsburgh on the night of the robbery. At the Arnettsville hill, between Fairmont and Morgantown, Lewis put the truck into low gear. While traveling at a slow rate, the truck was boarded by an armed man who ordered Lewis to stop, which he did.

Then Lewis was blindfolded, put into a sedan, and driven for several hours before he was released in Preston county. The truck was abandoned and the cattle were found the next day on a Route 7 farm. The Browns and Bigler were arrested the same day in a Clarksburg rooming house. Included in the haul were 61 head of veal calves and 116 sheep.

It takes batteries that weigh from 4,800 to 9,500 pounds for air-conditioning and heating units in railroad passenger cars.

Arbitration Board Decides For Celanese

Awards were made in favor of the company on two issues in arbitration hearings between the Celanese Corporation of America and Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America. A third issue, involved in the same case, will be decided later.

I. Robert Feinberg, arbitrator, outlined the issues involved as follows:

In January, 1948, the company instituted a new operation in the Textile Department of the local plant known as "Customer Warping", The company states that the operation was started to take care of packing of excess yarn production and to meet customers' demands for a newly styled package.

The new operation consists of winding 600 or 700 strands of yarn on a wooden or metal beam approximately four and one-half feet in length, capable of holding about 27,000 yards and 650 pounds of yarn. The jobs involved in this operation are those of warper operator and creeler.

While the operation is different from any previously performed in the Textile Department, the company contends that it is similar to the operation of "warp knitting" in another department, and an inspection by the arbitrator of both jobs led him to believe this to be so.

Prior to the establishmet of the new operation the yarn produced by the company went through various operations in the Textile Department, including the operations of coning, twisting, and capspun. These operations are by-passed in the yarn packaged in the new form. The new package, by its nature, replaces coning, and capspun operations, and while the yarn is of low twist the company says its customers are willing to accept it in that state.

The company established the wage rates for the jobs involved in the new operation on an incentive basis. Under the procedure outlined in the agreement between the parties applicable to the creation of rates for new jobs, it conferred with union officials prior to the installation of the rate. There is some question as to whether the union at that time contested the establishment of an incentive, as distinguished from an hourly rate, but, in any event, the union subsequently claimed that the rate should have been established on an hourly basis. In this proceeding the union raises the following issues.

1. The right of the company to establish an incentive, rather than an hourly rate for the jobs involved.

2. The nature or amount of the incentive rate.

3. The right of employes to transfer from other operations in the Textile Department to the new operation, principally from the operations of coning, tdisting and capspun.

At the hearing the parties agreed that since the determination of the second issue depended upon the determination of the first, the arbitrator should issue an interim award on issues No. 1 and No. 3, and should the determination of the first issue be in favor of the company a further hearing would be held to determine the second issue.

The arbitration award was in favor of the company in its right to establish an incentive rate for the "customer warping" sub-division. The determination of this incentive rate will be made later.

The company was favored in the arbitrator's award in connection with the transfer issue. The employes in the coning, twisting and capspun sub-divisions do not presently possess the right to transfer into vacancies in the new "customer warping" operation since it does not appear that the new operation has affected employment in those sub-divisions. This determination is without prejudice to the right of the union to raise this question again, and the question of the seniority of older employes in the coning, twisting and capspun operation, in the future should it appear that the "customer warping" operation has reduced or will reduce employment in those sub-divisions.

Checker Champion Demonstrates Skill

William F. Ryan, New York, reportedly world checker champion, demonstrated his skill before 160 local enthusiasts Monday night at the B. and O. YMCA.

Ryan amazed onlookers by playing five games at one time "blindfolded". With five players at one table, the expert defeated them by matching their moves from memory while seated in another part of the room.

In another demonstration he played 12 games at once, moving from one board to another.

During the evening, according to Courtney Kidwell, general secretary of the B. and O. "Y", which sponsored the event, Ryan played 100 games without losing one.

The best opponent he faced, Kidwell said, was Clyde Broadstock, 624 Maryland Avenue, a Celanese worker, who played the expert to a draw twice while losing one.

Ryan, whom Kidwell has seen several times at other railroad YMCA's, said the champion has played as many as 20 games in the "blindfolded" method and defeating all contestants.

Kidwell said Ryan laid his claim to world's champion honors after winning a tournament at Miami, Fla., two years ago. He declared the New York man has not been beaten since that time in a title match.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree of divorce divorcing the plaintiff from the defendant A VINCULO MATRIMONII. The Bill states the parties were married on February 25, 1945, in Cumberland, Maryland; that no children were born of said marriage; that the defendant deserted the plaintiff on or about the 1st day of August, 1945, without just cause or reason and that said desertion has been continuous and uninterrupted since said date; that said desertion is deliberate and final and beyond any reasonable expectation or hope of reconciliation; that the plaintiff has resided in Allegany County, Maryland, for more than two years preceding the filing of the Bill of Complaint and the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and his present address and whereabouts is unknown with the exception that his last known address is 118 Hull Street, Brooklyn, New York.

It is thereupon this 8th day of November, 1948, by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, sitting in Equity, ordered that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Allegany County, Maryland, for once a week for four successive weeks before the 13th day of December, 1948, give notice to the non-resident defendant of the object and sustance of this suit warning him to be and appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 29th day of December, 1948, to show cause, if any he may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Big Board Shares Decline As Stock Market Extends Uncertain Pattern

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (INS)—Big board shares closed irregularly lower today as the market extended the uncertain pattern of recent sessions. Steels finished mixed as did oils. Motors and rails continued easier.

One of the few features in the market was a late upward bulge in airline transport shares. United, Eastern, American Airlines and Transcontinental and Western Air added sizable fractions.

Volume totaled 1,200,000 shares vs. 1,010,000 yesterday.

National Steel slumped 1½ but United States Steel and Bethlehem closed unchanged. Motors were firm at first but later suffered a sinking spell depressing General Motors a point.

Rails tried for higher ground in early deals but relief proved temporary. In the quiet utility group a block of 4,600 North American Company sold at 15, unchanged.

Blue chip chemicals closed lower. Stocks adding small fractions included Westinghouse, Union Carbide, American Smelting, General Foods, General Electric, and National Biscuit.

In the curb share list Colonial Airlines common climbed five-eighths to 5⅞. Bond market averages closed fractionally lower.

The bonds to be awarded to the bidder naming the lowest rate of interest named in any legally acceptable proposal and offering to pay not less than par for the bonds. The lowest rate of interest will be determined on the basis of the lowest interest cost to the County for the bonds so to be issued from their date of issue to the last dates of maturity of any of said bonds. As between the bidders naming the same rate of interest, the proposal of the bidder offering to pay the largest premium will be accepted. In the event two or more responsible bidders have made the same bid and such bids provide the lowest interest cost to the County as aforesaid, and if for the whole amount of said bonds so offered for sale, or if such bids taken together exceed said whole amount of said bonds, then the bonds shall be awarded in ratable proportion to such responsible bidders making the same.

The right to reject any and all bids is reserved to The County Commissioners of Allegany County.

A Certified Check for not less than Two Per Cent (2%) of the aggregate per value of said bonds so offered for sale, drawn to order of Treasurer of Allegany County, must be enclosed with each bid for said bonds, as security for compliance with said bid. No interest will be allowed on amount so deposited and the checks of all unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them forthwith upon the award of the bonds.

This issue of bonds is authorized by Chapter 419 of Acts of General Assembly of Maryland, passed at its regular session in year 1947, and said bonds are also issued in accordance with the Resolution of The County Commissioners of Allegany County, duly adopted on the 16th day of November, 1948.

Said bonds will all be dated 1st day of January, 1949; they will be in denominations of One Thousand Dollars, ($1,000.00), each, and they will bear interest at the rate fixed in the accepted bid, as hereinbefore provided, payable semi-annually on the first days of July and January, in each year, in accordance with interest coupons to be attached to said bonds. Said bonds shall be signed by President of The County Commissioners of Allegany County and duly attested by the Clerk to the County Commissioners, with the Corporate Seal of the County Commissioners attached thereto and the coupons attached to each of said bonds shall bear the facsimile of the President of The County Commissioners of Allegany County, printed, lithographed or engraved thereon.

Said bonds shall be numbered consecutively from Number one (1) to Number two thousand (2,000), both inclusive, and they will be divided into twenty-five (25) series of eight (80) bonds, each series aggregating Eighty Thousand Dollars, ($80,-000.00), par amount, and each series to be designated by a different series letter from the letter "A" to the letter "Y", both inclusive. Said bonds will mature and become payable in the order of their consecutive numbers and series letters, one of said series maturing in each of the years 1950 to 1974, both inclusive, on January 1st of each of said years.

Both the principal and interest of the bonds will be payable in such funds as may be on the respective date or dates of payment thereof, legal tender for payment of debts due in the United States of America, at the office of the Treasurer of Allegany County, Cumberland, Allegany County, Maryland. Accrued interest between date of the bonds and the time of the payment and delivery shall be adjusted with the purchaser.

The bonds will be registerable as to principal on registration books kept for that purpose by the Clerk to The County Commissioners of Allegany County, Cumberland, Allegany County, Maryland.

Under existing laws, the bonds are exempt from all State, County and Municipal taxation in the State of Maryland.

Address all bids to The County Commissioners of Allegany County, marked "Bids for Allegany County School Bonds."

Any further information desired may be obtained from the office of the County Commissioners at the Court House, Cumberland, Allegany County, Maryland.

Board Appoints John J. Smith County Engineer

John J. Smith, Mt. Savage, was appointed county engineer by the Board of Allegany County Commissioners yesterday following a motion by President Charles N. Wilkinson which was seconded by Commissioner William H. Lemmert.

Commissioner James Holmes Lonaconing, abstained from voting, saying that he would wait until Friday when John T. Fey, attorney to the board, gave an interpretation of the law on the qualifications of a county engineer.

It was agreed by board members that qualifications for the position included at least ten years practical experience in road building work in a supervisory capacity. Holmes questioned whether Smith has sufficient experience.

Smith, acting county engineer about 18 months since the resignation of Albert S. Paye, has been with the roads department 12 years, according to Wilkinson, and has the necessary qualifications.

Commissioner Lemmert said that Smith has done the "best job of any man in charge of the county roads work in a long time".

Both Wilkinson and Lemmert said it is the best plan to have a practical man on the job, and that they believe the promotion should go to a man who "came up from the ranks.

Wilkinson's motion included the request that Smith be paid $350 a month. Lemmert said he believed Smith to be receiving that sum now, and asked if the salary should not be fixed higher.

County Road Report Filed

John J. Smith, acting county engineer, filed a report on road work done by the county engineer's office last spring with the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday.

Total cost of county road work for the current year was approximately $75,000 and included construction of eight miles of hard-surfaced macadam highway. The macadam was an eight-inch layer upon a crushed rock base and was done entirely with equipment purchased within the last two years by the county.

Also included in the report was the chipping and oiling of 20 miles of county roads. Installation of one-half mile of roadside guard rail was also completed.

Culvert and drainage work amounted to 84 feet of four-foot pipe and 22 feet of six-inch pipe. Eight and one-half miles of roads were improved by placing shale on the roadbed.

Extensive bridge work was also done with a 100-foot Bailey type steel structure being erected across Wills Creek near Corriganville to replace the span washed out by last spring's high water. This bridge was obtained from the federal government and is used by 11 school children of the area besides the residents on the opposite side of the stream from Corriganville.

Three steel and wooden bridges were replaced, and 75 county-maintained bridges were painted and repaired.

The county roads department also did numerous repair jobs on roads damaged by heavy rains during the spring and summer months.

Davis Man Faces 10-Year Pen Term

Two Wtst Virginia youths were given 10-year penitentiary sentences Monday for the attempt hijacking of more than 60 veal calves and 116 sheep.

John E. Bigler, Davis, and his companion in the holdup of a heavily loaded cattle truck near Arnettsville, W. Va., August 17, Earl (Lucky) Brown, Clarksburg, W. Va., were sentenced by Circuit Judge Charles G. Baker at Morgantown after they pleaded guilty to armed robbery charges.

Brown's wife, Hazel, also entered a guilty plea but Judge Baker referred her case to the probation and parole authorities for investigation.

In giving the men the minimum sentence for armed robbery, Judge Baker said: "I don't know what any court could say to you good looking young people. How you could get mixed up in one of the worst crimes on the books is beyond my comprehension."

The Browns and Bigler have no past criminal records, according to F. B. I. investigations of their fingerprints, but Brown has told police that he, as a U. S. Marine in Yokohoma, Japan, committed a daring daylight robbery of a Japanese bank in 1946, and got away with 500,000 yen, or about $30,000. He said a Navy court martial found him guilty of this but that he served only a year at a Naval prison in California.

In referring Mrs. Brown's case to parole authorities, the court took into consideration that she has an infant child and was, at the time of her arrest, 18 years old. Bigler is a former Clarksburg truck driver.

They are also under a kidnaping indictment in Preston county, where Prosecutor R. Doyne Halbriter said today that no decision had been reached on possible prosecution on this charge.

The cattle truck, driven by Frank Lewis, was enroute to Pittsburgh on the night of the robbery. At the Arnettsville hill, between Fairmont and Morgantown, Lewis put the truck into low gear. While traveling at a slow rate, the truck was boarded by an armed man who ordered Lewis to stop, which he did.

Then Lewis was blindfolded, put into a sedan, and driven for several hours before he was released in Preston county. The truck was abandoned and the cattle were found the next day on a Route 7 farm. The Browns and Bigler were arrested the same day in a Clarksburg rooming house. Included in the haul were 61 head of veal calves and 116 sheep.

It takes batteries that weigh from 4,800 to 9,500 pounds for air-conditioning and heating units in railroad passenger cars.

Arbitration Board Decides For Celanese

Awards were made in favor of the company on two issues in arbitration hearings between the Celanese Corporation of America and Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America. A third issue, involved in the same case, will be decided later.

I. Robert Feinberg, arbitrator, outlined the issues involved as follows:

In January, 1948, the company instituted a new operation in the Textile Department of the local plant known as "Customer Warping", The company states that the operation was started to take care of packing of excess yarn production and to meet customers' demands for a newly styled package.

The new operation consists of winding 600 or 700 strands of yarn on a wooden or metal beam approximately four and one-half feet in length, capable of holding about 27,000 yards and 650 pounds of yarn. The jobs involved in this operation are those of warper operator and creeler.

While the operation is different from any previously performed in the Textile Department, the company contends that it is similar to the operation of "warp knitting" in another department, and an inspection by the arbitrator of both jobs led him to believe this to be so.

Prior to the establishmet of the new operation the yarn produced by the company went through various operations in the Textile Department, including the operations of coning, twisting, and capspun. These operations are by-passed in the yarn packaged in the new form. The new package, by its nature, replaces coning, and capspun operations, and while the yarn is of low twist the company says its customers are willing to accept it in that state.

The company established the wage rates for the jobs involved in the new operation on an incentive basis. Under the procedure outlined in the agreement between the parties applicable to the creation of rates for new jobs, it conferred with union officials prior to the installation of the rate. There is some question as to whether the union at that time contested the establishment of an incentive, as distinguished from an hourly rate, but, in any event, the union subsequently claimed that the rate should have been established on an hourly basis. In this proceeding the union raises the following issues.

1. The right of the company to establish an incentive, rather than an hourly rate for the jobs involved.
2. The nature or amount of the incentive rate.
3. The right of employes to transfer from other operations in the Textile Department to the new operation, principally from the operations of coning, tdisting and capspun.

At the hearing the parties agreed that since the determination of the second issue depended upon the determination of the first, the arbitrator should issue an interim award on issues No. 1 and No. 3, and should the determination of the first issue be in favor of the company a further hearing would be held to determine the second issue.

The arbitration award was in favor of the company in its right to establish an incentive rate for the "customer warping" sub-division. The determination of this incentive rate will be made later.

The company was favored in the arbitrator's award in connection with the transfer issue. The employes in the coning, twisting and capspun sub-divisions do not presently possess the right to transfer into vacancies in the new "customer warping" operation since it does not appear that the new operation has affected employment in those subdivisions. This determination is without prejudice to the right of the union to raise this question again, and the question of the seniority of older employes in the coning, twisting and capspun operation, in the future should it appear that the "customer warping" operation has reduced or will reduce employment in those sub-divisions.

Checker Champion Demonstrates Skill

William F. Ryan, New York, reportedly world checker champion, demonstrated his skill before 160 local enthusiasts Monday night at the B. and O. YMCA.

Ryan amazed onlookers by playing five games at one time "blindfolded". With five players at one table, the expert defeated them by matching their moves from memory while seated in another part of the room.

In another demonstration he played 12 games at once, moving from one board to another.

During the evening, according to Courtney Kidwell, general secretary of the B. and O. "Y", which sponsored the event, Ryan played 100 games without losing one.

The best opponent he faced, Kidwell said, was Clyde Broadstock, 624 Maryland Avenue, a Celanese worker, who played the expert to a draw twice while losing one.

Ryan, whom Kidwell has seen several times at other railroad YMCA's, said the champion has played as many as 20 games in the "blindfolded" method and defeating all contestants.

Kidwell said Ryan laid his claim to world's champion honors after winning a tournament at Miami, Fla., two years ago. He declared the New York man has not been beaten since that time in a title match.

Local Hero Among Returned War Dead

The body of Joseph F. Sullivan, son of Mrs. Virginia M. Sullivan, 304 Magruder Street, who was fatally wounded in action on Iwo Jima, is among those of 2,554 war dead being returned from cemeteries in the Pacific area.

Pvt. Sullivan, a member of the Marine Corps, was a star football player at Allegany High School in the 1930's.

His body is being brought back to the United States aboard the Army Transport Dalton Victory.

Also returning on the Dalton Victory were the bodies of Cpl. George P. Popernack, son of John A. Popernack, of Route 2, Somerset, Pa., and Sgt. Carl Ramsey, son of Ruben A. Ramsey, Route 2, Everett, Pa., both members of the Marine Corps.

Mayor Will Ask Council To Explain Smoke Delay

Says Actions Now Appear Deliberate

Three members of the City Council will be asked to clarify their "delaying actions" on Cumberland's smoke abatement program, Mayor Thomas S. Post, whose recommendation for a deputy inspector was rejected, said last night.

Mayor Post said he would ask his opponents to explain their objections to Francis E. Mullan, who was turned down by a three to two vote at the Monday session. He said he will request the clarification at a special meeting this morning.

The three councilmen to whom the Mayor refers are Commissioners William H. Buchholtz, Edgar Reynolds and William J. Edwards. They voted against Mullan at the Monday meeting. Buchholtz questioned the candidate's qualifications. Others gave no reason.

In commenting on his plan of action for this morning's meeting, Mayor Post declared he would ask the members to clarify their stand. He did not say that he would resubmit Mullan's name for the appointment.

"It looks to me," the Mayor said, "that they are deliberately delaying the smoke control program by their action and I intend to ask them to clarify themselves. I will ask them if they want me to seek another person."

Mayor Post said the fact that he plans to quiz the council about seeking another person in no way indicates that he is withdrawing his support for Mullan. In fact, he said, he may resubmit his name at the special session.

Commissioner Buchholtz declared he continues to oppose Mullan on the grounds of examination grades scored in a test recently conducted by George M. Hitchcock, smoke abatement engineer. Mullan was the low man of three submitted to the Mayor as likely men for the inspection position.

Hitchcock has said previously that he will "show results" in the battle against dense smoke within 30 days after an inspector is named. His statement implied that it remains only for the Mayor and Council to agree on a person for the position to get the 18-months-old smoke control ordinance into action.

Other councilmen foes failed to change their "no comment" attitude on the stand they are taking against Mullan yet failing to offer any solution to the present deadlock. Commissioner William V. Keegan has already voted his support for Mullan.

Correction

Cumberland's all-confusing municipal dispute over appointment of a deputy smoke inspector presented a new problem of confusions yesterday. This is it.

Does a councilman's negative vote indicate that he is opposed to the person seeking the position. Commissioner William J. Edwards raised the question.

He claims he was misquoted in a newspaper story which said he was opposed to Mullan being named smoke inspector. "I voted against him, but I'm not opposed to him," Commissioner Edwards declared in asking for a correction.

Hunter Is Found Dead Beside Buck Deer He Killed

Heart Attack Is Given As Reason

Four hours after he was missed by his companions, a West Virginia hunter was found dead lying beside the six-point buck deer that he shot and killed in Caanan Valley Monday. He was identified as Elmer Hupp, 49, Buckhannon.

A Davis, W. Va., physician who examined the body 24 hours later, after it was carried and packed by horse over a rugged mountain trail, said death resulted from a heart attack. Hunting companions said he had suffered from a heart condition.

Hupp, foreman of a prison labor gang in Buckhannon, began the hunting trip with several companions Monday morning. When he failed to report to the camp at 4 p. m., a time set for meeting, the friends began to search for him.

One of the party told authorities Hupp's body was discovered in a small ravine. Hupp, police were told, had apparently begun to rough dress the deer and then fallen back. The rifle was lying nearby.

The area in which Hupp's body was found is inaccessible, members of the hunting party, not identified, declared. It was necessary to carry the body three miles where it was placed on a horse to ford a deep stream.

From there the body was taken to camp by jeep and then driven to Davis. Authorities said the body arrived in Davis yesterday at 1 p. m. when the physician gave the heart attack verdict.

Friends said Hupp had been hunting deer in season for the past four years. The animal shot Monday was his first kill, and members of the party said it is possible he became over excited by the good luck.

Shooting Victim Held As Witness

A Grantsville man, Victor Holliday, who was wounded at the time his companion was shot to death outside a Garrett County tavern November 19, yesterday was discharged from the hospital where he was treated for abdominal wounds. He posted $500 bond for his appearance as a material witness.

Meanwhile, Andrew Baluch, owner of the tavern who is accused of firing the shots, is being held in Garrett County Jail without bond on charges of murdering Meno Durst.

Holliday was with Durst, police said, when Baluch fired four shots through a locked tavern door. One of the shots fatally wounded Durst and another struck Holliday in the stomach. Baluch said the men were seeking admittance to the tavern after it was closed.

Holliday was taken to a Confluence, Pa., hospital by police where his injuries were described as painful but not serious at the time of admittance. Durst was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital.

Police conducted a two-hour search for Baluch before finding him at the home of a brother about a mile from the tavern on the Pennsylvania side of the state line. He signed a statement admitting the shooting several hours after being arrested.

Holliday was released in the custody of Garrett County Sheriff Juniper S. Teets yesterday and returned to Maryland. He posted the bond before Magistrate H. U. Stanton in Grantsville. A warrent was issued for Holliday identifying him as a witness shortly after the shooting.

Baluch, who was given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate H. A. Loraditch, Oakland, is being held for action of the Garrett County Grand Jury.

Weather

You just never know from one day to the next. After seeming to make up its mind to pout all winter long, the sun let its face be shown during the afternoon even though it didn't do much toward alleviating the cold. The maximum temperature of 49 was 10 degrees warmer than Monday's, however. Weather today looks uncertain. Last night the thermometer read 33 degrees, one degree lower than the 24-hour minimum and vague predictions of cloudy and colder are all the weatherman would venture.

Pennsylvania Miner Hurt While Working

James Murray, 33-year-old Wellersburg, Pa., mine worker, was admitted to Memorial Hospital yesterday for treatment of a fractured right collar bone suffered when a rack fell on him at work. He was reported in good condition.

Treated at the same hospital was Ralph Beet, 33, 516 Broadway Circle, for a laceration of the left wrist received when a razor with which he was cutting wood slipped.

A woman identified as Mrs. Anna Pool, 52, Fifth Street, was slightly injured about 11 a. m. yesterday when struck by an automobile in front of the Tip-Top Restaurant. She was examined at Memorial Hospital.

Attaches identified the driver as Kenneth Harrington, this city, and said he told them the woman stepped in front of his machine. Police preferred no charges.

Charles W. Poe, 32, of 54 Blocher Street, Ridgeley, received treatment after he lacerated the little finger of his right hand while butchering.

Donius Released On Bond Of $300

Louis Donius, Wineow Street, accused of stealing 16 chickens valued at $40, yesterday was released from Allegany County Jail where he was being held for action of the grand jury in default of $300 bond. The bond was posted by a brother.

Donius pleaded not guilty to the theft charge when arraigned in Trial Magistrates Court Saturday. Arresting officers testified that he took 16 chickens owned by Robert C. Marker, and was attempting to sell them when arrested.

Plant Promotion Group Approves Publicity Plan

Accept Lay-Out For Advertising Brochure

Approval was given last night by the Cumberland Industrial Promotion Committee, to a lay-out and format of a brochure designed to publicize the city and area as an ideal location for new industries, according to Howard M. Smith, committee chairman.

The brochure will contain about 50 photographs and carefully written messages citing the industrial, recreational, economic, social, religious and educational advantages of Cumberland.

Prepared by Wilbur K. Bishop, local advertising agent, the booklet will be printed in black and gold, the colors of the Maryland flag. Throughout the entire affair, the theme "Cumberland Has It" is cleverly woven.

Members of the committee discussed and analyzed the copy for the book and gave it final approval. Bishop was authorized to proceed with plans for printing 1,500 and to obtain prices. It was also decided to purchase gummed labels for use on letterheads.

Other suggestions were considered and there was discussion on various phases of getting the message of the committee in the hands of industrialists and others interested in plant locations.

One of the best ideas came from Earl D. Chaney, of Chaney Transportation Company, a member of the committee. He offered the use of his trucks as an advertising medium and authorized the committee to paint a sign on the side of each of his huge trucks and trailers.

These trucks, he explained, are making regular trips to Pittsburgh, Pa., New York, Albany, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y., Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pa., and other cities. They are seen by many people, especially at out of town plants, factories, warehouses, etc., Chaney said.

The committee accepted Chaney's offer and decided to paint advertising messages on several vehicles.

Smith said more people are beginning to talk about new plants for Cumberland, and more people are beginning to realize that Cumberland must seek new employment for its people.

According to the local Employment office, records, many people are being referred to jobs outside of the city and area, because there are insufficient employment opportunities here.

He expressed his appreciation to the committee for their individual and collective help in the program, and said that continued interest, work, planning and effort will get results.

Smith said he is convinced Cumberland has more to offer than many cities its size, and the industrial opportunities here must be carried to those seeking new locations.

Rheumatic Fever Clinic To Open Here In January

Many Groups Will Aid In Project

Definite plans are now being formulated to begin operation of a rheumatic fever clinic in Allegany County in January, Dr. Winter R Frantz, city and county health officer, announced yesterday.

The clinic will be under the supervision of the County Health Department and will operate with the cooperation of the state, county and city health departments, the Rheumatic Fever Association, the Allegany County League for Crippled Children and the American Legion.

Present plans call for one clinic to be held each month in the basement of City Hall, with additional clinics added if the need is evident.

Officials pointed out the clinic would be a diagnostic service at which heart specialists would diagnose and recommend treatment by appointment to patients referred for treatment by the city and county health departments, physisians and interested groups as well as persons who come for aid.

Plans will be set up to follow up cases which have been studied by the clinic. One of the greatest difficulties in Western Maryland, authorities pointed out, is the lack of facilities when hospitalization is required.

The Health Department here has a fluoroscope available but must secure an electro-cardiograph for use at the cardiac clinics.

Plans have been under way here for some time under the sponsorship of the Crippled Chirdren's League to establish such a clinic but technical difficulties have delayed placing the plans into operation.

Until recent years, Maryland has had practically no facilities to meet the great needs of cardiac disease field.

Cumberland Girl Wins Scholarship At National 4-H Club Congress

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (AP)—Elizabeth M. Linton, 19-year-old Maryland farm lass, will preside Thursday over the annual banquet which will conclude the National 4-H Club Congress here.

The pretty brunette coed from Western Maryland College was still somewhat surprised tonight at being picked over candidates from other states for toastmistress. It was the first time the honor has been accorded a Maryland 4-H'er.

Betty's parents make their home on a 180-acre tobacco farm in Grayton, Charles County. She has been a 4-H member seven years and is aiming for a career in personnel management work.

Two girls in Maryland's delegation of 29 won college scholarships of $200 each today for their outstanding work.

They are Miss Roxie L. Montgomery, 19, a University of Maryland junior, and Miss Barbara A. Long, 17, a junior at Allegany High School, Cumberland.

Miss Montgomery, whose home is in Ijamsville, Frederick County, raises a garden on each of her parents' three farms and sells some of the produce to Frederick stores.

Barbara Long won one of the six national scholarships offered for household schievements.

She said her mother started her sewing on buttons when she was three years old "to keep me out of mischief."

Since then, Barbara has done a lot of sewing, and her garments have been picked for blue ribbon awards at county and 4-H state revues.

Barbara wants to go to college and then become an agricultural extension agent when she graduates from college.

$37,500 Claimed In Auto Mishap Damage Cases

Other Civil Suits Filed In Court

Three damage suits, involving personal injuries resulting from automobile mishaps and claims totaling $37,500 were docketed in Circuit Court yesterday, along with several suits for accounts receivable.

James Bonner entered a suit for $30,000 against Jack Travis, Virginia Avenue, claiming extensive damages and injuries resulting from a car collision October 24 at 2 a. m. at Henderson Avenue and Knox Street.

Bonner, through his attorney, Earl E. Manges, claims he suffered a fractured pelvis, fractured ribs and other injuries which put him to considerable expense and loss of time when the cars collided. The plaintiff says he was driving east on Knox Street and Travis was going south on Henderson avenue.

Mary A. Sterling filed suit for $5,000 and her husband, Paul Sterling, for $2,500, against the Cumberland and Westernport Transit Company.

The declarations, filed by Edward J. Ryan, attorney for the couple, states Mrs. Sterling suffered serious and permanent injuries to her left eye. She also sustained a dislocated right hip and other injuries as a result of a collision between a bus and the Sterling car at East Main and Grant Streets, Frostburg, June 26.

Sterling claims he was also injured, his car was badly damaged, and he has borne considerable medical expense and loss of time.

Man Ordered Out Stays--In Jail

Joseph Koelker, who uses this city as his address, was ordered to get out of town within an hour yesterday after being quizzed in the office of the State's Attorney. He won't be able to make it.

The reason: Koelker is now being held in City Jail for "investigation." Actually it was several hours after the order that Koelker was again arrested and police said they will again take him to the office of the State's Attorney.

Deed Filed Conveying Bowling Alley To Church

A deed was filed for record yesterday in the office of the clerk of court conveying property in LaVale from Charles Garland Poisal and Clara Catherine Poisal to the Second Baptist Church of Cumberland. Stamps show the purchase price to have been approximately $22,500.

Announcement was made sometime ago that the Poisal Bowling Alley buildings was to be purchased by the congregation and remodeled into a church for the community.

A mortgage from the church to the Fidelity Savings Bank of Frostburg, covering the property for $10,000, is to be repaid at the rate of $126.60 per month. The mortgage was signed for the church by Kenneth M. Hayes, pastor, and E. E. Crews, Frank E. Lizer, Thomas Brakeall, Lawrence C. Lydinger, Marshall Adams, Robert C. Crowe and Charles W. Hunt, board of trustees.

Other States Considering Ban On Uninspected Md., Motor Vehicles

BALTIMORE, Nov. 30 (AP) — Neighboring states eventually may impose some kind of ban on Maryland automobiles unless the Free State enacts a motor vehicles inspection law.

Details of such a prospect came today from W. Lee Elgin, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, who incidentally is urging Maryland lawmakers to pass an inspection measure similar to one that failed to pass in 1947.

Administrators from 11 states and the District of Columbia considered the question at a recent meeting in Washington, Elgin disclosed.

They passed a resolution that would slap a virtual ban on the interstate operation of uninspected autos.

This action called for abandonment—"after a reasonable time"—of mutual agreements between states on auto inspection, pacts between states that have compulsory test laws and those that do not.

Maryland is entirely surrounded by states which do require car inspection for minimum safety standards.

If a ban on Maryland cars were enforced, it might take the form of stopping Free State motorists in the adjoining states and requiring them to have their cars inspected.

A sticker given those who complied could prevent duplication. Motorists whose cars fail to pass the tests could be compelled to make necessary repairs or else be ruled off the roads.

Elgin said he asked his colleagues to explain the phrase "reasonable time" in their resolution, as applied to possible action against Maryland cars.

He said he told them that "even if the inspection law passes without difficulty, it will take a minimum of 18 months to set up inspection stations throughout the state and get the system in operation.

"They accepted this explanation and assured me there would be no restrictive action taken so long as our state was moving as rapidly as possible to get in line with the others."

Maryland's immediate neighbors, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia all require annual auto inspections.

Report Blasts Keyser School Fire Hazards

Charge Educators With "Brush Off"

KEYSER—Numerous complaints about fire hazards that exist in the Keyser School have been made, but little, if anything, has been done to remedy them in the last year, according to Kenneth Rice, inspector for the Vigilant Reel and Hose Company, who with James G. Briley, president of the company, made a routine inspection of the buildings this week.

The conditions in the school buildings have been reported to the Mineral County Board of Education several times "but the Board of Education has given us the brush-off and tells us they have no money to make the necessary changes," the men said.

Point Out Dangers

Some of the things that were pointed out by Rice and Briley in the high school building which they feel endanger the lives of Keyser school children follow:

An accumulation of wood and rubbish in the basement under the steps leading to the first floor; a barrel of inflammable oil used to keep down dust on the floors was also found under the steps, three of four standpipes in the building to which hose would ordinarily be attached for the fighting of fires had no hose while the fourth had a hose but no nozzle.

There was no handle to turn on the pressure on the valve in the basement which would push pressure through the pipes leading to the standpipes, nor did they find a wrench to turn on the water; protecting lenses were not found on the spotlights on he stage of the auditorium in spite of the fact tha one of the lights recently set fire to the stage curtain during a play attended by several hundred school children.

One door leading to the outside of the building was found locked, also a door from the gymnasium to the outside of the building was found locked although children were in the gymnasium at the time

The firemen said they also found the fire alarm system inadequate in that the bell sounds like the ordinary signal to change classes and cannot be heard in some parts of the building.

All of these discrepancies have been pointed out to the Board of Education several times in the past year, Rice and Briley said.

Gets Bad Report

The conditions in the two elementary school buildings are just as bad, if not worse, the firemen said. A hurried trip through the southern elementary building on Mineral Street revealed large pieces of playground equipment in the hall that would prove obstacles to children hurrying out of the building; an accumulation of papers and rubbish at the foot of the steps leading to the boys' toilet which, the firemen said, had been there for several months.

Another condition which exists in the southern elementary school building is the stench from the boys' toilet. A discussion was held relative to such condition at the last meeting of the Keyser Parent-Teacher Association but no definite steps to correct the situation have been taken by the Association, Mrs. James T. Handlan, Jr., president, said.

However, it is felt by patrons of the school that a demand will be made before the Board of Education to correct the situation.

A school official said that one reason for the condition is the old fixtures in the toilet. He said he believed the fixtures are the ones that were installed in the school when it was built in 1904.

County Fenced In Against Winter

Allegany County has been "fenced in" for the winter, G. Bates Chaires, district engineer of the State Roads Commission, said yesterday. The fencing is used to stop drifting snow from packing on highways.

Approximately 12 miles of new fencing was purchased this year, according to Chaires, who said between 110 and 115 miles of snow fence has been erected in the four-county district. The job is 98 per cent complete, he declared.

The weekend snow storm which struck the Tri-State area was not a very good test of the snow fence, the district engineer said, since the equipment is primarily meant to stop snow from drifting. The recent snow was not disturbed by high winds, he explained.

The work of erecting the fence in Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Garrett Counties began in the middle of October. It was delayed slightly, Chaires said, because workers waited for farmers in some areas to harvest late crops.

Of the fencing erected, only a small portion is set up in Allegany County at any time, Chaires declared. He explained that highways in the county are protected by natural mountain barriers against drifting snow in many sections.

Most of the fencing is placed in Garrett and Frederick counties. There the flat lands along which the highways are located permit snow to be blown on the highways which have no protection.

Decree Granted

A divorce decree was granted in Circuit Court yesterday in the case of Vernon C. Wilson vs Sarah K. Wilson.

Mayor Will Ask Council To Explain Smoke Delay

Says Actions Now Appear Deliberate

Three members of the City Council will be asked to clarify their "delaying actions" on Cumberland's smoke abatement program, Mayor Thomas S. Post, whose recommendation for a deputy inspector was rejected, said last night.

Mayor Post said he would ask his opponents to explain their objections to Francis E. Mullan, who was turned down by a three to two vote at the Monday session. He said he will request the clarification at a special meeting this morning.

The three councilmen to whom the Mayor refers are Commissioners William H. Buchholtz, Edgar Reynolds and William J. Edwards. They voted against Mullan at the Monday meeting. Buchholtz questioned the candidate's qualifications. Others gave no reason.

In commenting on his plan of action for this morning's meeting, Mayor Post declared he would ask the members to clarify their stand. He did not say that he would resubmit Mullan's name for the appointment.

"It looks to me," the Mayor said, "that they are deliberately delaying the smoke control program by their action and I intend to ask them to clarify themselves. I will ask them if they want me to seek another person."

Mayor Post said the fact that he plans to quiz the council about seeking another person in no way indicates that he is withdrawing his support for Mullan. In fact, he said, he may resubmit his name at the special session.

Commissioner Buchholtz declared he continues to oppose Mullan on the grounds of examination grades scored in a test recently conducted by George M. Hitchcock, smoke abatement engineer. Mullan was the low man of three submitted to the Mayor as likely men for the inspection position.

Hitchcock has said previously that he will "show results" in the battle against dense smoke within 30 days after an inspector is named. His statement implied that it remains only for the Mayor and Council to agree on a person for the position to get the 18-months-old smoke control ordinance into action.

Other councilmen foes failed to change their "no comment" attitude on the stand they are taking against Mullan yet failing to offer any solution to the present deadlock. Commissioner William V. Keegan has already voted his support for Mullan.

Correction

Cumberland's all-confusing municipal dispute over appointment of a deputy smoke inspector presented a new problem of confusions yesterday. This is it.

Does a councilman's negative vote indicate that he is opposed to the person seeking the position. Commissioner William J. Edwards raised the question.

He claims he was misquoted in a newspaper story which said he was opposed to Mullan being named smoke inspector. "I voted against him, but I'm not opposed to him," Commissioner Edwards declared in asking for a correction.

Hunter Is Found Dead Beside Buck Deer He Killed

Heart Attack Is Given As Reason

Four hours after he was missed by his companions, a West Virginia hunter was found dead lying beside the six-point buck deer that he shot and killed in Caanan Valley Monday. He was identified as Elmer Hupp, 49, Buckhannon.

A Davis, W. Va., physician who examined the body 24 hours later, after it was carried and packed by horse over a rugged mountain trail, said death resulted from a heart attack. Hunting companions said he had suffered from a heart condition.

Hupp, foreman of a prison labor gang in Buckhannon, began the hunting trip with several companions Monday morning. When he failed to report to the camp at 4 p. m., a time set for meeting, the friends began to search for him.

One of the party told authorities Hupp's body was discovered in a small ravine. Hupp, police were told, had apparently begun to rough dress the deer and then fallen back. The rifle was lying nearby.

The area in which Hupp's body was found is inaccessible, members of the hunting party, not identified, declared. It was necessary to carry the body three miles where it was placed on a horse to ford a deep stream.

From there the body was taken to camp by jeep and then driven to Davis. Authorities said the body arrived in Davis yesterday at 1 p. m. when the physician gave the heart attack verdict.

Friends said Hupp had been hunting deer in season for the past four years. The animal shot Monday was his first kill, and members of the party said it is possible he became over excited by the good luck.

Plant Promotion Group Approves Publicity Plan

Accept Lay-Out For Advertising Brochure

Approval was given last night by the Cumberland Industrial Promotion Committee, to a lay-out and format of a brochure designed to publicize the city and area as an ideal location for new industries, according to Howard M. Smith, committee chairman.

The brochure will contain about 50 photographs and carefully written messages citing the industrial, recreational, economic, social, religious and educational advantages of Cumberland.

Prepared by Wilbur K. Bishop, local advertising agent, the booklet will be printed in black and gold, the colors of the Maryland flag. Throughout the entire affair, the theme "Cumberland Has It" is cleverly woven.

Members of the committee discussed and analyzed the copy for the book and gave it final approval. Bishop was authorized to proceed with plans for printing 1,500 and to obtain prices. It was also decided to purchase gummed labels for use on letterheads.

Other suggestions were considered and there was discussion on various phases of getting the message of the committee in the hands of industrialists and others interested in plant locations.

One of the best ideas came from Earl D. Chaney, of Chaney Transportation Company, a member of the committee. He offered the use of his trucks as an advertising medium and authorized the committee to paint a sign on the side of each of his huge trucks and trailers.

These trucks, he explained, are making regular trips to Pittsburgh, Pa., New York, Albany, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y., Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pa., and other cities. They are seen by many people, especially at out of town plants, factories, warehouses, etc., Chaney said.

The committee accepted Chaney's offer and decided to paint advertising messages on several vehicles.

Smith said more people are beginning to talk about new plants for Cumberland, and more people are beginning to realize that Cumberland must seek new employment for its people.

According to the local Employment office, records, many people are being referred to jobs outside of the city and area, because there are insufficient employment opportunities here.

He expressed his appreciation to the committee for their individual and collective help in the program, and said that continued interest, work, planning and effort will get results.

Smith said he is convinced Cumberland has more to offer than many cities its size, and the industrial opportunities here must be carried to those seeking new locations.

WIN 4-H HONORS-- Two Cumberland 4-H members were among seven Marylanders winning national honors at the 4-H Congress in Chicago beginning Sunday for their work on homemaking and agricultural projects. Ifert, Middletown, Miss Roxie L. Montgomery, Ijamsville, and Mary Louise Young, Middletown. All get $200 college scholarships except Wysong, who received $100. Miss Long won one of 12 scholarships offered for household achievements in recognition of her sewing ability which has won her several county and state blue ribbon awards.

Shooting Victim Held As Witness

A Grantsville man, Victor Holliday, who was wounded at the time his companion was shot to death outside a Garrett County tavern November 19, yesterday was discharged from the hospital where he was treated for abdominal wounds. He posted $500 bond for his appearance as a material witness.

Meanwhile, Andrew Baluch, owner of the tavern who is accused of firing the shots, is being held in Garrett County Jail without bond on charges of murdering Meno Durst.

Holliday was with Durst, police said, when Baluch fired four shots through a locked tavern door. One of the shots fatally wounded Durst and another struck Holliday in the stomach. Baluch said the men were seeking admittance to the tavern after it was closed.

Holliday was taken to a Confluence, Pa., hospital by police where his injuries were described as painful but not serious at the time of admittance. Durst was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital.

Police conducted a two-hour search for Baluch before finding him at the home of a brother about a mile from the tavern on the Pennsylvania side of the state line. He signed a statement admitting the shooting several hours after being arrested.

Holliday was released in the custody of Garrett County Sheriff Juniper S. Teets yesterday and returned to Maryland. He posted the bond before Magistrate H. U. Stanton in Grantsville. A warrent was issued for Holliday identifying him as a witness shortly after the shooting.

Baluch, who was given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate H. A. Loraditch, Oakland, is being held for action of the Garrett County Grand Jury.

Pennsylvania Miner Hurt While Working

James Murray, 33-year-old Wellersburg, Pa., mine worker, was admitted to Memorial Hospital yesterday for treatment of a fractured right collar bone suffered when a rack fell on him at work. He was reported in good condition.

Treated at the same hospital was Ralph Beet, 33, 516 Broadway Circle, for a laceration of the left wrist received when a razor with which he was cutting wood slipped.

A woman identified as Mrs. Anna Pool, 52, Fifth Street, was slightly injured about 11 a. m. yesterday when struck by an automobile in front of the Tip-Top Restaurant. She was examined at Memorial Hospital.

Attaches identified the driver as Kenneth Harrington, this city, and said he told them the woman stepped in front of his machine. Police preferred no charges.

Charles W. Poe, 32, of 54 Blocher Street, Ridgeley, received treatment after he lacerated the little finger of his right hand while butchering.

Donius Released On Bond Of $300

Rheumatic Fever Clinic To Open Here In January

Many Groups Will Aid In Project

Definite plans are now being formulated to begin operation of a rheumatic fever clinic in Allegany County in January, Dr. Winter R Frantz, city and county health officer, announced yesterday.

The clinic will be under the supervision of the County Health Department and will operate with the cooperation of the state, county and city health departments, the Rheumatic Fever Association, the Allegany County League for Crippled Children and the American Legion.

Present plans call for one clinic to be held each month in the basement of City Hall, with additional clinics added if the need is evident.

Officials pointed out the clinic would be a diagnostic service at which heart specialists would diagnose and recommend treatment by appointment to patients referred for treatment by the city and county health departments, physisians and interested groups as well as persons who come for aid.

Plans will be set up to follow up cases which have been studied by the clinic. One of the greatest difficulties in Western Maryland, authorities pointed out, is the lack of facilities when hospitalization is required.

The Health Department here has a fluoroscope available but must secure an electro-cardiograph for use at the cardiac clinics.

Plans have been under way here for some time under the sponsorship of the Crippled Chirdren's League to establish such a clinic but technical difficulties have delayed placing the plans into operation.

Until recent years, Maryland has had practically no facilities to meet the great needs of cardiac disease field.

Cumberland Girl Wins Scholarship At National 4-H Club Congress

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (AP)—Elizabeth M. Linton, 19-year-old Maryland farm lass, will preside Thursday over the annual banquet which will conclude the National 4-H Club Congress here.

The pretty brunette coed from Western Maryland College was still somewhat surprised tonight at being picked over candidates from other states for toastmistress. It was the first time the honor has been accorded a Maryland 4-H'er.

Betty's parents make their home on a 180-acre tobacco farm in Grayton, Charles County. She has been a 4-H member seven years and is aiming for a career in personnel management work.

Two girls in Maryland's delegation of 29 won college scholarships of $200 each today for their outstanding work.

They are Miss Roxie L. Montgomery, 19, a University of Maryland junior, and Miss Barbara A. Long, 17, a junior at Allegany High School, Cumberland.

Miss Montgomery, whose home is in Ijamsville, Frederick County, raises a garden on each of her parents' three farms and sells some of the produce to Frederick stores.

Barbara Long won one of the six national scholarships offered for household schievements.

She said her mother started her sewing on buttons when she was three years old "to keep me out of mischief."

Since then, Barbara has done a lot of sewing, and her garments have been picked for blue ribbon awards at county and 4-H state revues.

Barbara wants to go to college and then become an agricultural extension agent when she graduates from college.

Other Civil Suits Filed In Court

Three damage suits, involving personal injuries resulting from automobile mishaps and claims totaling $37,500 were docketed in Circuit Court yesterday, along with several suits for accounts receivable.

James Bonner entered a suit for $30,000 against Jack Travis, Virginia Avenue, claiming extensive damages and injuries resulting from a car collision October 24 at 2 a. m. at Henderson Avenue and Knox Street.

Bonner, through his attorney, Earl E. Manges, claims he suffered a fractured pelvis, fractured ribs and other injuries which put him to considerable expense and loss of time when the cars collided. The plaintiff says he was driving east on Knox Street and Travis was going south on Henderson avenue.

Mary A. Sterling filed suit for $5,000 and her husband, Paul Sterling, for $2,500, against the Cumberland and Westernport Transit Company.

The declarations, filed by Edward J. Ryan, attorney for the couple, states Mrs. Sterling suffered serious and permanent injuries to her left eye. She also sustained a dislocated right hip and other injuries as a result of a collision between a bus and the Sterling car at East Main and Grant Streets, Frostburg, June 26.

Sterling claims he was also injured, his car was badly damaged, and he has borne considerable medical expense and loss of time.

Man Ordered Out Stays--In Jail

Joseph Koelker, who uses this city as his address, was ordered to get out of town within an hour yesterday after being quizzed in the office of the State's Attorney. He won't be able to make it.

The reason: Koelker is now being held in City Jail for "investigation." Actually it was several hours after the order that Koelker was again arrested and police said they will again take him to the office of the State's Attorney.

Other States Considering Ban On Uninspected Md., Motor Vehicles

BALTIMORE, Nov. 30 (AP) — Neighboring states eventually may impose some kind of ban on Maryland automobiles unless the Free State enacts a motor vehicles inspection law.

Details of such a prospect came today from W. Lee Elgin, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, who incidentally is urging Maryland lawmakers to pass an inspection measure similar to one that failed to pass in 1947.

Administrators from 11 states and the District of Columbia considered the question at a recent meeting in Washington, Elgin disclosed.

They passed a resolution that would slap a virtual ban on the interstate operation of uninspected autos.

This action called for abandonment—"after a reasonable time"—of mutual agreements between states on auto inspection, pacts between states that have compulsory test laws and those that do not.

Maryland is entirely surrounded by states which do require car inspection for minimum safety standards.

If a ban on Maryland cars were enforced, it might take the form of stopping Free State motorists in the adjoining states and requiring them to have their cars inspected.

A sticker given those who complied could prevent duplication. Motorists whose cars fail to pass the tests could be compelled to make necessary repairs or else be ruled off the roads.

Elgin said he asked his colleagues to explain the phrase "reasonable time" in their resolution, as applied to possible action against Maryland cars.

He said he told them that "even if the inspection law passes without difficulty, it will take a minimum of 18 months to set up inspection stations throughout the state and get the system in operation.

"They accepted this explanation and assured me there would be no restrictive action taken so long as our state was moving as rapidly as possible to get in line with the others."

Maryland's immediate neighbors, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia all require annual auto inspections.

He is slated to be the chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee and is ranking member of the Senate Ways and Means Committee. # Weather

You just never know from one day to the next. After seeming to make up its mind to pout all winter long, the sun let its face be shown during the afternoon even though it didn't do much toward alleviating the cold. The maximum temperature of 49 was 10 degrees warmer than Monday's, however. Weather today looks uncertain. Last night the thermometer read 33 degrees, one degree lower than the 24-hour minimum and vague predictions of cloudy and colder are all the weatherman would venture.

Cumberland Elks To Hold Annual Memorial Service Here Sunday

The annual memorial service of Cumberland Lodge No. 63, B.P.O. Elks, will be held Sunday at 1:30 p. m. at the Maryland Theatre, with Dr. Harry Clifton Byrd, president of the University of Maryland, as guest speaker.

Dr. Byrd's address will be broadcast over WTBO from 2 to 2:30 p. m. The service is open to the public, and all Elks are asked to meet at 1 p. m. at the Elks Home to march to the theatre.

Dr. Byrd has been president of the University since 1936, but prior to that date, he held a number of other offices and was largely responsible for the rapid growth and development of the University.

He graduated from the old Maryland Agricultural College (now the College Park branch of the university) in 1908 with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Engineering. He later studied law at George Washington University and Georgetown University, of Washington, D. C., and did special work at Western Maryland College.

He has honorary degrees from Western Maryland College, L.L.D.; Washington College, L.L.D.; and Dickinson College, D.Sc.

Following graduation from Maryland, Dr. Byrd figured in a number of pursuits, among them engineering, baseball, high school coaching, and writing for a newspaper. He returned to his alma mater in 1912 and has been associated with it ever since.

From 1912 to 13 he was instructor in English and History; from 1913 to 34 he was director of athletics and football coach; from 1918 to 32 he was assistant to the president; from 1932 to 35 he was acting President of the University; and on January 17, 1936 was named president and executive officer of the State Board of Agriculture.

Since Dr. Byrd returned to his alma mater, he has seen it grow from a few hundred students to an enrollment of more than 11,000 and the property valuation increase from a few hundred thousand dollars to more than $16,000,000—largely as a result of the zeal and energy that he has put into its development. The campus at College Park has more than 600 acres and, in addition, there are in excess of 1,500

County Fenced In Against Winter

Allegany County has been "fenced in" for the winter, G. Bates Chaires, district engineer of the State Roads Commission, said yesterday. The fencing is used to stop drifting snow from packing on highways.

Approximately 12 miles of new fencing was purchased this year, according to Chaires, who said between 110 and 115 miles of snow fence has been erected in the four-county district. The job is 98 per cent complete, he declared.

The weekend snow storm which struck the Tri-State area was not a very good test of the snow fence, the district engineer said, since the equipment is primarily meant to stop snow from drifting. The recent snow was not disturbed by high winds, he explained.

The work of erecting the fence in Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Garrett Counties began in the middle of October. It was delayed slightly, Chaires said, because workers waited for farmers in some areas to harvest late crops.

Of the fencing erected, only a small portion is set up in Allegany County at any time, Chaires declared. He explained that highways in the county are protected by natural mountain barriers against drifting snow in many sections.

Most of the fencing is placed in Garrett and Frederick counties. There the flat lands along which the highways are located permit snow to be blown on the highways which have no protection.
